William Boyes is staying with his sister, Mrs. Theo. Annan at present.
Miss Brown, teacher of No. 5, attended the teachers' gathering at the Brooklin school last Thursday.

Several friends from the Almonds church district attended the drama given in the church here on Friday evening.
We are glad to see Mrs. Cowie out again after her recent illness.
The apple growers in this district feared for their crop during the recent cold snap. The thermometer went as low as 26 degrees on one or two nights. The late spring had kept the buds back or more damage night have been done. Grassmere Orchards burnt about 6 tons of wet baled straw and hay during the three days which helped to create a smoke screen and aided in the air circulation.
The drama Tempest and Sunshine put on by the Greenwood Young People on Friday evening in the local church was well attended. All the caste did their parts well. The plot was not as good a one as many chiefly on account of the poor editing in the last scene, particularly. Amateur theatricals bring out much that is desirable in the educational work among young people, the hardest part to assist is in the choice of plays, as there are so few really choice ones to be gotten.

The Community Club met at the home of Card and Mrs. Hunter on Monday evening. After the regular business of the meeting was finished pres. Bill Winter introduced the matter of group hospitalization and the majority present favored the Blue Crossway. Several of the Club members who could not be present sent word that they would like to be included in any plan favored. It was necessary to have 40% of the membership in order to get the plan going. Over that number signified their intention of joining up. A committee with Percy Neale as chairman and F.M. Chapman was appointed to make all necessary arrangements. Anyone interested can get in touch with this committee as the lists are expected to be completed in about two weeks.

Next Monday and Tuesday brings to the Stanley Theatre, "Blue Skies" with Bing Crosby and Fred Astaire, two of the biggest singing and dancing stars of today. Capacity crowds are expected for each showing and you would be well advised to come early and avoid standing.
