WEDDINGS

CLARK-MEE

The marriage of Miss Catherine Mee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frederick Mee, to Mr. R. Bruce Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Clark of Peterborough, was an interesting event of Saturday in Bishop Strachan School Chapel.

Rev. Douglas C. Candy officiated with Mr. H. Pouwells at the organ and Miss Joan Worriers as soloist.

Mr. Mee gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown of white taffeta was made with square neck long sleeves and bouffant skirt forming a circular train, and a cascade of white roses. Miss Theima Guilfoyle, maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Clark and Miss Sandra Henderson, junior bridesmaids, were gowned alike in American Beauty crepe, made with scalloped necklines and petal sleeves. Their matching hats were stitched brims, and their flowers were shaded gladioli to tone with their frocks. Mr. Cameron Clark was groomsmen, and the ushers were Mr. R. A. Mee, Mr. Donald Moore and Mr. Christopher Huffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark will make their home in Stouffville, where Mr. Clark is manager of the Stouffville Co-Op.

MCDOWELL-REESOR

The marriage of Annie Naomi daughter of Mr. Joseph B. Reesor and the late Mrs. Reesor to Mr. Harold LeRoy McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen McDowell, took place in the Wideman Mennonite church on Thursday, Oct. 3rd. Rev. Emerson McDowell, brother of the groom officiated.

The bride given in marriage by her father was attired in white and wore a corsage of red roses. The bride's sister, Miss Eva Reesor was attired in aqua and wore a corsage of pink roses. The groomsmen were Mr. Lorne McDowell, brother of the groom, Miss Ada Hoover, Miss Alma Fretz, Mr. Leonard Hoover, and Mr. Lewis Reesor sang, "Lead us C Father" and "O Happy Home." The ushers were Mr. David Reesor brother of the bride and Mr. Robt. McDowell, cousin of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home where Miss Mary Reesor, sister of the bride, and Mrs. McDowell received about fifty guests.

The couple left on a motor trip to points east. The bride travelled in a turquoise dress with navy coat and black accessories. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm.

Merrick-Soden

The marriage at Sacred Heart R.C. Church, Uxbridge, former Stouffville girl, Cora Jane Soden, daughter of Mrs. Soden and the late Ross Soden, to John Joseph (Jay) Merrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merrick of Uxbridge, took place on Saturday, Oct. 5th, with Fr. Murphy officiating.

Sacred Heart Church was beautifully decorated with gladioli, hydrangea and autumn leaves. The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, Warden John Rae, wore a floor length gown of white crepe with lace yoke and small train. Her fingertip veil was caught to a head-dress of white rosebuds. Briarcliff ches, gypsophila and odiantum fern formed the bride's bouquet.

The bridesmaid, Miss Eileen Merrick, Toronto, sister of the groom wore a floor-length gown of French blue faille and carried Supreme roses. Leo Merrick of Uxbridge brother of the groom was best man. During the signing of the register Eileen Manley sang, "Lord Who at Cana's Feast."

The wedding breakfast was served at the Mansion House, Uxbridge. The bride's mother received wearing a gown of black crepe with black accessories and Briarcliff roses. The groom's mother wore a costume of beige crepe with black accessories and Talisman roses.

After the wedding reception a party was given for the bride and groom at the home of Warden and Mrs. John Rae, Goodwood.

For going away the bride donned a gold wool shortie suit with black accessories and corsage of bronz mums and pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. After a motor trip to the States, the couple will reside in Uxbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark will make their home in Stouffville, where Mr. Clark is manager of the Stouffville Co-Op.
