REEVE NEIL WINS AT RICHMOND HILL

There was an interesting election contest in our neighboring town of Richmond Hill on Monday, where Reeve Wm. Neil defeated an old campaigner John Green by a substantial margin. Time was when Green couldn't be beaten handily, but evidently the Hillites preferred a younger and active man, and did not appreciate Mr. Green's return to municipal life.

THE PRICE OF MILK

You can raise the price of liquor, but the only squeal you hear. Is from a thirsty public which demands more gin and beer. The same way with tobacco, they will pay without a peep. And smoke at least as heavy as they did when it was cheap. You can put a tax on movies, they will ante up and go. They will pay a rise with pleasure on the things they need for show. But raise the price of milk! oh boy! they'll fight with all their breath. They have growing youngster who is bound to starve to death. The family allowance can never stand so much, it's nice to keep that windfall for nylons and such. They don't ask for bigger wages just to spend it all on milk. They will show those wicked farmer's and their scheming thieving ilk. They will march with hoisted banners, they will cable, write and wire. They will drag the local member by his whiskers through the mire. They don't mind paying rises on their whiskey, smoke and silk. BUT not the slightest fraction will they tolerate on milk.

9th Line, Markham

The Sewing Circle met last week at the home of Mrs. O. Peacock. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Lewis.

Mr. Wm. Watt has purchased the MacIntyre farm at Bethesda and intends to take up residence there in the spring.

Mr. Lewis Hamm has added an attractive sun porch to his residence.

We are very pleased to know that Mrs. Jas. McCreight is steadily improving after her operation in the Western Hospital, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Thomas were Bethesda visitors on Sunday.

Mr. Ed. Terryberry is at the home of his sister in Burlington, his brother-in-law having suffered a severe heart attack.

GORMLEY

It will be noted elsewhere in this issue that Charlie Milstead is in Newmarket hospital following his recent accident while deer hunting, and his early confinement in Parry Sound hospital. He has a broken hip. We will all pray for his early recovery.

Mr. George Leary has been very ill of recent weeks, but we hope for him a happy Christmas and an early return to better health.

A number from this vicinity attended the funeral of Mrs. Levi Grove at Altona. She was a member of the old order, mennonites.

That 17-pound Christmas cake made by a Victoria Square woman, certainly got into the light since after being reported in The Tribune, it was so light that it floated over the air Sunday morning. Of course Andy Clark, helped it along.

ALMIRA

Mr. and Mrs. John Nigh of Springvale are spending a few days with their son and family Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Brandon Henry of Toronto spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. Spoford.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wideman and family had dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wideman.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stickle and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sheffer of Stayner called on Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brillinger of Gormley on Sunday.

We are very sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Nigh and family from our community. They moved to the 7th line last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. French returned home Sunday after spending some time in Hespeller.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Stickle of Gormley had dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cober.

Mrs. Peter Stickle entertained a few friends on Wednesday to a quilt bee.

Our township council is shifting to all west side members again. We hope it will not lead to high taxes as it appeared to do years ago when the steading hand of east side members was not there.

ALTONA

Our sympathy is extended to the relatives of the late Mrs. Levi Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clarkson were guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burnett, Bloomington on Sunday.

A number from this vicinity attended the Ice Capades held in the Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard St. John and Mr. and Mrs. David Crosier were in Oshawa on Saturday last.

Owing to missing the mail recently it was overlooked reporting of the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boyd of Stouffville in honor of their recent marriage. Quite a number from the surrounding community met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Neil and a very pleasant evening was spent. Mrs. Boyd used to live in this vicinity.

Quite a number of friends of the community met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Morris to do honor to their nephew, Mr. Roy Heard and his war bride who just recently arrived. A miscellaneous shower was tendered and the nice collection of useful gifts were appreciated by the newly weds. Roy has been working for his uncle since he returned from overseas, and they intend to remain here for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Heard have just returned from a visit with relatives at Tilsonburg and a similar honor was bestowed on them while there thus they came home with a full car. We welcome Mrs. Heard to our community.

Boxing Day, Thursday, Dec. 26th will find the stores in Stouffville closed.
