

"It was Prentice & Prentice"
It was Messrs. Prentice & Prentice, auctioneers, who conducted the whirl-wind auction sale on the farm of Mr. Peter Ferguson last week, and not another auctioneer as incorrectly reported in this paper. The Prentice brothers did an outstanding job on this occasion.

CHURCH HILL

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Loveless and family visited on Sunday with his two brothers, Mr. Dudley and Tracey Loveless and their families at Streetsville.

A number from here were guests at the Clarke-Rowan wedding on Saturday.

Mr. Albert Clark and Mr. John Clarke visited at Maple on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Reamon were guests at his niece's wedding near Niagara Falls on Saturday.

DICKSON HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gower, Mr. Abe and Miss Ada Grove, and Mrs. Joseph Wideman accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pipher to Toronto last Saturday to attend the Miller re-union held in High Park.

A number from our midst attended the Stouffville Horticulture Flower Show Tuesday evening. Mrs. Herb Wideman exhibited beautiful specimens of Peonies, for which she received prizes.

Mr. Lloyd Bolender of Bethesda ridged up land for turnips for a number of farmers in this district.

Preparations are being made for the Memorial service to be held in the church here Sunday afternoon, June 27th. We hope to see the usual number of interested friends at this annual service.

The Wideman families enjoyed a party at the Herb Wideman home last Saturday evening, in honour of Herb's birthday.

GORMLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heise and son Arth of Stayner visited among Gormley relatives on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald of Halifax, N.S. are visiting for several weeks with their daughter, Mrs. R. Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson of Toronto spent last weekend in the Johnson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kennedy and son had Sunday evening supper with his parents in Richmond Hill.

9th Line, Markham

Heartiest congratulations to Miss Mary White who graduated with honours from the Library School, University of Toronto. She is to commence her duties at Wychwood Public Library, Toronto, shortly.

We tender congratulations to Bob Thomas who was successful in passing his third year examinations at the O.C.A. Guelph.

We understand that Murray Lewis is now the owner of the most modern harvesting equipment—a new Massey-Harris self propelled combine.

Bill Peacock is now a member of the Stouffville soft ball team, a team which is reported to be likely to go far in their activities this season.

LOYD JAMES OF WHITCHURCH DEAD

The death occurred at York County Hospital on June 10 of Lloyd James, husband of Mabel Wells, in his 58th year, at the late home lot 16, concession 2, Whitchurch. The funeral on Saturday proceeded to King City cemetery for interment.

CUSTOMER APPRECIATION

On my retirement from the grocery business in Stouffville I sincerely thank all our customers and other friends for their loyal support during my business career here. I bespeak for my successors the same liberal consideration.
