Despite the rather chilly atmosphere the past few days, many gardens in town are showing good growth. Lettuce, onions, and other early vegetables costing so much will soon be cheap for these garden tillers. Rhubarb is of course plentiful in almost every garden.

A caller at the office the other day suggested that if this "union bug" gets much stronger in Canada, there will be a union among the baby sitters—then what? Well, they will make it prohibitive for parents to sit with their own children at nights.

Fifty-five boys ate seventy-six pies at a pie social held in the skating rink at Walkerton last week. But that is not all—they consumed five gallons of ice cream too! It was the occasion of a meeting of the boys' hockey team and some of their chief supporters, and we want to say that if the lads can play hockey with the same enthusiasm that they can eat pie and ice cream, then we would like to have them challenge Stouffville on their ability as puck chasers.

The May meeting of the W.M.S. of the United Church was held in the church with Mrs. Campbell in charge. Mrs. Atkinson led in the worship service and was assisted by Miss Bannerman. A duet, "Just for To-day," was feelingly sung by Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Stewart Stouffer. A synopsis of three chapters of the study book was given by Mrs. Riches, covering the work of Carey in India, Andrew Hensley in Africa and Mr. and Mrs. Peck in Guatemala, South America. Each of these missionaries triumphed over tremendous odds and finally succeeded in presenting the scriptures in their own language to the people of the various countries, some of whom had never before had a written language. Mrs. Atkinson thanked those who had taken part in the program which had been prepared under the leadership of Mrs. Riches and Mrs. Percy Stouffer.

Timmins in Northern Ontario has the highest tax rate in its 38 years of existence. The rate for public school support is 68 mills and for Catholic school supports 85 mills. The latter rate is more than double the tax demand Stouffville people are called to pay.

Great Advertising Results

"We got a big paint job from a man in Hamilton, from our adv. in The Tribune," said Mr. Arthur Heaton the other day. Mr. Heaton was elated over the success of advertising in the home town weekly. The Hamilton man owns a farm in Uxbridge township, and he let a contract to the Heaton's to paint the structure, after reading the adv. in Hamilton.

George Mason, General manager of the Mason & Risch Piano Co. was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Stouffville Lions Club on Monday evening at the High School. Mr. Mason took as his subject, "Music, from the Cradle to the Grave." He was introduced by Lion Ted Edwards and a vote of appreciation was expressed by Lion Ken Wagg. Neil Stiver of Unionville, saxophonist, and Lion Cliff Salmon, pianist, provided the gathering with entertainment. Several members of the Markham-Unionville Club visited the Stouffville Lions in their den on this occasion.

Plans Extensive Improvements

The L. E. O'Neill block on the corner of Main and Church Sts. is in for a big renovating program to start immediately. The main feature of Mr. O'Neill's improvements will be a funeral chapel with entrance on Church St. The chapel will provide accommodation for between seventy-five and one hundred. Other modern funeral home conveniences will be installed along with oil-heating. A basement is to be excavated under the northeast section of the building and an entire new roof placed overhead.

Our popular C.N.R. station agent, Mr. Magnus Mowat, last Saturday purchased the former Helmky residence on Main street, third residence west of the railway on the south side of the street, from Miss Carrie Johnston of Markham who bought the place at a public auction sale, and intended to retain it as an investment. However, Mr. Mowat is now the owner, and may make it into a duplex, although no definite plans have been reached yet. The property is in good state of repair, and was the home of the late Mathew Woodgate, first clerk of Stouffville back in 1877. It is one of the finest locations in town, with a liberal sized lot. Incidentally, Mr. Mowat has only a year and a half to serve in his position with the C.N.R. until he reaches the retirement privileges. Of course, he may not elect to give up at that time, since he enjoys his work, and the public appreciate his friendly, helpful attitude, in a position that at times would exasperate anyone but a person with the best of nerve controls.

Drainage Problems Piled Up on Council

Northwest Section of Town Petition for a Storm Sewer - New O'Brien Ave. Owners Present Problem

One of the big features highlighting the regular meeting of Stouffville Municipal Council on Thursday were the drainage problems presented for consideration. A well-signed petition was tabled from ratepayers in the northwest section of town, north of Main St. and west of Edward asked for the cost on a storm sewer to be laid there.

"This will require bringing in an engineer, and the work would have to be done under the Public Improvement Act," stated the Reeve.

Council agreed that such an engineer should be brought in, and a similar request received some time ago, be dealt with at the same time.

It was pointed out that a proper survey would have to be made to arrive at the cost, and this cost would be shared between the householders affected and the municipality on a percentage basis.

Messrs. Harold Spofford and A. H. Williams who own lots on Rose Ave. at the south end of O'Brien Ave. presented a problem there where several new homes are going up, and others are contemplated.

The owners in this section propose to lay a large 8" glazed tile on the south side of Rose Ave., and sought direction as to just where it should go, and how the drainage would be passed across O'Brien Ave. Such drainage continues down Rose east of O'Brien until it joins Pine St.

"Last year's council agreed to install a catch basin at the O'Brien Rose corner and carry it across the street," said the Reeve.

Council declared they were agreeable to carry out this idea. It was agreed that the street committee, Councillors John Scott and Henry Ogden, along with the Medical Health Officer, Dr. Freel, should meet with the interested ratepayers on Friday night.

"When we do carry this drainage across the street, whose job is it then?" asked Councillor Ratcliff.

"That's their problem," said Councillor Scott.

It was stated that the ratepayer whose property is adjacent to the open ditch on Rose Ave. east, was complaining about the odor from the drainage there.

"That's a job for the M.O.H.," said Councillor Baker.

"It's an old dodge to make a football out of a job like this," stated the Reeve, "our responsibility is to fix the corner."

However the Medical Health Officer informed council that persons dumping soapy water on the street could not be prosecuted under the Public Health Act.

"Soapy water never killed anyone," said the M.O.H.

"No one can be prosecuted for draining on the street under the P.H.A., unless it can be proved that what they are doing is injurious to health," Dr. Freel continued.

"But these lot owners are wrong in believing the town has to pay for closing in this open ditch, ratepayers on Main St. are paying every year for a storm sewer, and everyone else will have to pay for theirs," said the M.O.H.
