May Pioneer in Civic Milk Distribution

Famous for pioneering the telephone in 1874, Brantford, Ont., is considering becoming Canada's pioneer city in municipal milk sale. Ald. R. Cooper, seen with his children, Raymond, six, and Olive, 13, believes that milk can be a successful public utility. Brantford electors voted in favor of the move. Vote was an "expression of opinion." Authority must be secured from the provincial legislature.

NOW WHO IS LIABLE: A passenger car flipped a stone through a window passing up the Main street of Newmarket last week. Just before the accident the driver of the car, the sander, or the town of Newmarket whose front street is conceded to be too narrow. Perhaps it can be tacked onto the contractor who supplied the sand, who knows!

Alan Manderson felt himself to be a very luck man last weekend when he had his car returned safely to him by the Toronto police after it had been stolen several days previous. The Manderson car, a 1946 model had been left locked in a city parking lot, but the thieves forced open the window, and once inside were able to start the engine. The police found the car on a city street all intact, and apparently none the worse.

Mrs. WILLIAM JAMES COAKWELL

Very active in the work of the Women's Association of Albert Street United Church and formerly, for many years, a member of the church choir, Mary Jane Robson, beloved wife of the late William James Coakwell, passed away in the Oshawa General Hospital on December 19 following a serious illness of two weeks.

The daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robson, the deceased was born in Markham on May 20, 1872, where she married on November 24, 1898. A resident of Oshawa since 1923, she had previously resided in Bronte, Pickering, Toronto and Brougham.

Predeceased by her husband on December 4, 1939, Mrs. Coakwell is survived by a daughter, Mrs. C. Detlor (Mabel) of Picton and three sons, William E. of North Oshawa, W. Gordon of Kingston and C. Orval of Oshawa. Also surviving are a brother, Frank Robson of Detroit and nine grandchildren.

The funeral was held from the Armstrong Funeral Home in Oshawa on Saturday, December 21, following by interment in Mount Lawn Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. E. Donovan Jones, pastor of Albert Street United Church there.

ALL THE BEST!

Season's greetings from Ontario's favourite radio station!

To all you listeners and friends, the staff of CFRB extends heartiest wishes for Christmas and the New Year.

Don't miss the special programmes arranged for you, during Christmas week!

When the military hospital at Peterboro, Ont., burned, ex-Artillery Sergt. Jim Jourdin lost $500 worth of belongings, among them a Panda Bear for his two-year-old Pamela. A store-to-store search left Jim still without a Panda, and the prospect for Pamela's merry Christmas looked blank indeed. But Pamela's faith in Santa Claus was saved when a Niagara Falls, Ont., man unexpectedly provided a twin substitute. Now Jim is on his way to his home in Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., to Pamela and her English war bride mother, with the Panda ready for delivery by Santa on the big night.
