GREENWOOD

On Monday last a farewell party was given Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pegg and family, at the home of Mrs. J. Stone and son of Greenwood. A large number of friends and relatives gathered to present them with a beautiful tri-light lamp and coffee table as an expression of their esteem. Mrs. I. McLean read an address and the gifts were presented by Miss Edna Green and Walter Carson.

The many friends of Mr. Wm. Middleton will be pleased to know he is on the road to recovery, after a very severe cold.

The concert consisting of pictures and local talent that was to have been held last Wednesday in the church had to be postponed owing to weather and roads, and will be held later on in aid of the Red Cross.

The flu seems to be going around again, the victims this last week, have been the Brook's family; Miss Marion Wannop and Mrs. E. Disney. Mr. and Mrs. P. Clarke, Ilean Puckrin and Harold Clarke attended the Masonic euchre and dance last Friday night at Brooklin, also F. and Mrs. Byers, Mr. and Mrs. Minker and E. and Mrs. Trimble, all reported a good time.

The W. A. will meet next Thursday p.m., April 10 in the basement of the church, where a quilt will be ready to do.

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. O. Burton on the 7th concession in the loss of her mother last week at Uxbridge.

The Farm Forum held their final meeting for the season last Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stone, during the evening, Mr. and Mrs. L. Pegg were presented with a trilight floor lamp and a coffee table and the girls with a compact each, before going to live in Oshawa.

The W.M.S. will meet on Thursday p.m. at the home of Mrs. F. Green.

VANDORF

Miss Ruth Oliver spent the week-end with friends in Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Mori and family who have been living on the Gincotti farm are leaving for their new home in Toronto this week.

Mrs. Herbert Oliver, Mrs. Percy Allin, Mrs. George E. Richardson, Mrs. Jack Moynihan, Mrs. John Petch and Mrs. Jack Preston spent Thursday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Richardson and children moved to their farm east of Queensville this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Porter and family have gone to live on their new farm at Keswick. Their neighbors gathered at Hartman school on Monday night to bid them farewell.

Mr. Lambert Wilson read the address and Mrs. Walter Graham and Mrs. Ewart Pinder made the presentations. Each family received an occasional chair, an end table, and a table lamp.

Earle Foster's sale of farm implements, stock, household furniture is taking place on Good Friday.

Travellers last week had great difficulty because of another blizzard. Some people managed to get home after shovelling, but others were held up over night. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. White had five visitors all night, and others just for supper.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moynihan had sixteen over night. Among this group were Mr. and Mrs. George Hunt, Mrs. Harry-Hunt, Mrs. Ivan Kay, Mrs. Elmer Preston and Bobby and Mr. Bruni.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Switzer were Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Babcock, John and Mary on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. S.C. King, Florence and Samuel on Saturday.

STOUFFVILLE, ONT.

BALSAM

Last Tuesday night on it's way home from Toronto the Claremont bus got stalled in a snow-drift just south of Claremont and spent the night there. Among the passengers were Don, Larry and Ross Brown, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown.

Mr. David Burleigh of Brooklin spent Sunday with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Day entertained a number of friends to a birthday party for Mr. Day.

This is the week for moving. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ward and Keith moved Monday to their new home in Claremont (the Mac Forsyth farm), and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Fiss and family moved to the farm vacated by the Wards.

We are glad to hear that Master Murray Jones is better having been sick all last week.

The W.A. will meet next Wednesday, April 9, in the basement of the church followed by a supper and crokinole. Everyone welcome.

RINGWOOD

Mrs. Cliff Morgason is visiting with her uncle, Rev. Bert Serrick, Keswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLean moved one day last week from the Rodanz farm to Art Bassett's house, eighth line north. Mr. MacLean has hired with Frank Harvey, Gormley.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Raymer from sixth line north, moved Monday to the Rodanz farm. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Raymer to our community.

We are glad to report that Sam Miller who was injured in a car accident last week, and had to be removed to the Stouffville Hospital is doing as well as can be expected.

We hope to soon see Sam, one of our most familiar figures on our corner, enjoying good health again.

Mrs. O. Halstead was a Toronto visitor on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wideman who occupied part of the Sylvanus Baker house, have moved into part of Merlyn Baker's house. Mr. Wideman is employed by Mr. Baker.

ALTONA

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. H. McIntosh in the death of her sister recently, also to Miss Mary Jones in the death of her brother.

The Young People held their postponed St. Patrick's party in the school house.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Kerswill were guests of Misses Bertha and Emma Winn, Stouffville, for dinner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Crosier were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slack at Stouffville on Sunday.

The W. I. will meet at the home of Mrs. R. Davis, April 9th, at 2 p.m.

A Good Friday service will be held in the Altona Church on the evening of April 4th with the Bloomington C.E. group in charge of the program.

The Young People's Union will meet on Friday evening, April 4th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brillinger.

The Bethesda Women's Institute will meet on April 9th at the home of Mrs. Bert Daniels, on the 6th line. Plan to visit us. We are having a sale of work and home cooking.

We welcome our new neighbors, the Watt family.

A large number from Bethesda and community attended the hockey game in Oshawa on Monday evening. Frank Curtis took 35 or so in his truck, also there were several car loads.

Plan to attend the church service on Good Friday morning at 11 o'clock at Melville church when the three charges will unite.

ALMIRA

There has been a real time of moving in our town. Mr. Jack Nigh and family of Headford moved in on the Maltby property and we understand will be starting up the mill in the near future. Mr. Herb Spofford and family also moved in one end of Nigh's house and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nigh are taking possession of the Spofford place which Mr. Nigh bought some time ago.

We welcome all new neighbors to our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Eby returned home from a trip to the West on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cober from Manitoba also Miss Beula Heise of Gormley are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stickley.
