STIVER BROS.

Mr. J. B. Davidson, Rapid City, South Dakota, was the guest of Mrs. George Miller, north Church St., recently.

Stores will remain open all day next Wednesday, (Dec. 24) also on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Mrs. Alf. Pugh is spending the next few weeks in Goodwood at the home of her brother, Mr. Distin McDonald. Later Mrs. Pugh will go to Leaside and spend the remaining winter months at the home of her son, Constable Morley Pugh. The old home in the east end of town will remain closed for the winter.

December Institute Meeting
The December meeting of the Stouffville Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Bert Miller when an interesting program was enjoyed. Mrs. Sanderson gave a reading entitled, "Christmas with the Pioneers," and a report on the convention held in Toronto. The program was presided over by Mrs. Kellington, president.

Maple Leaf Dairy announce in this issue that their place of business will be closed on both Christmas and New Years in order that the staff may enjoy the holidays, an arrangement that most people will readily fall in line with.

Mr. Bert Tait motored to North Bay last week, and found the motoring unobstructed from snow, although much of the northern country proved a treacherous glare of ice. However, there was no more snow than one sees around Stouffville.

Rev. Isaac Brubacher of Stouffville, invalid retired Mennonite minister, came in for special mention recently over the radio on the program of Pastor Ernest Hunter Ray of the Pilgrim Christian Tabernacle. He is heard every Tuesday evening over WHLD, Niagara Falls, N.Y.

OWN SOLOIST, HELEN WARMINTON IS MARRIED TO GORDON GIBSON

Kirkfield, Dec. 12—At a house wedding, decorated with boughs of cedar and sumach, the marriage was solemnized by Rev. A. McLean, uniting Helen Warminton of "Ridgewood," Kirkfield, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. George, of Stouffville, to Gordon Gibson of Toronto, son of Mrs. Gibson and the late Joseph Gibson of Belfast, Ireland. Best man, Harry Carnegie, played the wedding music and accompanied the bride who sang her own solos. She was wearing a navy crepe suit with navy taffeta hat and a corsage of violets. Hilda Marshall was her only attendant, in a black felt crepe dress with sequin trimming, an off-the-face black hat and corsage of red rosebuds. Following a honeymoon spent at their country house near Kirkfield, the newlyweds will reside in Toronto.

Next week's issue of The Tribune will be out on Tuesday or early Wednesday on the eve of Christmas day.

Mr. Jos. Betz is reported to have sold the 50 acre farm just north of town on the 9th concession which he acquired only a few years ago, and which has been unoccupied for some time. The purchaser is a Toronto man, who will improve the buildings and make general repairs when he takes over this winter we hear.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyers, who purchased the Ira D. Rusnell residence and five acres of land opposite the hospital, have got settled in their new home. They moved here from near Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Rusnell are completing a new house on Baker avenue.

While Santa Claus brings a lot of nice things when he visits the young folks, his trip to Stouffville also brought a lot of tears for many of the wee kiddies. Enthusiastic to see Santa Claus, many of them broke into tears with sheer fright and excitement.

Stouffville Motors (Ratcliff and Pipher) are giving away a useful little gadget this Christmas with purchases of $2 or over, in the form of a cardboard disc which indicates the number of miles, and the number of the highway to take reaching many of the larger communities in the province. The gadget is called a travel-wheel.

O. E. Croxford is the new reeve of Scarborough Township, defeating R. H. Palmer an able representative of last year, when Mr. Croxford was deputy reeve. The new reeve will be remembered as the leader of the Faith and Truth Temple which had a small following here some years ago. They had their meeting place in the home of the late Mary Ann Wright on Edward street.

Citizens of the town regret to lose Rev. and Mrs. D. Macgregor who moved to their new home in Sault Ste Marie this week, where he took over a new pastorate in First Baptist church a couple of months ago. The house which they vacate at corner of Rupert avenue and Albert street belongs to Mr. Robert Ratcliff. Mr. Macgregor spent last week in town packing up, and on Sunday conducted the services in the Baptist church, officiating at a baptismal service in the morning, and administering the sacrament at the evening service.

Forty Years, but Still Remembers Home
There are still a few who will recall Mr. Alfred Pipher a native resident of this town about the turn of the last century or earlier. He was only a boy here, but for 40 years now he has lived in Milwaukee, where he has been an engineer on the Northwestern Railway, and despite his long separation from the place of his birth, he never forgets the old town. Every Friday he looks forward to the arrival of The Tribune. Recently he has been visiting in Toronto at the home of his sister Mrs. R. McConochie and with his brother Frank in the city.

Mr. George Allison of the Maple Leaf Dairy has purchased three building lots on the Lloyd subdivision, Fair street, from Mr. Edward Lloyd, which will ultimately have new homes erected on them. This former fair ground property had a permanent water main laid this summer, and is serviced with hydro, enhancing the value of the area as a residential location. Building activity is likely to be brisk there next spring and summer, since several who have secured lots intend to start operations. Fair street is the second street east of the railway tracks running south from Main street.

A gratifying mite box collection was received at the Christmas meeting of the Garrett Evening Auxiliary held at the home of Miss Gertrude Todd. The president, Mrs. J. M. Storey, presided. A candle lighting worship service, the theme "Love" led by Miss Jane Burkett, assisted by several members, with Miss Myrtle Watson at the piano, stressed the Christmas Spirit. Mrs. John Rusk gave a talk on how Christmas is enjoyed in Britain, and the appreciation of the children regardless of the scarcity of articles. A group of girls, Laura Madill, Gloria and Marilyn Hood, Carol Hotchkiss, Catherine Stover, Roberta Bone, June Smith, Carol Lewis, Joy Wood, Marie Schell and Barbara Skinner put on a skit of "Christmas Spirit" under the leadership of Miss Margaret Hostle which was appreciated. A vote of thanks to those contributing to the program was given by Miss Bertha Winn. The meeting closed with prayer, followed by refreshments.

Make The Tribune your Christmas Gift this year.

Christmas and New Year's greetings from business firms may be entered in the next two issues of The Tribune. The paper will be published on Dec. 23 and on Dec. 30, one day earlier, and correspondents will please keep this in mind. All copy for display advs. must be in the office on Saturday preceding publication.

Mrs. James Murrison expects to be in her own home on north Church street again this week, being able to leave the Brierbush hospital after ten weeks sojourn there. Mrs. Murrison is considerably improved in health. A couple who recently moved here from Western Canada, are living in the Murrison home, and will aid Mrs. Murrison in the household duties.

Here from Western Canada

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis of Leroy, Sask., are here visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Anthony Hoover, Dickson Hill, and with other relatives and friends. This is Mr. Davis' first trip east since 1915, but none of his friends forget "Ace" Davis. Mr. Davis operates a hotel at the busy centre of Leroy, a thriving village. Mr. and Mrs. Davis intend to spend a couple of months here.

Norm. Farr, proprietor of Stouffville Radio Electric in the Ratcliff block, wishes your attention drawn to his display advertisement in this issue. They also have a good selection of guaranteed re-conditioned radios in stock, both electric and battery sets.

WOOD AT VIVIAN FOREST

There are some 65 cords of wood for public sale at the Vivian Forest, composed of poplar and softwood cut to four foot lengths, and piled so that it can be taken away by truck from a road approach. Persons who are interested or would like to buy this wood may have any quantity at $6 per cord. There is also for sale at the bush 40 cords of pine cut this summer. This wood is dandom lengths, being tops and culls trees taken out during thinning operations. It is piled throughout the cutting area and accessible to trucks. It is valued at $4 per cord. Persons who are interested may contact A. V. Nolan, chairman of York County Reforestation Committee, or they may apply to Clifford Hollidge who resides on the forest property north of Ballantrae.

Free matinee for the kiddies at the Stanley on Saturday, Dec. 20th. A Christmas treat of candies will be given each youngster. Time 10 a.m.

Mr. Harvey Clendenning is serving as a juryman in Toronto. This must be an appreciated change for one who has farmed as long as this west of town resident, and may be classed as an holiday.

Renewing a subscription J. Burkholder writes from Didsbury, Alta., stating that their section have enjoyed a wonderful winter so far. There was a lot of snow fell earlier on, but has settled and travelling on the roads is quite good now.

"The Egg and I" is coming to the Stanley Theatre on January 12 and 13, with three showings each night. Then on January 16 and 17 "The Royal Wedding in technicolor" will be the special treat. You will want to see these popular pictures.

NEXT ISSUE OF TRIBUNE, DEC. 23rd

Advertising copy for the next issue of The Tribune cannot be accepted later than Saturday of this week. Correspondents should also take note, and arrange to have their copy in the hands of the publishers not later than Monday morning. The next issue of The Tribune will roll from the press on Tuesday, so that delivery can be made the day before Christmas. The same change in schedule will be made the following week for the New Year holiday.

Stouffville Lions Club Marks 10th Anniversary

Stouffville Lions Club marked the occasion of their 10th anniversary with a special birthday and ladies' night banquet at the High School on Monday evening. The guest speaker was Rev. W. J. Johnston, D.D. of Eglinton United Church, Toronto, who described to the Lions, their ladies and guests, the "Houses on the Mountain of Life." Rev. Johnston was introduced by Lion Douglas Davis.

During the course of the banquet a birthday cake, decorated by ten candles was brought to the head table by Lion Reg. Button who introduced the past presidents of the club.

A toast to the Lions Club was tendered by President Lion Don Chadwick and responded to by past president Lion Merv. Watts. The toast to the ladies was proposed by Lion Bruce Clark and replied to by Mrs. Jack Smits.

Musical numbers were provided by Lion Cliff and Mrs. Salmon, a whistling solo by Ross Edwards, and piano duets by Mrs. Frank Bramham and Mrs. Chas. Nolan.
