Chicken Thieves About?

Last week this paper carried a story about a lady's dress disappearing from the line, now it's the chickens that are disappearing. Roy Brignall reports a number of A1 yearling Rocks have been lifted from his flock lately. The Brignalls who reside just south of the village on the Brock Rd. have quite a number of fowl of different breeds, but whoever did the "lifting" had an eye only for the Rock variety as most of the birds taken were of this variety.

However, before the blaze was completely extinguished the back kitchen of the home was destroyed and several other rooms badly burned. In addition to the building damage, a new washing machine was lost.

THREE MONTHS ON BIGAMY CHARGE FOR ASHBURN FARM WIFE

Norma Marguerite Taylor, 211 Huron Crescent, Oshawa, has pleaded guilty to a charge of bigamy, and was sentenced to three months in the County Jail by Magistrate F. S. Ebbs.

Questioned by Crown Attorney Alex Hall, Bruce Taylor told the court he married the accused in January, 1941, at Brooklin. She left their farm home, north of Ashburn, after four years, Taylor said. Donald McNevin testified he had gone through a marriage ceremony with the accused on April 5 of this year unaware of her former marriage.

"Have you anything to say about this?" Magistrate Ebbs asked the accused.

"If I had a mother and a home, all this wouldn't have happened," the accused, pointed out that her mother died 15 years ago and her father was in Christie Street Hospital in Toronto.

Declaring the offence was a serious one, Magistrate Ebbs told the accused "you can't go around doing anything you want and expect the court not to consider it seriously."
