Local and Personal Happenings

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE HEARS DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER

A Regional Sunday School Rally of the United Missionary Church, Ontario Conference, was held in the Stouffville Church with large delegations from the following churches: Banfield Memorial, Toronto; Grace Chapel, Toronto; Markham, Gormley, Zephyr, Colbourne, Port Hope and Stouffville.

The meeting was in charge of the Director of Sunday School activities, Rev. F. G. Huson, Toronto. The church was almost filled to capacity.

The guest speaker of the evening was the Rev. Vernon H. Yousey. He held the large audience almost spell-bound with his outstanding address on Sunday School work and its importance. The speaker recently completed seven years as a pastor in one of the denomination's churches in Kalamazoo, Mich. During his stay there the church was rebuilt and enlarged on two different occasions. The Sunday School grew from one department to five, from eight classes to thirty, from an average attendance of 66 to 224.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pilkey, John and Juddy were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hardy.

Uxbridge, Stouffville, and Markham will all pass to daylight saving time at midnight on April 24.

Mr. Percy Hamm has purchased the general store at Teston, near Maple, and is now in possession of the new undertaking.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Crossen are expected home from Miami, Fla., about the 1st of May, after spending the entire winter in the South.

Mr. Mel. Emmerson, Main street, is expected to return from Toronto General Hospital this week. He has been very ill, but is well on the mend, friends are glad to learn.

Mrs. Ab. Lehman who has been confined to the Brierbush Hospital for some weeks, was removed to her home again a few days ago, and is still in very ill health, friends will regret to learn.

Judging from the number of replies advertisers in the classified section receive, young pigs are in good demand at $9 and $10. All litters advertised in the last two weeks were quickly sold, farmers report.

Mr. Ormsby Lehman, boot and shoe merchant, has been missing from his shop on Main street, through illness for the last ten days. In fact he has been in delicate health for quite some time but always managed to be about in the past.

When Red Hamill visited Stouffville last week it was recalled by Budd Spang that he slept in the same hut with the now famous Capt. of the Chicago Black Hawks, when the two were at Barryfield in war days.

"Teen-Age Girls, Leaders and Sunday School Teachers of teen-age groups. The Annual Rally for North York County will be held in Markham United Church on Saturday, April 24th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. We hope you will have at least one carload, more if possible, of your group attend. Registration will be 25c. Bring your lunch, beverage will be supplied."

The Stouffville stores will remain open on Tuesday evenings as usual, beginning the first Tuesday in May, and continuing until the last Tuesday in September, according to announcement issued to the paper by the business men's executive on Monday morning.

The Stouffville Women's Institute held their April meeting in the Municipal Hall with Mrs. G. Kelington presiding. Reports given by Mrs. Saunders on the "District Annual", Mrs. F. Brown chose as her opening talk "The Value of Literature and chose to review "The White Cliffs of Dover" written by Alice Duer recorded by Miller. The meeting closed with a social hour.

Markham Buyer for Main Street Residence

Miss E. Johnston of Markham was the purchaser of the Helmky frame house on Main street, opposite the business block west of the Mansion House, at the auction sale held there last week. Sellers & Atkinson, auctioneers, disposed of the property as well as the household effects which closes out another home that has been in existence there for many years, and is known to old-timers as the Woodgate property, home of the first village clerk. With the passing of Mr. and Mrs. Helmky there were no immediate heirs to carry on. It is not known whether Miss Johnston will move to town or not so far as the press could learn.

Butter has been running a little low in town, and some stores at least are limiting customers to a single pound per order.

Mrs. John Tarr, westend Stouffville, was removed to the Brierbush Hospital last week following a fall which she sustained in her home.

George McCowan of Markham who met with a serious accident last fall operating a binder is home again. His legs were badly cut, but he is now able to get about with the aid of crutches.

Dr. H. B. Freil, M.O.H. will be in attendance at the meeting of the Ontario Medical Health Officers in Hamilton on Monday and Tuesday next week, April 26-27.

Miss Eleanor Kidd of the Home Economic Dept. of Agriculture, will be in the Stouffville Municipal Hall on Wednesday, April 23 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Miss Kidd will conduct the conference in "Personality and Press," and each lady is asked to bring her own towel, and make-up. Please bring your lunch for the noon hour. Tea will be provided. All ladies are welcome. Miss Sadie Stewart, secretary.

Three calls in one day were made on the reeve last week by persons enquiring if the council intends to enforce the bylaw requiring dogs to be tied or on leash. Constable Rusnell has been notified that the bylaw should be observed and persons who persist in allowing dogs to run at large will be summoned to court. There is no use in having bylaws and then allowing everybody to flout them.

Visitors Burned Out

While Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Adams of Belleville were here visiting at the home of her father, Mr. William Eckardt, east of town, the Adams home at Belleville was burned to the ground, and only a few of the household effects were saved by the neighbors, and Mrs. Adams was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of her father, when fruit, vegetables and other useful things were brought to aid the couple in their serious loss.

The death occurred at Windsor on Saturday, April 17th, of Mrs. Stephens, wife of Rev. Harold Stephens. The Stephens family were residents of Stouffville some years ago, while Rev. Stephens was pastor of Claremont Baptist church. Besides the bereaved husband, the late Mrs. Stephens is survived by one daughter, Muriel (Mrs. Edgar Rogers), Toronto, and two sons, Gordon of Midland, and F.O. Ralph Stephens of Fort Nelson, B.C. Funeral services were held on Tuesday, from the late home in Windsor. Mr. and Mrs. Lambert H. Malloy of Stouffville, close friend of the family attended the funeral on Tuesday.

"MR. FIXIT CALLS"

Cary Grant, who portrayed a pestered artist in "The Bachelor and the Bobby Soxer," turns to the role of a serene and highly efficient fixer in "The Bishop's Wife," Samuel Goldwyn's newest production for R.K.O. radio release. Loretta Young as the wife, and David Niven as the bishop, are co-starred with him in this gay tale of a churchman's troubles in a mid-western city. Monty Wolley is top featured, and other prominent members of the cast are James Gleason, Gladys Cooper, Elsa Lanchester, and the Mitchell Boy Choir. Henry Koster directed this dramatic comedy of a clergyman's perplexities, which are alleviated by a personable mystery guest called "Dudley." This picture is highly recommended for both young and old. If you enjoy good clean entertainment and loads of laughs don't miss "The Bishop's Wife," playing at the Stanley Theatre, Stouffville, on May 10th and 11th, at regular prices.

The trout season opens May 1st (Saturday).

James D. Moore, formerly associated with W. M. Cockburn, Agricultural representative for York County, at Newmarket, has resigned as agricultural representative in Brant, to become public relations officer with the Canadian council of boys' and girls' work. His headquarters will be in Ottawa, and his field will be the entire Dominion. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moore, Smith township.

Mrs. H. Lee, Church St., was in Thornton on Saturday attending the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alta Beynon, who passed away on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Lee is now the only surviving member of her family, both on her own, and her husband's side. Mrs. Lee survives five brothers and four sisters of her own family. The late husband of deceased, Rev. R. B. Beynon, was a minister in the Toronto Presbytery.

The Easter meeting of the Garrett Evening Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. H. Klinck on Wednesday evening, April 14. The guest speaker was Mrs. Frank Muir, a returned missionary from China, who told of her varied experiences going to China in 1939 and during the Japanese bombings in that country. Miss Eileen Weldon conducted the worship service which centred around the Easter story. She was assisted by Miss Margaret Hosie and Miss Erma Dowswell. Several members of the Junior choir sang and Miss Bertha Stouffer rendered an instrumental. The story of Carrie, the first missionary to India and his work and devotion to the Indian people which became much more effective as he translated the Bible in their own tongue, was told by Miss Margaret Ball. Mrs. C. Neal gave a talk on temperance. Mrs. H. Lee made the presentation of a life membership certificate to Miss Bertha Winn. After the meeting a social time was enjoyed. Miss L. Walters, 2nd Vice-President, presided.

"NOBODY WANTS SUMMER WOOD" STATES LOCAL AUCTIONEER
Less than a dozen people gathered at the Honsberger property west of Ballantrae for the public auction sale of wood offered there last week by the owner through A. S. Farmer, auctioneer. The wood was placed in piles, but there were ten piles of wood for every person at the sale, and only two of them were sold. "Farmers are not interested in buying piles of summer wood," said the auctioneer, who stated that Mr. Honsberger might call another sale next fall.

REV. ALBERT OWEN RETIRES FROM MINISTRY
Rev. J. V. Buchanan, South Mountain, has been called to the pastorate of Cooksville, Britannia, and Meadowvale United Church, to succeed Rev. A. E. Owen who is retiring after 45 years in the ministry. Before going to Cooksville Rev. Mr. Owen served on the Unionville circuit and prior to that was minister at Uxbridge for six years. He is remembered as a sincere, untiring pastor, possessing great sympathy and understanding, and still counts many friends in the local district who will not soon forget his ministry among them.
