New Residence for Dr. Freel

Building operations will commence this week on what will ultimately be a new home for Dr. Freel and his family. The spacious brick residence that is almost a landmark in town, will scarcely be recognized when the plans of the architects, Messrs. Molesworth, Secord & Savage are carried out. At present the new office for the doctor will be completed, consisting of a brick building one story, to the west of the present office at the extreme west side of the property. In size the office will be 22x24. Work on the residence proper will be delayed until next year, but will consist of practically a new house of modern design. When wrecking operations start next spring, the family will move out since the whole interior will be torn down, the walls lowered, and the structure completely changed in design. W. J. Buckles is the contractor.

INSTALL NEW MASTER

William L. Clark was installed as new master of Markham Lodge, AF and AM when F. S. Pollard presided at installation ceremonies on Thursday evening. Members of Toronto and district lodges were guests.

MEMORIAL SERVICES AT PEACHES

Peaches annual Decoration and Memorial service will be held Sunday, July 11, at 3 p.m. Rev. E. A. Currey will have charge of the service. Special music by the Altona Trio. 11-2

Milk Production

January and February milk production in Canada declined 3 per cent in 1948, as compared with the first two months of 1947.

The Stouffville Athletic Club Carnival will be held on Wednesday, August 18, so paste the date in your hat, and plan to have your friends in town at that time.

Misses Kay Williamson and Carol Weldon of Stouffville have taken positions at Lakeview House, Jackson's Point for the summer. The girls left last week for the lakeside.

Miss Betty-Jean Freel has completed her second year in the honor Modern History course and is now swimming counsellor at Camp Gay Venture in Haliburton.

The Salvation Army social service truck will be in Stouffville on Friday and Saturday of this week to pick up your salvage; this is their semi-annual collection; help them if you can.

The piano sold at the Stapleton estate sale on Church street last Saturday afternoon, will find a new home over in the village of Bradford. It brought $180 under the auction hammer of Sellers & Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rowbotham had a delightful two weeks vacation going by motor to visit at Shawinigan Falls, Quebec, with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rowbotham, Brian and Laurel. They were accompanied by Mrs. DeWitt and Joyce and Brian returned to holiday with his grandparents here and at Cedar Grove.

JUNE WEDDINGS

STARR-SCHLICK

In far-away Pakistan on June 17, 1948, Dorothy Ruth Schlick, and Francis Starr were united in the bonds of matrimony by Dr. James C. Mansy, at the hour of 6 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Schlick of Seventh street, Ames, Iowa. The groom is a son of Elmer and Elma M. Starr of Whitechurch township, east of Newmarket.

The bride is a graduate of Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, and Yale University School of Nursing. She and the groom are part of a team doing relief and rehabilitation work in Pakistan, Afghanistan and Kashmir, under the sponsorship of the English Friends Service Unit. The present address of Mr. and Mrs. Starr is 38 Jail Road, Lahore, Pakistan, but no matter how far, the well wishes of their many friends here in Canada and the U.S. will reach them at their distant field.

WOOD-MOORE

Melville United Church was decorated with pink and white peonies, which made a very pretty setting for the marriage of Grace Adeline, elder daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Moore of Uxbridge, to Mr. William Ray Wood, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wood of Stouffville. Rev. Roscoe Chapin officiated. The wedding music was played by Miss Shirley Eckel of Toronto and Miss Helen Campbell, cousin of the bride sang, "Through the Years" and "God Be With Them."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. William D. Risebrough, wore a gown of white slipper satin on princess lines with fitted bodice and beaded sweetheart neckline. Her long embroidered veil was held by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade of red roses. Her only decoration was triple strand of pearls, the gift of the groom. Her sister, maid of honor and her cousin, Miss Marion Risebrough, bridesmaid, were gowned alike in petal pink sheer over taffeta with matching gloves, and headdress of flowers and shoulder length veil. They carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations. The little flower girls were Anne and Donna Moore, nieces of the bride, gowned in powder blue swiss dotted organdie and carried nosegays of roses and sweetpeas. The best man was Mr. Earl Wood, brother of the groom. The ushers were Mr. Ernie Risebrough and Mr. Allan Macklin, both of Agincourt.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle, with Mrs. David Pegg, aunt of the bride, receiving, wearing a street length dress of powder blue crepe and a lovely corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who chose Queen's blue and wore a corsage of pink roses. Later the happy couple left on a wedding trip to New York and other points. The bride chose for travelling a light blue gabardine suit with white accessories and corsage of red roses. On their return they will reside near Stouffville. Guests came from Burford, Newburgh, Agincourt, Toronto, Milliken, New Toronto, Rodney, Cobourg and Uxbridge.

A member of the Lions Club who loaned a new Eversharp pencil to someone on the evening of the street carnival would be more than pleased to have the pencil back. Leave it at The Tribune office.

A number of Stouffville Cubs and Boy Scouts, along with Leader Paul Sherk attended a scout jamboree in Toronto last week and took in the Maple Leaf-Syracuse ball game at Maple Leaf Stadium, as part of the program.

The stores in town will close as usual this Wednesday at noon, and enjoy a long holiday until Friday morning, since Thursday is Dominion Day and a public holiday for all Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Napper of Winnipeg paid a flying visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. Lownsbrough on their way from Quebec. Mrs. Napper is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lownsbrough.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Cooper have given up residence in Stouffville, and moved last week to Newmarket, where Mr. Cooper is on the staff of the newly opened Dominion Bank branch there. The Coopers have been occupying an apartment in the home of Mrs. Thos. Williamson, while Mr. Cooper has been on the bank staff in Toronto.

The anticipated strawberry festival to have been held on Monday evening under auspices of the local Anglican church was postponed owing to the rain. This affair will now take place next Monday evening, July 5, on the spacious lawn at the Stouffville Floral Co. Everybody is invited to attend, enjoy a social hour and help a worthy cause.

My Cats! What a Trick

One of the meanest tricks we can think of was put over last Saturday evening, when a couple of half-starved looking cats were dropped by somebody on the Main street. That's a mean way to dispose of innocent animals that are not wanted. Far better to drown them at home, than to cast them out to suffer and be abused in a strange place. This is not the first time cats have been dropped in the town by outsiders who haven't enough decency to dispose of their animals in the proper way when they do not want them.

Sunday evening's heavy rain was worth a million to the garden crops and berries. Strawberries now getting past their best for most varieties, were revived somewhat, and a promising crop of raspberries for which Sunday's rain should provide ample moisture. Barring any heat wave and extreme sun, raspberries will be a big crop. Pasture lands are flourishing, and things look promising for good crops, now they are assured the necessary moisture. However, if the wet continued into the middle of the week, fears are expressed that we are getting too much rain, certainly haying operations are seriously hampered.

Just a Bit of News

Just by way of keeping track of former Stouffville lads, well remembered in town, we learned the other day that George Watson, son of Mrs. Watson on O'Brien avenue, and Fred "Haney" Todd are both driving those huge cement mixers in Toronto. You will recall seeing these big machines passing along city streets, with their load of cement in the making as they proceed to their destination to make delivery. "Windy" Laidlaw, another Stouffville boy, holds down a good position in the office of the city street-cleaning department. It would be interesting to have a record of all the old Stouffville boys living in Toronto, indicating their type of employment.

June Bride

Miss Katherine Ruth Gohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gohn, was married on June 26 to William T. Dedlow, son of Mr. J. H. Dedlow and the late Mrs. Dedlow, in Brown's Corner United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Austin of Stouffville, were in Willowdale on Saturday attending the wedding of Mrs. Austin's brother, Bruce Peer.

At the recent examinations at the Toronto Royal Conservatory of Music, all the pupils of Miss Myrtle L. Watson who tried their examination were successful—June Smith, Church st., Grade VI, piano, honors; Rondell Klinck, Victoria Square, Grade VI, piano, pass; Joy Wood, Main st., piano, honors.

There was an interesting baptismal service conducted in the Stouffville United Church on Sunday afternoon, by Rev. Douglas Davis. The following children were presented for baptism: Astrid Palma Osterdahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Osterdahl; Donald McFarland Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. Neil Smith; Jocelyn June, Barbara Ann, and Janet Elizabeth Button, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. John Button; Lloyd Allan Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown; and Gordon Elford Fairles, son of Mr. Eldon Fairles.

We Want Fair Play

The town of Oakville are campaigning for a door-to-door mail delivery, at the expense of the general public. Surely the people in Oakville are able to go to the post office just as they have to in Stouffville, Markham, Richmond Hill, and scores of other places across Canada. In fact the places mentioned not only have people pick up their mail at the post office but they rent a box and pay from one to five dollars a year. What is fair and just about a situation where the residents of one town carry their own mail, and pay for the privilege by renting a box, while the people in Oakville sit at home and have their mail carried to them? We do not mention this by way of advocating mail delivery in Stouffville, but merely to protest against other towns being granted a privilege at the expense of all the people. If places the size of Oakville get door-to-door delivery they should be made to pay for it.
