AUDLEY

We have had beautiful weather during October and the coloring leaves make the looks of rural Ontario a real picture.

Johnnie Graves and family of Oshawa were recent callers at Grasmere.

George Blake is home again from the hospital and is doing well.

Bob and Mrs. Walker of Utica were recent visitors here with her father and mother.

Mrs. Arch Bell and Miss May Brown are leaders in the canvass to further the free x-ray campaign for all on the 28th inst. at the iPckering school.

Syd. Wonnacott had a nasty fall from a ladder in the barn last Sunday. He was rendered unconscious for a time.

The Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winter on Monday evening last with the officers in charge. The sick committee reported sending remembrances to several. Geo. Blake was the first casualty to receive aid under the Blue Cross plan recently taken up by the members. He saved an expenditure of over $50. Mrs. Jordan as leader in the entertainment group had planned a shower for the President, Wm. Winter and Miss Helen Beamish of Whitby, upon their approaching marriage. Nearly every family in the community had sent a household gift which were received in the customary way with the reading of the kindly messages from each. Mrs. Ashton read a humorous skit after which the crowd sang, for they are all Jolly Good Fellows. Bill and Helen made suitable replies of thanks and invited one and all to visit them in their new home to be at 197 Bond Street, Oshawa. A short address of an appreciation for the happy couple was made by F. M. Chapman.
