MRS. WILLIAM GEO. DENNIE
 The death of Mrs. William George Dennie occurred at her home in Gormley early Friday morning on May 9th. Mrs. Dennie who was in her 76th year had been in failing health for some time.
 The late Mrs. Dennie, whose maiden name was Mary Josephine Carver, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carver of Victoria Square. Mr. and Mrs. Dennie were married fifty-three years in March and had farmed in the district until seven years ago, when they retired from the farm and moved to Gormley.
 The late Mrs. Dennie was a quiet home-loving woman who was loved by all who knew her. She is survived by her husband and three daughters, Eva at home, Vera (Mrs. Harry White), Pearl (Mrs. John Smith), one son, James, eight grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Eliza McCron and Mrs. Eunice McCron of Toronto.
 The funeral took place on Monday, May 12th. There was a short service at the family home followed by service in the Victoria Square United Church. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. Pallbearers were Messrs. Thos. Johnson, Arthur Heaton, Ross Klinck, Louis Nichols, John Empringham and Dave Empringham.

CEDAR GROVE

The first real breath of spring blew across the countryside last weekend. Immediately, the great urge to work was interrupted by violet seizures of spring fever. The old adage "never do today, what you can put off until tomorrow", takes on real meaning.
 Several campers were visiting Woodland Park over the weekend. They took advantage of these rare days of sunshine to do a little carpentry and redecorating on their cottages in anticipation of summer vacations.
 On Friday evening approximately 120 people gathered at the home of Miss Belle Lapp to bid farewell to George and Mina Offen upon their departure from Cedar Grove, they having sold their store here. A studio couch, mattresses, blankets and a purse of money were presented to them. With these gifts go our best wishes for a successful future at their new location at Willow Bay. We will miss their participation in community affairs, as well as their generosity and assistance. At same time we welcome Mr. and Mrs. Loxton who opened the store on Monday and trust they will be happy and successful here.
 A community shower was tendered Norma Lapp at the home of H. Lapp on Saturday evening. Many were present from Cedar Grove and Box Grove. All wish Norm and Don the best of everything.
 The recent prize-winning play, "Who'll Get the Car Tonight", was given Monday evening at S.S. 20 along with other entertainment. One actress, Aileen Murison won the first lucky draw prize, a lawn chair donated by Alex. Milroy. Now Aileen may sit and watch the family cut the grass. Gordon Dennie won second prize, a box of groceries. The play was presented amid much hilarity, to the point of using local telephone numbers. Aileen and Evelyn took time out from dramatics to render a couple of piano numbers.
 Chief topic of conversation is the coming Victoria Eve. Dance at Markham Rainbow Gardens, May 23.
 The Y.P.U. have planned an outstanding missionary service for June 1st, at 7.20 o'clock. A student from Madras, India, studying in Toronto, will speak.

The Stouffville High School choir will present a sacred service of praise in the United Church on Sunday, May 25. These young people earned great praise in both the Toronto East and the Peel County Musical Festivals.

NEW PARK CARETAKER
 The Park Commission has engaged Albert Batt as caretaker of Stouffville Memorial Park. He will be assisted by his brother, Hector.
