How well do we remember That sad and weary day. He bade no one a last farewell, He said good-bye to none. The heavenly gates were open wide; A loving voice said "Come" But some sweet day we'll meet again Beyond the toil and strife And clasp each other hand once more In heaven, that happy life No pen can write, no tongue can tell My sad and bitter loss, But God alone has helped so well To bear my heavy cross My lips cannot tell how I miss you My heart cannot tell what to say God alone knows how I miss you In a home that is lonesome today —Sadly missed by his loving Wife and family.
