KENNETH PASCOE, BARBARA KNOX WED AT BROUGHAM

Brougham, July 3.—St. Johns United Church, Brougham, was the scene of the marriage on July 1, when Barbara Knox, youngest daughter of William and Mrs. Knox of Brougham, became the bride of Kenneth Pascoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Pascoe, of Whitby. Rev. I. E. Kennedy officiated.
During the signing of the register, Mrs. Manson Ellicot sang, accompanied by Miss Mildred Gillman at the organ.
The bride looked charming in her White Brocade Nylon gown and veil of embroidered net, with halo headdress. The bride's flowers were red roses and baby's breath. The bridesmaid was Miss Lorraine Heisey, whose gown was of pink brocade satin and net, and matching headdress, and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers. The matron of honor was Mrs. Arnold Hardy, sister of the bride. The lovely little flower girl was her niece, Helen Ann Knox. The best man was Edward Barry of Tweed. Ushers were Harry Knox and Carl Pascoe.
The church was beautifully decorated with peonies and roses. The reception and wedding supper were served on the lawn, at her parents' home to 65 guests.
The bride's going away dress was pink eyelet embroidery with navy coat and white accessories.
Mrs. Knox, mother of the bride was gowned in turquoise blue crepe. Mrs. Pascoe, mother of the groom, wore a dress of pink flowered crepe.

The couple are spending their honeymoon at Wasaga Beach, and on their return will reside at Almond's Corners, No. 2 highway.

SHANK—MICHELL WEDDING

In Green River Baptist church which was beautifully decorated in pink and white peonies. Rev. John A. Heal united in marriage June Alene Shank, only daughter of Mrs. Delia Shank and the late Mr. Henry Shank, and Harold Allen Michell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Michell, both of Green River.
Given in marriage by her brother Henry, the bride looked very charming in ivory brocade crepe with Juliet cap holding a shoulder length veil. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom, and carried a sheath of red roses.
Miss Mary Pearce was bridesmaid and looked very sweet in becoming blue brocade taffeta with matching Juliet cap, and carried Talisman roses. The groom's brother William was best man.
Mr. Bruce Lehman and Mr. Lloyd Robinson were the ushers.
A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Shank wore grey sheer over pink, with pink rose corsage, welcomed the guests, assisted by the mother of the groom, wearing black with pink rose corsage.
Leaving by motor for Northern Ontario, the bride chose a green silk printed dress, black shortie coat, yellow rose corsage and white accessories. They will reside in Green River.
