GOODWOOD

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Saturday, December 21st, 1946, at Goodwood, when Joyce Muriel, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Buchanan of Engleheart was united in marriage to Norman Isaac May, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. May of Goodwood. Rev. James Taylor of Uxbridge performed the ceremony. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Harry Woodland, sister of the groom.

The bride wore a dress of sky blue and matching gloves and shoulder veil caught with a blue flower garland. She carried red roses and ferns. Mrs. Verna Bunker was matron of honor, dressed in beige suitcloth, white accessories and wore a corsage of red roses. Alger May was best man for his brother.

Following a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. May, later the happy couple left for a trip to Kirkland Lake and Engleheart. For travelling the bride wore a white winter coat, with brown accessories and a corsage of red roses. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

Mrs. Stanley Byam and daughter Olive of Toronto spent the holiday with her daughter Mr. and Mrs. Percy Baston.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hemming of London spent the holiday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDonald of Aurora, Mr. Allan McDonald of Oshawa, Mr. Floyd McDonald of Toronto, Miss Fortena and Lena McDonald of Toronto, spent the holiday with their father and their uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. D. McDonald.

Miss Jessie Reid of Toronto spent the holiday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Reid.

We welcome to our village Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davis who occupy the house formerly occupied by Mr. Percy Baston who has moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Stan Slack who has moved into the apartment house at the corner, the former occupant being Mr. Thomas Baston. Mr. Slack purchased it from the Baston estate.

A couple of our citizens have had narrow escapes at the railway crossing causing them to take to the ditch rather than hit the train.

Mr. Harvey May of Toronto visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. May over the Christmas holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morgason spent Christmas with their daughter Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fine at Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wagg spent the Christmas holiday with Mrs. Wagg's parents Mr. and Mrs. Milligan at Harriston. Mrs. Wagg is staying there for two weeks on account of the sickness of her mother.

Mr. James Boe and daughters Shirley and Audrey of Toronto spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. F. Marshall.

On Monday evening, December 30th, the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Rae gathered at the Goodwood town hall to say farewell to them and to extend good wishes to them for their welfare in their new home in Sunderland. The evening was spent in visiting, after which an address was read by Mr. John Ashenhurst and presentation of a trillight floor lamp made by Mr. Charles Feasby.

A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and the evening closed with best wishes from the Goodwood community to Mr. Rae and family.

The address signed on behalf of the residents of Goodwood and surrounding community was signed by Jean Baston, A. E. Staley, J. Ashenhurst, Morley Symes and Charles Feasby.

Sorry to report the sudden death of Mr. Pope reported elsewhere.

The excitement of our election for council is over. The Reeve and Deputy-reeve received an acclamation, but there was a contest for three councillors, four candidates running. Ralph Faulkner, Bertrum Tindall and Wendal Alcock were elected. We congratulate them on their success. In the evening all gathered in the hall to hear the speeches, and a good time was had. Walter Symes expects Ralph Faulkner will be instrumental in getting a road fixed he claims is in bad shape.

Everything at John Rae's sale went good, several bidding on the house which was not sold at the sale, but was afterwards purchased by Mr. Fred Robinson. Mr. Rae and family have moved to Sunderland.

Mrs. J. F. Reid has been on the sick list the last few days.

Mr. Dan Wagg has been laid up this last few days. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Miss Lillian and Jean Dowswell of Toronto, spent the New Year's with their brother Art. and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hummings of London spent the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones, also Ben. Jones of Toronto spent the holiday with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hynes, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Art O'Connor of Saskatchewan spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Watson.

Glad to report Mr. Claude Watson is improving from an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Alf Pugh and granddaughter Dianne of Stouffville spent the weekend with her brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. D. McDonald.

Mr. Alfred McDonald visited friends in Toronto.
