THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN
 Hydro Home Economist

Hello, Grandmother! We often think of you, so this week we are addressing the column to you. It is our sincere wish that you are well and that you keep well this winter. Make yourself a cup of hot cocoa or hot soup in the mid-morning and again before you retire. If you will persist in getting up early, the long winter days can be shortened by snacks, which provide not only extra energy, but a rest period.

As to your regular meals, you have many more years of cooking experience that we have so you really know how to cook, but do not take too much trouble. Take your work less seriously.

Plain foods cooked in ways that make them easily digested are best. This means that fried foods, hot barbecue sauces, planked steaks are no longer on your menu. All meats should be ground twice to make them tender—except, of course, fish and poultry. Fatty meats and greasy food should be used with discretion.

You are a champion soup maker. One of your old-fashioned soups can be the main supper dish. If you plan a fish dinner—steam it and serve with cream sauce to which you have added chopped hard-cooked eggs. Your vegetables should be baked two or three times a week. Gelatine and cottage cheese help to make finely chopped vegetables more appetizing. Desserts take a lot of fussing sometimes and the packaged ones will save you many steps, so use them and forget your pride. We always welcome your suggestions and appreciate your interest in our column.

HOT STEAMED SALMON
 Place rack in bottom of pan; fill pan with 1½ to 2 inches of water; cover; bring water to boil. Use 3 lbs. fresh salmon; tie in piece of cheesecloth; place on rack; cover tightly and steam 30 to 35 mins. Serve 2 lbs. of the salmon hot with a sauce, and save the remainder for a salad.

COLD CHICKEN BANANA ASPIC
 2 envelopes (2 tbsps.) gelatine, ½ cup cold water, 2 cups chicken stock, 2 tbsps. lemon juice, 2 cups diced cooked or canned chicken, 1 cup cubed banana, 2 tbsps. chopped tomato, 2 tps. salt, ¼ cup diced celery.

Soften gelatine in cold water; dissolve in hot chicken stock. Add lemon juice and salt; chill until syrupy. Add remaining ingredients; pour into rinsed mould; chill in electric refrigerator until firm. Unmould. Serves 4 to 6. Serve with hot muffins.

CHILLED BUTTERSCOTCH PUDDING
 Prepare package of Butterscotch Pudding, using 1 and one-third cups milk. Cool, fold in ½ cup cream

NUDGES MEN ASIDE

Mrs. Florence Paton, Labor member for Ruschcliffe (Nottingham), is one of 12 chairmen nominated by the Speaker of the House for the current British parliamentary session. Former school teacher, she is the first woman to get such an assignment.

whipped. Line mould with waxed paper and arrange triangles of cake around edge. Pour in butterscotch mixture. Chill overnight. Serve 4 to 6.

THE SUGGESTION BOX
 My grandmother's cook book is seventy-eight years old. I wish you could see it, and the clippings pasted on the back pages. An advertisement taken from her hometown paper reads: "Cut out this ad, won't appear again — 25 assorted choice gladioli, 25 cents. Currant bushes, 2 for 5 cents."

The weighs and measures will be interesting to brides from overseas: "One pound, 2 ounces flour is equal to 1 quart. Four large tablespoons are equal to ½ gill. Sixteen large tablespoons are equal to one-half pint. Ten pullet eggs are equal to 1 pound."

"To wash carpets: Use 1 peck of potatoes for a large carpet; scrape them into a pail and let stand overnight in a pailful of water. Use a brush and scrub carpet with liquid. If brown in colour use juice of raw beef, too. When dry, brush with clean broom."

"To restore frost-bitten plants: Pour cold water over plant, wetting every leaf thoroughly. In this state place it in the dark, carefully covered with newspaper."

"To preserve autumn leaves: Place sprigs between two newspapers and leave with a light weight upon them until moisture has been absorbed. Then dip into wax which you have melted over water. Take off stove. Add a few drops of turpentine carefully. Draw leaves into pan to coat with wax immediately on both sides. If too hot, leaf will shrivel; if too cool, it will harden too thick."

"Winter sauce: One peck chopped green tomatoes, two dozen large onions peeled and chopped, one dozen green or red peppers, chopped fine; salt, pepper, and spice to suit taste; one cup brown sugar, vinegar to cover; pour the vinegar over all boiling hot and bottle for winter use."

"Egg Balls for Soup: Rub yolks of 4 boiled eggs to a smooth paste, with salt, pepper and tsp. of oil, to these add two raw ones, beat light, add enough flour to hold together, make into balls with floured hands. Set in cool place until soup is ready to serve. Put egg balls in soup for 1 minute. Then ladle out with soup."

Another old clipping reads: "Whether well-to-do, or in narrow circumstances you will hold that waste is sin, against yourself and the world. Stint nowhere in cleanliness, light and warmth and let what you have be the best and prettiest for the cost."

In an old, old letter from Grandma's friend: "More disease comes into the world in the shape of tainted milk than anyone dreams of but doctors. We bring our milk to a roll-boil quickly three times and then cool it in running water."

TAX SALES ARE WRONGLY ADVERTISED

Although very few people are aware of it, Markham township plans to hold a tax sale on Wednesday, January 15th next, for the sale of all lands and premises in arrears for three years or more.

Failing to redeem their lands before sale date the scene of the auction will be the hall at Unionville.

It is unfortunate that municipalities should not have to properly advertise such sales so that the general public may become acquainted with what is really going on in their business as a municipality. The law compels advertising to be done in a small book called the Ontario Gazette, and published in Toronto by the government. It does no service in that booklet, but costs a lot of money.

Why should not such sales be advertised in a newspaper that circulates in the municipality where the sale is to be held. Surely it is time that some action should be taken in this matter perhaps by the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association or some other body qualified to point out the present ridiculous law.

MANY HUNTERS SAY RABBITS VERY SCARCE

Rabbit hunters in Lindsay district report that there are very few rabbits this year due to the large number of foxes. They say that the foxes are depleting their numbers Post reports.

It is reported that Mr. Cliff Huston of Lindsay has been lucky enough to kill around six foxes this fall and is very pleased with his luck.
