Blind Patsy Ruth Fergus, 16, is home with her Seeing-Eye dog trying to decide whether to give up her high school friends or the only eyes she has known. She can't take the gentle, pure white German shepherd to school any more, the school board insists, because he is a "potential hazard" to the other students. They have offered to . send Patsy a teacher, but Patsy wants to be with her chums. Sixteen-month-old Lucky was given her a few months ago by the Foundation for the Blind.

TO ASK REMOVAL OF MAPLE SYRUP SALE RESTRICTIONS

The Oxford Federation of Agriculture meeting in Woodstock has endorsed two resolutions, one dealling with restrcitions on the sale of maple syrup, the other with immigration.

A resolution sponsored by the for remainder of the winter season. Oxford County maple syrup producers and forwarded to the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, asked that restrictions on the sale of maple syrup be removed. Failing the removal of the restrictions the organization asked that prices be advanced to the extent that grade "Canada medium" would retail at $3.50 a gallon.

A resolution recommending that the bag limit on cottontail rabbits be reduced to four per day in Federation of Anglers and Hunters held in Niagara Falls.

The resolution, which will go to the Ontario Government, was proposed by the Waterloo County Fish and Game Protective Association, two of whose officers, President Percy Barber and Secretary Walter Another resolution sponsored calling for the removal of County Council bounties on foxes was defeated.

Fewer Cottontails Concerning the rabbit resolution the local-representatives urged-that the cottontail population of Waterloo County was being depleted and that the present bag of six per day was too much.

Those who attended the two-day convention from here were Mr. Wilson, J. V. Arnold, R. H. Mortimer and W. A. Stewart.

Worried about the decrease in the number of late trout the Waterloo representatives also secured approval for a resolution urging the provincial Government to impose a closed season for the taking of such fish in Northern Ontario during the spawning season. The movers pointed out that such a regulation covered the inland waters of Southern Ontario and formerly applied to Northern Ontario. Approval was also given a resolution urging that all hunting and fishing equipment seized under the Game and Fisheries Act from convicted persons should be sold only at the public sales regardless of value.
