Local and Personal Happenings

Miss Milta Oke of Toronto was the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spofford over the weekend.

Kindly note that classified ads. in The Tribune are charged at 2c. per word, with a minimum of 35c.

An old-timer is one who can remember when the grocer let the cat sleep in the barrel of crackers, to keep the rats out, so said an old friend who called the other day to see the editor.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hillier and family of Harlowe, called on Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams and family, Mill street on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Hillier is a sister of Mrs. Williams.

New guard railings have been erected on the roadway bridges on Market and Somerville streets by the municipal council road committee.

Rev. and Mrs. L. R. Pipher of Toronto, and Mrs. S. Pipher, Markham, spent the weekend at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Pike of Sundridge.

Members of the Stouffville United Church choir gathered at the home of their leader, Mr. L. C. Murphy last week for their regular weekly practice and at the same time feted one of their number, Miss Winifred Davis, bride-to-be. Lunch was provided by the members of the group, and of particular note was a "splendiforus" cake provided by Percy Stover. The cake was a reat work of art made by Mr. Stover's class at the re-habilitation school in Toronto.

300,000 Tomato Plants

Something to marvel at this week was the great crop of tomato plants under glass as Percy Brillinger's greenhouses in town. Some three hundred thousand plants are now moving out to the farms in the district under contract for the Campbell Soup Co., for whom Mr. Brillinger grew the plants. One farmer took something like 21,000 plants, and should be the greatest producer for the firm when it comes to picking time next fall.

University Teacher Here

Prof. H. A. Logan of the University of Toronto staff is now nicely settled in his new home just north of Stouffville off the 9th concession. Besides his wife in Prof. Logan's family are his two daughters and one son, and the family are attending school in Toronto, driving in each school day. The Logans certainly are welcome new-comers to our locality, which we trust will be entirely to their liking as they become acquainted with the section and the people. The family have taken up residence in the former S. M. Chambers place, containing about 50 acres of land with house and other buildings located on a nice setting opposite the Percy Brown farm.

Peter Ramer 88 last Friday

Mr. Peter Ramer, patient at the Brierbush Hospital, Stouffville, was receiving the congratulations of a host of friends on Friday, the occasion of his 88th birthday. He was born on the 8th concession of Markham and has lived his long life right in the home settlement, and naturally has seen more changes in the district than most people. Although a bed patient, Mr. Ramer enjoys meeting old friends and someone said such visits were better than medicine. A room mate with Mr. Ramer is Walter Dickson who has many callers, he being a patient of many months in the hospital like Mr. Ramer.

Rev. W. H. Wallace Pastor 50 Years

Served Stouffville Congregation in Early Days

Rev. W. Harris Wallace, pastor of Beverley St. Baptist Church, Toronto, is observing the 50th anniversary of his ordination this week. It was on May 13, 1897, that he was ordained minister at the old Bloor St. Baptist Church. His pastorates have included St. Thomas, Weston, Belleville, Stouffville, Barrie, Ottawa and Coaticook, Que.

With the appearance of a man of 60, Mr. Wallace is almost six feet tall, but in spite of his 82 years and length of service, he refuses to be superannuated. For the past three years he has made regular weekend trips to Acton, preaching each Sunday as pulpit supply.

Born and reared in the Presbyterian faith, he became a Baptist through conviction. He was born in Arbroath, Scotland. His home was near the famous Inchcape Rock where the father of Robert L. Stevenson built the lighthouse. Sir Walter Scott often came to visit the rock with the lighthouse builder, Mr. Wallace recalls.

Before coming to Canada Mr. Wallace spent some years in YMCA work in Dundee. A year after the Northwest Rebellion, he was named to the YMCA staff in Winnipeg. He attended Manitoba and McMaster Universities.

One of his most treasured possessions is a collection of letters from Prof. Goldwin Smith, noted author, who was a regular member of Beverley St. Church. Mr. Harris recalls the generosity of Prof. Smith and the frequency with which he presented a cheque to his pastor for work among the poor.

Stores open Friday night this week, owing to the holiday on Saturday. This plan is being adopted by the majority of towns according to the announcements in many weekly papers last week.

Mr. Alf. Pugh who has been undergoing special treatment at the Dunlop Building, Toronto General Hospital, for more than two weeks, is expected home this week, and high hopes are held that he may be in better health.

But what many electors liked about the speech was the independent view taken by the member for North York. We need more independent men, for it is their influence in parliament that ultimately gets for the rank and file of people the relief they need from burdensome taxes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Winterstein were in Gananogue last week attending the wedding of Jos. Foote son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Foote, 6th concession of Whitechurch. The bride was Miss Edythe Nuttall of Gananogue. The couple are expected to make their home at Agincourt where Mr. Foote has a veterinary practice.

Stouffville high school student of several years ago, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dowswell, Uxbridge township, George Dowswell has secured a position with the Ontario Dept. of Mines and Forests and will be stationed in the north country at Hemlo, about 200 miles north-west of Sudbury.

Work is nearing completion on the smart new apartment for Mr. and Mrs. Ken Laushway in the west end block over the billiard parlors. Mr. and Mrs. Laushway expect to move in shortly or before the end of this month, thus vacating a house on Rose avenue at the southern end of O'Brien owned by the Machine & Tool Works.

The Lord's Day Alliance is represented in our community this year by Rev. J. O. Totten. This organization is recognized widely as one performing a national and community service in safeguarding the weekly day of rest for Canadians. Many in Stouffville make an annual donation which is needed to carry on this work, and again this year you will have the opportunity to be a participant. Mr. Totten is well known locally, being a son-in-law of Mrs. S. M. Warriner, Church street.

The Home and Foreign Missionary convention held over the weekend at the M.B.C. church in town was well attended. Rev. P. G. Lehman of Kitchener, gave a very timely message on Thursday evening, on the subject of the "Open Door." On Friday evening the illustrated address by Rev. R. P. Dittmer of Springfield, Ohio, was enjoyed by all. He has recently returned from a missionary tour of the mission fields of the M.B.C. church. He spoke again in both services on Sunday. Then he and Rev. and Mrs. E. Honsberger left for the annual Missionary Board meeting to be held in Indiana this week.

Mrs. Harold Nichol and two little daughters of Hagersville, have returned home after a visit with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Ratcliff.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Ross of Toronto were guests at the home of their daughter Mrs. A. McQuarrie at the east end store over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rowbotham and Mr. Leslie Rowbotham motored to Shawinigan Falls this week where they will spend the next ten days.

A lecture that many people will want to hear will be given in the Mennonite Church, Stouffville, next Monday evening, May 26, when J. H. Hunter will show pictures and talk on Palestine, where he spent years as a tourist guide. This treat is open to everybody irrespective of church affiliations.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kudelka will take up farming shortly near Seaford, Ontario. Mr. Kudelka has been attending O.A.C. Mrs. Kudelka is the former Kathleen Kellington daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Kellington.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram M. Grove of Markham Tp. are about to have a change of address for an indefinite time. This week they are moving into Toronto to keep house for Mr. Garnet Kirk whose wife passed away recently. There are three children in the home.

We Help the Colored People?

Dr. C. P. Jones made his annual call in town this week on behalf of the colored Peoples church in Toronto, where a real down town problem exists among large families that seldom see beyond a city wall. Native of Virginia, Dr. Jones has been a regular caller in Stouffville for many years, and deserves support. He only gathers around $20 and $25 from his annual visit.

One Junior Farmer Goes to Chicago

The Annual York County Junior Farmers' Judging Competition and Girls' Achievement Day will be held in the Newmarket district, Wednesday, June 4th. The boys are asked to register at the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture office before 8.30 a.m. The girls will register at the Anglican Parish Hall, for their Achievement Day.

The competitors will judge ten classes of livestock which will include two each of dairy cattle, swine, horses, sheep, and beef cattle. Reasons will be given on one breed in each class and the prize money will be based on total score. The competition will be divided into both a senior and junior group, the former for men under 30 and over 23, the latter for those under 23.

Owing to the reduction of the number of Chicago trips due to the limited accommodation, York County will send a boy to Chicago in 1947. The U.S.A. trip is open to all unmarried contestants except previous trip winners and those born prior to November 1st, 1921.
