

Claremont and District

By Staff Correspondent Local dealers—Madill's Store and Overland's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farr of North 5th. All members of the church are expected to be present. At the evening service at 7.30 p.m. the illustrated talks will be resumed, also the popular song service. Come and enjoy the singing of the old familiar hymns and see the pictures. All are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pugh were in Niagara Falls last week and brought home choice Niagara peaches.

Mr. and Mrs. David Scott, Fenelon Falls, were in town a couple of days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cooper have just moved into their new home here on the Main street.

Mrs. Jess Warden of Greenwood, visited her home here with Mr. and Mrs. Boose on Saturday.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Tom Scott is a patient in Oshawa hospital for an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Madill of Toronto were in town one day last week.

Miss Peggy Overland of Toronto has been visiting here with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Overland.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Hill visited one day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Pugh of Uxbridge visited in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wilker of Toronto were in Claremont over the weekend.

Mrs. Pearl Pilkey of Brampton, attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Esther Palmer on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Feasby of Sandford visited with relatives here on Sunday.

We were pleased to see Mrs. C. Pengelly of Brooklin at the anniversary service on Sunday evening. She is a former Claremont girl.

Mrs. James Grant of Toronto was guest over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Briscoe.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Dawson was taken to the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, recently for treatment.

Mrs. Woodland of Goodwood visited at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Schneider on Sunday last.

Mrs. Bruce Haston of Toronto has been staying with her mother here, Mrs. B. Cook.

The South Ontario Plowing Match will be held on October 22, on the farm of Mr. Alex. Picov in Pickering township. A liberal prize list is assured, and the farm provides some of the finest land in the township for a plowing match.

Friends from Kirkland Lake were guests at the Baptist anniversary who were parishioners of Rev. Wall. Daniels the guest speaker for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Overland were Toronto guests one day recently.

Our local reporter for The Tribune will be back on the job next week, visiting Claremont on Monday as usual. After a trip to the West Coast he should have a keen eye for all the news. In the meantime the publishers are certainly indebted to those who have so loyally helped us gather the news.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.M.S. of the United Church will be held in the S.S. room of the church on Thursday, Oct. 9th at 2.30 p.m. Mrs. Tomlinson's group will have charge of the program. All ladies of the church are invited to come.

World Communion Sunday will be observed in the United Church with the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at the morning service next Sunday, Oct.

Mr. Stanley Robbins has had as guest at his home a sister from near St. Thomas

Rally service in the Baptist church next Sunday morning invites all members to bring along a friend for the special occasion.

Mrs. Esther Palmer In her 51st year Mrs. Esther Palmer passed away at her home in Claremont, thus our village is separated from one we have known and respected here for many years. She was the daughter of pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Madill who made their mark in this locality a half century ago. Mrs. Palmer had been a widow for years, but is survived by two daughters and two sons, all living in California.

Also surviving are three grandsons. Four brothers living are J.H. Madill of Harrow; Russel of Detroit; Albert of Windsor, and Fred of Toronto; Mrs. George Lee of Stouffville is an only sister. One of the sons, Albert Palmer, flew from California in order to attend the funeral here which was attended by many townspeople who have known Mrs. Palmer for so long a time.

Mr. Middleton was born in 1877 in Pickering township but his parents died when he was very young and he went to live with his uncle George Topper of Humber Summit, Vaughan township. In 1900 he married Sebbie Rowntree who predeceased him by seven months. They resided at Thistleton where Mr. Middleton was engaged in the milk cartage business, later farming in the Weston-Thistleton district.

In 1921 he purchased the Shell farm on concession 2, Vaughan township where he resided until 1923 when he built his home in Carrville and engaged in market gardening.

Mr. Middleton was a great lacrosse enthusiast and was a life-long supporter and promoter of the national game, first at Weston and later at Richmond Hill and district.

He was a staunch supporter of the church, being a former member of Humber Summit Congregational Church, later transferring to Carrville United Church where he served as steward and elder.

Mr. Middleton was a Conservative in politics and a member of the I.O.O.F. Surviving are one son, Robert of Carrville, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Oliver (Sadie) of Mill Road and Mrs. J. Barton (Myra) of Carrville, three sisters, Mrs. White of Moose Jaw, Sask.; Mrs. Stonehouse of Reston, Man., and Mrs.

Adamson of Ernfold, Sask., and one brother, Mr. Fred Middleton of Thistleton, also seven grandchildren.

Services were held in Carrville United Church Monday, September 22, Rev. Dr. J. S. Duncan, assisted by Rev. Kent, officiating.

Pallbearers were Ernest Bone, Frank Scott, Dean Wilson, William Stott, Elmer Middleton, Robert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Draper spent last week at Minden and Hall's Lake.

Several from here attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Fretz (nee Marjory Petty) at Claremont Baptist church on Saturday. Congratulations.

Mrs. Powell entertained her mother and sister from Toronto on Sunday.

Mrs. Eli Lehman and Grace spent Monday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bain and his father from Newmarket were supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. M. Dunkeld on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Forgie from Dunbarton spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Carruthers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gren, Draper and Marion were supper guests with his parents on Sunday.

Wedding bells are ringing once again in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurley from Toronto spent the weekend at their farm home here.

Mrs. Eli Lehman, Mrs. Fred Byer and Mrs. Carruthers attended the W.I. meeting at Brooklin on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wallace visited her daughter Mrs. Pugh at Claremont on Monday.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. Alf. Collins in Stouffville on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tran, Carol and Betty Jean visited relatives in Beaverton on Sunday.

Mr. Stanley Robbins has had as guest at his home a sister from near St. Thomas

Rally service in the Baptist church next Sunday morning invites all members to bring along a friend for the special occasion.

Mrs. Esther Palmer In her 51st year Mrs. Esther Palmer passed away at her home in Claremont, thus our village is separated from one we have known and respected here for many years. She was the daughter of pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Madill who made their mark in this locality a half century ago. Mrs. Palmer had been a widow for years, but is survived by two daughters and two sons, all living in California.

Also surviving are three grandsons. Four brothers living are J.H. Madill of Harrow; Russel of Detroit; Albert of Windsor, and Fred of Toronto; Mrs. George Lee of Stouffville is an only sister. One of the sons, Albert Palmer, flew from California in order to attend the funeral here which was attended by many townspeople who have known Mrs. Palmer for so long a time.

Mr. Middleton was born in 1877 in Pickering township but his parents died when he was very young and he went to live with his uncle George Topper of Humber Summit, Vaughan township. In 1900 he married Sebbie Rowntree who predeceased him by seven months. They resided at Thistleton where Mr. Middleton was engaged in the milk cartage business, later farming in the Weston-Thistleton district.

In 1921 he purchased the Shell farm on concession 2, Vaughan township where he resided until 1923 when he built his home in Carrville and engaged in market gardening.

Mr. Middleton was a great lacrosse enthusiast and was a life-long supporter and promoter of the national game, first at Weston and later at Richmond Hill and district.

He was a staunch supporter of the church, being a former member of Humber Summit Congregational Church, later transferring to Carrville United Church where he served as steward and elder.

Mr. Middleton was a Conservative in politics and a member of the I.O.O.F. Surviving are one son, Robert of Carrville, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Oliver (Sadie) of Mill Road and Mrs. J. Barton (Myra) of Carrville, three sisters, Mrs. White of Moose Jaw, Sask.; Mrs. Stonehouse of Reston, Man., and Mrs.

Adamson of Ernfold, Sask., and one brother, Mr. Fred Middleton of Thistleton, also seven grandchildren.

Services were held in Carrville United Church Monday, September 22, Rev. Dr. J. S. Duncan, assisted by Rev. Kent, officiating.

Pallbearers were Ernest Bone, Frank Scott, Dean Wilson, William Stott, Elmer Middleton, Robert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Draper spent last week at Minden and Hall's Lake.

Several from here attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Fretz (nee Marjory Petty) at Claremont Baptist church on Saturday. Congratulations.

Mrs. Powell entertained her mother and sister from Toronto on Sunday.

Mrs. Eli Lehman and Grace spent Monday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bain and his father from Newmarket were supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. M. Dunkeld on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Forgie from Dunbarton spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Carruthers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gren, Draper and Marion were supper guests with his parents on Sunday.

Wedding bells are ringing once again in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurley from Toronto spent the weekend at their farm home here.

Mrs. Eli Lehman, Mrs. Fred Byer and Mrs. Carruthers attended the W.I. meeting at Brooklin on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wallace visited her daughter Mrs. Pugh at Claremont on Monday.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. Alf. Collins in Stouffville on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tran, Carol and Betty Jean visited relatives in Beaverton on Sunday.

Mr. Stanley Robbins has had as guest at his home a sister from near St. Thomas

Rally service in the Baptist church next Sunday morning invites all members to bring along a friend for the special occasion.

Mrs. Esther Palmer In her 51st year Mrs. Esther Palmer passed away at her home in Claremont, thus our village is separated from one we have known and respected here for many years. She was the daughter of pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Madill who made their mark in this locality a half century ago. Mrs. Palmer had been a widow for years, but is survived by two daughters and two sons, all living in California.

Also surviving are three grandsons. Four brothers living are J.H. Madill of Harrow; Russel of Detroit; Albert of Windsor, and Fred of Toronto; Mrs. George Lee of Stouffville is an only sister. One of the sons, Albert Palmer, flew from California in order to attend the funeral here which was attended by many townspeople who have known Mrs. Palmer for so long a time.

Mr. Middleton was born in 1877 in Pickering township but his parents died when he was very young and he went to live with his uncle George Topper of Humber Summit, Vaughan township. In 1900 he married Sebbie Rowntree who predeceased him by seven months. They resided at Thistleton where Mr. Middleton was engaged in the milk cartage business, later farming in the Weston-Thistleton district.

In 1921 he purchased the Shell farm on concession 2, Vaughan township where he resided until 1923 when he built his home in Carrville and engaged in market gardening.

Mr. Middleton was a great lacrosse enthusiast and was a life-long supporter and promoter of the national game, first at Weston and later at Richmond Hill and district.

He was a staunch supporter of the church, being a former member of Humber Summit Congregational Church, later transferring to Carrville United Church where he served as steward and elder.

Mr. Middleton was a Conservative in politics and a member of the I.O.O.F. Surviving are one son, Robert of Carrville, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Oliver (Sadie) of Mill Road and Mrs. J. Barton (Myra) of Carrville, three sisters, Mrs. White of Moose Jaw, Sask.; Mrs. Stonehouse of Reston, Man., and Mrs.

Adamson of Ernfold, Sask., and one brother, Mr. Fred Middleton of Thistleton, also seven grandchildren.

Services were held in Carrville United Church Monday, September 22, Rev. Dr. J. S. Duncan, assisted by Rev. Kent, officiating.

Pallbearers were Ernest Bone, Frank Scott, Dean Wilson, William Stott, Elmer Middleton, Robert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Draper spent last week at Minden and Hall's Lake.

Several from here attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Fretz (nee Marjory Petty) at Claremont Baptist church on Saturday. Congratulations.

Mrs. Powell entertained her mother and sister from Toronto on Sunday.

Mrs. Eli Lehman and Grace spent Monday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bain and his father from Newmarket were supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. M. Dunkeld on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Forgie from Dunbarton spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Carruthers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gren, Draper and Marion were supper guests with his parents on Sunday.

Wedding bells are ringing once again in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurley from Toronto spent the weekend at their farm home here.

Mrs. Eli Lehman, Mrs. Fred Byer and Mrs. Carruthers attended the W.I. meeting at Brooklin on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wallace visited her daughter Mrs. Pugh at Claremont on Monday.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. Alf. Collins in Stouffville on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tran, Carol and Betty Jean visited relatives in Beaverton on Sunday.

Mr. Stanley Robbins has had as guest at his home a sister from near St. Thomas

Rally service in the Baptist church next Sunday morning invites all members to bring along a friend for the special occasion.

Mrs. Esther Palmer In her 51st year Mrs. Esther Palmer passed away at her home in Claremont, thus our village is separated from one we have known and respected here for many years. She was the daughter of pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Madill who made their mark in this locality a half century ago. Mrs. Palmer had been a widow for years, but is survived by two daughters and two sons, all living in California.

Also surviving are three grandsons. Four brothers living are J.H. Madill of Harrow; Russel of Detroit; Albert of Windsor, and Fred of Toronto; Mrs. George Lee of Stouffville is an only sister. One of the sons, Albert Palmer, flew from California in order to attend the funeral here which was attended by many townspeople who have known Mrs. Palmer for so long a time.

Mr. Middleton was born in 1877 in Pickering township but his parents died when he was very young and he went to live with his uncle George Topper of Humber Summit, Vaughan township. In 1900 he married Sebbie Rowntree who predeceased him by seven months. They resided at Thistleton where Mr. Middleton was engaged in the milk cartage business, later farming in the Weston-Thistleton district.

In 1921 he purchased the Shell farm on concession 2, Vaughan township where he resided until 1923 when he built his home in Carrville and engaged in market gardening.

Mr. Middleton was a great lacrosse enthusiast and was a life-long supporter and promoter of the national game, first at Weston and later at Richmond Hill and district.

He was a staunch supporter of the church, being a former member of Humber Summit Congregational Church, later transferring to Carrville United Church where he served as steward and elder.

Mr. Middleton was a Conservative in politics and a member of the I.O.O.F. Surviving are one son, Robert of Carrville, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Oliver (Sadie) of Mill Road and Mrs. J. Barton (Myra) of Carrville, three sisters, Mrs. White of Moose Jaw, Sask.; Mrs. Stonehouse of Reston, Man., and Mrs.

Adamson of Ernfold, Sask., and one brother, Mr. Fred Middleton of Thistleton, also seven grandchildren.

Services were held in Carrville United Church Monday, September 22, Rev. Dr. J. S. Duncan, assisted by Rev. Kent, officiating.

Pallbearers were Ernest Bone, Frank Scott, Dean Wilson, William Stott, Elmer Middleton, Robert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Draper spent last week at Minden and Hall's Lake.

Several from here attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Fretz (nee Marjory Petty) at Claremont Baptist church on Saturday. Congratulations.

Mrs. Powell entertained her mother and sister from Toronto on Sunday.

Mrs. Eli Lehman and Grace spent Monday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bain and his father from Newmarket were supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. M. Dunkeld on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Forgie from Dunbarton spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Carruthers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gren, Draper and Marion were supper guests with his parents on Sunday.

Wedding bells are ringing once again in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurley from Toronto spent the weekend at their farm home here.

Mrs. Eli Lehman, Mrs. Fred Byer and Mrs. Carruthers attended the W.I. meeting at Brooklin on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wallace visited her daughter Mrs. Pugh at Claremont on Monday.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. Alf. Collins in Stouffville on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tran, Carol and Betty Jean visited relatives in Beaverton on Sunday.

Mr. Stanley Robbins has had as guest at his home a sister from near St. Thomas

Rally service in the Baptist church next Sunday morning invites all members to bring along a friend for the special occasion.

Mrs. Esther Palmer In her 51st year Mrs. Esther Palmer passed away at her home in Claremont, thus our village is separated from one we have known and respected here for many years. She was the daughter of pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Madill who made their mark in this locality a half century ago. Mrs. Palmer had been a widow for years, but is survived by two daughters and two sons, all living in California.

Also surviving are three grandsons. Four brothers living are J.H. Madill of Harrow; Russel of Detroit; Albert of Windsor, and Fred of Toronto; Mrs. George Lee of Stouffville is an only sister. One of the sons, Albert Palmer, flew from California in order to attend the funeral here which was attended by many townspeople who have known Mrs. Palmer for so long a time.

Mr. Middleton was born in 1877 in Pickering township but his parents died when he was very young and he went to live with his uncle George Topper of Humber Summit, Vaughan township. In 1900 he married Sebbie Rowntree who predeceased him by seven months. They resided at Thistleton where Mr. Middleton was engaged in the milk cartage business, later farming in the Weston-Thistleton district.

In 1921 he purchased the Shell farm on concession 2, Vaughan township where he resided until 1923 when he built his home in Carrville and engaged in market gardening.

Mr. Middleton was a great lacrosse enthusiast and was a life-long supporter and promoter of the national game, first at Weston and later at Richmond Hill and district.

He was a staunch supporter of the church, being a former member of Humber Summit Congregational Church, later transferring to Carrville United Church where he served as steward and elder.

Mr. Middleton was a Conservative in politics and a member of the I.O.O.F. Surviving are one son, Robert of Carrville, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Oliver (Sadie) of Mill Road and Mrs. J. Barton (Myra) of Carrville, three sisters, Mrs. White of Moose Jaw, Sask.; Mrs. Stonehouse of Reston, Man., and Mrs.

Adamson of Ernfold, Sask., and one brother, Mr. Fred Middleton of Thistleton, also seven grandchildren.

Services were held in Carrville United Church Monday, September 22, Rev. Dr. J. S. Duncan, assisted by Rev. Kent, officiating.

Pallbearers were Ernest Bone, Frank Scott, Dean Wilson, William Stott, Elmer Middleton, Robert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Draper spent last week at Minden and Hall's Lake.

Several from here attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Fretz (nee Marjory Petty) at Claremont Baptist church on Saturday. Congratulations.

Mrs. Powell entertained her mother and sister from Toronto on Sunday.

Mrs. Eli Lehman and Grace spent Monday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bain and his father from Newmarket were supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. M. Dunkeld on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Forgie from Dunbarton spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Carruthers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gren, Draper and Marion were supper guests with his parents on Sunday.

Wedding bells are ringing once again in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurley from Toronto spent the weekend at their farm home here.

Mrs. Eli Lehman, Mrs. Fred Byer and Mrs. Carruthers attended the W.I. meeting at Brooklin on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wallace visited her daughter Mrs. Pugh at Claremont on Monday.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. Alf. Collins in Stouffville on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tran, Carol and Betty Jean visited relatives in Beaverton on Sunday.

Mr. Stanley Robbins has had as guest at his home a sister from near St. Thomas

Rally service in the Baptist church next Sunday morning invites all members to bring along a friend for the special occasion.

Mrs. Esther Palmer In her 51st year Mrs. Esther Palmer passed away at her home in Claremont, thus our village is separated from one we have known and respected here for many years. She was the daughter of pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Madill who made their mark in this locality a half century ago. Mrs. Palmer had been a widow for years, but is survived by two daughters and two sons, all living in California.

Also surviving are three grandsons. Four brothers living are J.H. Madill of Harrow; Russel of Detroit; Albert of Windsor, and Fred of Toronto; Mrs. George Lee of Stouffville is an only sister. One of the sons, Albert Palmer, flew from California in order to attend the funeral here which was attended by many townspeople who have known Mrs. Palmer for so long a time.

Mr. Middleton was born in 1877 in Pickering township but his parents died when he was very young and he went to live with his uncle George Topper of Humber Summit, Vaughan township. In 1900 he married Sebbie Rowntree who predeceased him by seven months. They resided at Thistleton where Mr. Middleton was engaged in the milk cartage business, later farming in the Weston-Thistleton district.

In 1921 he purchased the Shell farm on concession 2, Vaughan township where he resided until 1923 when he built his home in Carrville and engaged in market gardening.

Mr. Middleton was a great lacrosse enthusiast and was a life-long supporter and promoter of the national game, first at Weston and later at Richmond Hill and district.

He was a staunch supporter of the church, being a former member of Humber Summit Congregational Church, later transferring to Carrville United Church where he served as steward and elder.

Mr. Middleton was a Conservative in politics and a member of the I.O.O.F. Surviving are one son, Robert of Carrville, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Oliver (Sadie) of Mill Road and Mrs. J. Barton (Myra) of Carrville, three sisters, Mrs. White of Moose Jaw, Sask.; Mrs. Stonehouse of Reston, Man., and Mrs.

Adamson of Ernfold, Sask., and one brother, Mr. Fred Middleton of Thistleton, also seven grandchildren.

Services were held in Carrville United Church Monday, September 22, Rev. Dr. J. S. Duncan, assisted by Rev. Kent, officiating.

Pallbearers were Ernest Bone, Frank Scott, Dean Wilson, William Stott, Elmer Middleton, Robert Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Draper spent last week at Minden and Hall's Lake.

Several from here attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Fretz (nee Marjory Petty) at Claremont Baptist church on Saturday. Congratulations.

Mrs. Powell entertained her mother and sister from Toronto on Sunday.

Mrs. Eli Lehman and Grace spent Monday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bain and his father from Newmarket were supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. M. Dunkeld on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Forgie from Dunbarton spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Carruthers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gren, Draper and Marion were supper guests with his parents on Sunday.

Wedding bells are ringing once again in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurley from Toronto spent the weekend at their farm home here.

Mrs. Eli Lehman, Mrs. Fred Byer and Mrs. Carruthers attended the W.I. meeting at Brooklin on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wallace visited her daughter Mrs. Pugh at Claremont on Monday.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. Alf. Collins in Stouffville on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tran, Carol and Betty Jean visited relatives in Beaverton on Sunday.

Mr. Stanley Robbins has had as guest at his home a sister from near St. Thomas