

Likes "Mail Order" Marriage System

Bill Keralas, chief of a Guelph. Ont., restaurant has a "mail order" fiancé and he recommends the system to any one who wishes to try it. Shown with him is Diamond Andonopoulos, who arrived in Canada from Greece last week after a mail engagement for 18 months. Their marriage was arranged by their relatives and hastened when guerillas occupied her native town and she sent a call to her fiancé for help. Bill then arranged air transportation to Canada.

It stimulates appetites. Kills large roundworms. Helps birds turn more feed into eggs. It's simple, easy to use.

Leave roundworms out on the range. Treat the pullets with Chek-R-Ton before moving them—just mix it in the mash. Chek-R-Ton is also a good tonic and appetizer—it will help the birds over the shock of moving.
