REV. HARDY INVITED TO REMAIN WHITEVALE PASTOR

At the annual business meeting of the Whitevale Baptist Church the members expressed a sincere desire for Rev. Mr. Hardy to continue as pastor. Mr. Hardy is chief clerk of the Engineering Department of the John Inglis Company, Toronto, and though a very busy man, is an earnest and talented speaker. His services to the church are greatly esteemed by the congregation. The annual Thank Offering supper held last Wednesday evening was decidedly a success socially, financially and as an encouragement.

The Mother Craft Advice room will be open in the United Church basement on Tuesday, Feb. 24, from 10.30 a.m. to 5 p.m. All mothers welcome.

CHRISTADELPHIANS

Does it Matter What We Believe?

It matters a great deal if we are to accept the teachings of the Scripture. A poet has written:

"For forms and creeds let senseless bigots, fight,
He can't be wrong whose life is in the right."

It will be impossible to produce such a sentiment from the writings of the apostles. While "forms and creeds" are odious enough in the hands of bigotry, in their right place they are absolutely essential. As to forms, there is abundant scriptural evidence that baptism for instance is a divinely-prescribed form of obedience which any man will neglect at his peril. Creed, which means belief, from credo, I believe, is just as important if we would be approved of God. The general sentiment, that it does not matter at all what we believe if we are only sincere, is a dangerous one in diverting attention from God's life-giving word. It matters much what we believe:

1. Because our Hope of Salvation is conditional on believing certain things: "That the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given them that believe." Gal. 3:22—(the promise to Abraham, or gospel—verse 8, 2 and 16 same chapter—convenanted Gen. 22:17, 18, confirmed by Christ, Rom. 15:8; "Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto our fathers.") See also Acts 13:39, 1 Cor. 1:21; Rom. 1:16.

2. Because it is required of us that the "certain things" we believe be none other than those preached by Jesus and the apostles. Note Paul's emphasis Gal. 1:8, 9: "If we or an angel from heaven preach unto you any other gospel than we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." See also 2 Jno. 10.

3. Because the apostles preached definite things styled gospel or glad tidings, to be employed in our salvation. "The gospel which I preached unto you..... by which also ye are saved if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain." 1 Cor. 15:1; Rom. 1:16.

4. Because the things preached were the things concerning the Kingdom of God, and those things that concern the Lord Jesus Christ. "When they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ they were baptised, both men and women." Acts 8:12; 19:8; 28:31.

5. Because unbelief of the gospel makes our condemnation certain. "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptised shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." Mark 16:15; Jno. 12:48.

6. Because ignorance of the gospel leaves men in a state of darkness in which salvation is impossible. "Other Gentiles walk in the vanity of their mind, having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them," Eph. 4:18; "At that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world." Eph. 2:12; Rom. 10:14.

7. Because belief is faith, without which it is impossible to please God. "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen," Heb. 11:1; Rom. 4:20; Heb. 11:6.

Something More

While in belief in the Gospel is essential, something more is needed. The gospel believed and obeyed in baptism, introduces a man to a position in which he can do what before was impossible—"work out his own salvation." To do this, he must make Christ's commandments the rule of his life for without this Christ will not regard him and his faith will be of no ultimate advantage. See 2 Pet. 1:5; 10; Phil. 2:12; Jno. 15:14; Matt. 28:20; 7:21; Matt. 10:32, 33.

Neither is it possible for men to be irrevocably "saved" as testified by Paul to those called out from among the Gentiles and grafted into the good olive tree (or adopted Israelites through the gospel): "For if God spared not the natural branches take heed lest he also spare not thee. Behold the goodness and severity of God..... toward thee goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off," Rom. 11:21, 22; 1 Cor. 9:27.

In the past series we have endeavoured to point out some of the more outstanding contradictions that are claimed as Bible teaching. We believe one of the principle reasons for the rapid declension from, and general indifference to religion, especially among educated youth, lies in the fact that many doctrines which have been popularly taught as Bible truths are obviously contradictory. We also believe the Bible to be wholly inspired by God; that of itself, it can ably demonstrate this; and that properly understood it is consistent throughout in all its teaching. Once its basic doctrines are understood, close study will not only show complete harmony from Genesis to Revelation, but that God has a plan and purpose with the earth and mankind thereupon. Without divine intervention in fulfillment of God's promises, the world is faced with disaster due to man's mismanagement. As Christ foretold, "men's hearts are failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth," Luke 21:26. We have come to the time when Daniel 2:44 is about to be fulfilled: "The God of heaven shall set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, it shall not be left to other people but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms and it shall stand forever."

Local and Personal Happenings

Friends were pleased to greet "Massie" Mowder down street on Saturday, after an illness which has confined him for six weeks.

Mrs. Eldon Fairles, residing just north of town at Lincolnville, underwent a critical operation at Toronto General Hospital on Wednesday this week. Everybody is hoping for the best.

Placed in Detention Home

Picked up by local police last week, a 16-year-old girl from Scott Township, not far from Mt. Albert, was handed over to the county force, who placed the girl in a detention home until her case is called in court, and her father summoned as a witness. On several nights within the past ten days the girl turned up in town about midnight asking for accommodation. Finally she was taken to the county jail, then to her home when it appeared the best thing to do. She was given a warning to keep away from Stouffville, but this went unheeded, when she returned last weekend, and bothered various homes, since she demanded to be taken in out of the cold, and she was not a very inviting looking guest. The girl will be under observation to determine her mental capacity before she is brought before the Magistrate. One the evening of February 7 she stood on the Main street in zero weather wearing a pair of bedroom slippers, and without mitts or gloves, without a place to spend the night. After two such occasions the girl was taken to the jail, the first time. She evidently didn't mind being taken up, since she returned to town and worried householders in spite of being warned to stay home.

The Stouffville United Church choir will be in Toronto on Monday evening where they will compete in the Kiwanis Musical Festival at Eaton Auditorium.

The Garrett Evening Auxiliary of the United Church held their February meeting at the home of Miss Eva Hoover with the 2nd Vice President, Miss Waters, presiding. Mrs. G. DeWitt gave the devotional taking as her theme "The Bible for the Women of the World," and centred her remarks around the question, "What can I do in this Great Enterprise of Spreading the Bible to all the World?" She stressed the supporting of the Bible Society which had helped so much to make this possible. Reports of the Toronto East Presbyterian were given by Miss Bertha Winn and Mrs. Woods. Soloist was Mrs. D. Chadwick. Mrs. Norman Baker reviewed the chapter in the study book "Island Keepers of the Word" in which she told how the Bible came to the Pacific Islands. A social time was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.
