VICTORIA SQUARE

A FAREWELL PARTY IN HONOR OF OUR GENIAL BLACKSMITH AND FAMILY

On Thursday evening of last week the Junior Farmers invited the friends and patrons of Mr. Fred Feigel to meet in the hall for a social evening.

The early part of the evening was spent in games of euchre and crokinole in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Empringham. The winners in euchre were: Mrs. Mabel Frisby, Mr. Martin Etyrn, and Mrs. Hattie Nelson.

At intervals Mr. Feigel was called to the platform. Firstly at the call of the president he was presented with a pair of farmer's overalls which he donned. Secondly he was addressed by Mr. Harvey Collard and welcomed to the ranks of Agriculture, and presented him with a "golden" ring. Again he was presented with two forks, one for the stable and a pitch fork. Lastly he was presented with a comfortable easy chair by Deputy-Reeve Dalton Rumney, and a purse of money by President Leslie Hart.

A suitable address read by Mr. Harry Barber preceded the last presentation.

Mr. Feigel made a brief reply which impressed every listener as to his sterling character. He thanked his friends for their presents, for their patronage, for their good fellowship and asked of those whom he sometimes disappointed in completing their work for their forgiveness. Said he, "I am not leaving the business, or leaving Victoria Square for myself. I am going farming for the sake of my mother and my brothers and sisters. If they reach this country safely no sacrifice is too great that I can make." Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends! Someone remarked, "His address was an excellent sermon."

KITCHENER FARMER LOOKS FOR THOUSAND GALLONS SYRUP

William Reis, R.R.2, Elmira, with 1,000 maple trees tapped, has shipped his first 15-gallon barrel of maple syrup, the Kitchener-Record reported Friday. Mr. Reis has orders for 1,000 gallons and ships most of it to the West, as far as Vancouver. He is receiving $4 a gallon.

Mr. Reis recently purchased about 15 acres of the former "Yankee Lot" from Theo. Beisel, west of Elmira, who sold his farm earlier in the month to Harold Schaefer. Mr. Reis now has about 100 acres of bushland and has installed a new evaporator preparatory to a heavy season's work.

It is reported the price set by local people who produce varying quantities of syrup is $3.50 a gallon. A good year is expected and the farmers felt people of the district would buy more at a reasonable rate.
