Local and Personal Happenings

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Batt were Mrs. H. Stone and son Neil of Atwood.

Mrs. W. H. Shaw and Miss Lucy Waters are completing a delightful two weeks holiday at Elgin House, popular summer resort in Muskoka.

Mrs. M. Dunkeld of Stouffville attended the first reunion of the Dunkeld family, on Sunday, held near Cadmus.

Mr. Joe Murray, jr., Mr. William Turner, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Murray all of Toronto were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Murray, east end.

Last week Mrs. John Lee and Mrs. Ira Brown and daughter Lillie took the train here on the first step of a journey to Western Canada. Mrs. Lee will visit in Edmonton and Mrs. Brown and daughter intend to spend some time in Saskatoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Batt accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lewis, of the 9th con., Markham, on a trip to Kapuskasing last week. While there they visited Rev. and Mrs. McGrath, a former minister of the Baptist church here.

Mr. and Mrs. Cha's Boothby will return by motor to Mission City, B.C. this weekend, after visiting at the H. J. Malloy home and with other friends in Stouffville and Toronto, for several months.

An important meeting of Stouffville Branch of the Canadian Legion is called for Tuesday, Sept. 2, at 8:30 o'clock. All veterans of the district are invited to join this branch. B. Lickorish, secretary.

Frank Stiver and Hugh Boyd motored up to Haliburton last week and spent a couple of days around Hawk Lake district. Although fishing was not their prime purpose the pair brought home a nice sample of trout and bass.

Ronnie Smith and Vern Hoover of Stouffville have been holidaying in Chicago for several weeks with relatives of Vern. Ronnie is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, Church street, while Vern is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hoover, Eastend, Stouffville.

Joyce Reynolds of Claremont was holidaying in town the past week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds. The eleven year old Miss left here for Goodwood and made the trip by C.N.R. which was her first train ride. Come to think of it, there must be a lot of people, particularly the younger ones, who have never rode on a train because of this motor car age in which most of the travelling is done that way.

MARKHAM CLERK BEREAVED

The efficient and popular clerk at Markham Mr. A. P. Graham and his good wife are mourning the passing of their son Douglas Graham who died in Toronto following an operation performed some four weeks before his death.

Born in Toronto, he went to Markham with the family the following year, attended school in Markham and commenced working in the Bank of Nova Scotia. For the past twenty-three years he has lived in Toronto and been on the staff of the Provincial Savings Bank. Lately he held the position of an assistant manager. He continued his duties until about seven weeks before his death as his malady apparently gave little advance notice, and was difficult to diagnose when medical advice was sought.

He is survived by his wife, the former Jean Comber, and son, Douglas Bruce, in addition to his mother and father, five brothers and three sisters.

AUCTIONEER TAKES HOLIDAY

The resounding echo, "how much am I offered," will be silenced for the next couple of weeks so far as Auctioneer A. S. Farmer is concerned. This week the auctioneer and Mrs. Farmer and members of their family left on an extended motor trip that will take them to Atlantic City on a holiday.

At the Farmers home in Gormley the 500 mink and 300 rabbits will be fed and watered by an attendant who is familiar with the care needed by this kind of live stock.

"THE LIFE OF MRS. KENDALL" WITH PORTRAIT

Just off the press is a booklet entitled, "The Life of Mrs. Kendall," an interesting sketch of the life of a remarkable woman, the wife of Rev. William Kendall of Bala, where Mrs. Kendall died in October, 1946.

Because of the peculiar and faithful service this interesting couple rendered to the people of Uxbridge township, particularly in the Roseville locality, the late Mrs. Kendall is greatly beloved by many people there. Consequently the booklet will be of especial interest to them, and is available at the office of The Tribune, or on application direct to Rev. Mr. Kendall at Bala. Single copies 25 cents.

In addition to the sketch a portrait of Mrs. Kendall is included.

Always use a cutting board when shredding or cutting vegetables or slicing fruit on the drainboard or sink to avoid chipping the enamel.

Mrs. Geo. Smith, Sandy and June have returned from holidaying for two weeks at South Lake, Minden.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark with their four children were visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. Gar. Lehman enroute from a holiday on the Georgian Bay.

Uxbridge and Markham newspapers are holidaying this week and there will be no issue of their publications.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Richardson and son Boyer, also Mr. and Mrs. R. Thomas and son Robert left on Saturday for their home in Roanoke, Va., after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. Lee. They drove through the north country and took in the exhibition before leaving Canada.

Geo. Hewlett and Miss Mae Bowers, Peterboro, were calling on friends in town last Thursday. They returned the Still trophy won by Peterboro last year, for annual competition here at the coming bowling tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Murray, Calgary are visiting at the home of Mrs. Murray's mother, Mrs. J. F. Brownscombe in Uxbridge, and with her sister at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spofford in Stouffville.

Mr. John Scott was in Uxbridge on Tuesday evening attending a shower, given in honor of Miss Bernice Burnham, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Burnham, whose marriage has been announced to Carl Wellman of Toronto. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. Scott's nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McCallum moved into their new house on Main street just seven doors west of the school which is now nearing completion by a city contractor. While there is still a great deal of work to be done before the place is completed, the house is habitable in the meantime. The McCallum's hail from Scarborough and will be welcome as new residents here.

$25 and Costs for "Having"

Found guilty of "having", a Toronto young man was fined $25 and costs in county court on Monday, as a result of a charge laid by Constable Rusnell. Called to the scene of a crash on the 9th concession of Whitechurch, the constable said he came across the Toronto car by accident while searching for the car supposed to have crashed. He found opened cartons of beer aboard, and charged the owner although several companions were aboard and probably enjoying the refreshments found to be in an illegal place.

"Jolson Story" Coming to Stanley for Five Days

"The Jolson Story", starring Larry Parks and William Demarest, is coming to the Stanley Theatre for five days, Sept. 19th to 24th. This is a real family movie, one of the biggest box office attractions of all times. Along with this great entertainment treat, The Stanley is also bringing a number of other star-studded attractions to town in September. They include, "The Shocking Miss Pilgrim," with Betty Grable and Dick Haymes; "Secret Heart," with Claudette Colbert and Walter Pidgeon; "Macomber Affair," with Gregory Peck and Joan Bennett; "Two Years Before the Mast," with Alan Ladd and Brian Donlevy; "My Favourite Brunette" with Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour, and many others.

Mr. and Mrs. Bart Lymburner and family of Fergus are in town visiting with his mother, Mrs. James Ratcliff.

Norman Farr, genial proprietor of Stouffville Radio Electric has been handling business under difficulty for several weeks due to an infection which he has in the foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Fraser and Joanne of Belleville, are visiting in Stouffville with Mrs. Fraser's aunt, Miss Jane Burkitt, and in Aurora with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pennock.

Bill Kellington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Kellington, will enter Queen's University this fall in Medicine. Bill spent several years in the armed forces.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cadieux and son of Guelph have been visiting in town with Mrs. Cadieux parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Baxter. The couple left by air on Wednesday for Ottawa where they will continue their holidays.

R. F. McTavish has purchased a 100 acre farm on the 4th concession of Markham, opposite the airport. Mr. McTavish is with the Imperial Oil Co., and resided at Islington, but will locate in Markham now that he has a farm. The century old house has been remodelled.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Banner of Winnipeg were visitors on Saturday with Miss Belle Mitchell, Ringwood. Both Mr and Mrs. Banner were former residents in Stouffville. Mr. Banner was employed by Mr. Wm. Todd, and will also be remembered as a member of the local band.

RAYMER-MIDDLETON WEDDING AT UNIONVILLE

Central United Church at Unionville was decorated with summer flowers featuring pink and white gladioli and pink and white asters on the occasion of the marriage of Viola Marguerite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Middleton, Unionville, to Donald Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Raymer, Box Grove, on Saturday afternoon. Rev. Geo. H. Dix officiated and Miss Marian Warne played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Jacqueline Watson who sang "At Dawning" and "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of blush pink satin, a long veil with halo of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of red roses and gypsophylla. Myrtle Latimer, her bridesmaid was dressed in yellow jersey with gloves and headdress to match, and Norma Middleton who was maid-of-honor wore matching dress, gloves and headdress of powder blue. Geraldine Brennan, the little flower girl had a dress of pink jersey. All the bride's attendants carried nosegays of roses and sweet peas. The ring bearer was Master Gerald Brennan, the groomsman was Merle Raymer, Sarnia, and the ushers were Gordon Ogden, Unionville and Jas. Bennett, Box Grove.

After the ceremony the wedding guests were received on the lawn of the bride's parents, Mrs. Middleton wearing navy silk faille with hat and other accessories to correspond, assisted by Mrs. Raymer dressed in powder blue with black accessories. Both wore pink roses.

The bride's going away gown was powder blue jersey with brown coat, hat, gloves and bag. The young couple motored to North Bay, Ottawa and Kingston. On their return they will take up residence in Box Grove.
