At the recent garden party put on by the women of Mt. Pisgah church on the 3rd concession of Whitchurch, interesting pictures were taken. Here we see Mrs. A. Stephenson and Mrs. H. A. Smith, farm wives, dishing up the meat which was cooked at home for the event.

Mrs. Archie Monkman with a garden party, while Master Roy McIntyre assists by carrying the strawberries at Mt. Pisgah.

The Editor's Mail

Dear Sir,
In reading my old home town paper I note you suggest it would be interesting to know what the home-town boys are doing. I know my boys would enjoy reading about them. Fred Todd we know, but the other two boys mentioned we do not know. It is 24 years since we left Stouffville. David is a commercial photographer, Bert is a stone cutter, and Edward a freight clerk for the C.N.R. Two of them and their families are up north on their holidays.
I enjoy my paper as much as ever and glad to hear you have won the trophy again.
Thanking you,
Mrs. D. A. Galloway, Toronto.

Crosier Reunion Held at Uxbridge

The 17th annual Crosier reunion was held on Saturday, July 3, 1948, at Elgin Park, Uxbridge. Members of the Crosier family numbering one hundred and ten came from Stratford, Trenton, Hamilton, Toronto, Whitby, Port Perry, Uxbridge, Stouffville, Blackwater, Claremont, and district.
The afternoon was spent in renewing old acquaintances and participating in a varied sports program under the capable leadership of Mr. Russel Crosier. Prizes were awarded for the sports, and young and old enjoyed a ball game.
After a fine picnic supper Mr. George Somells, Pres. took charge of a short program. In memory of Miss N. Tucker and Mr. D. Sykes, a minute silence was observed. Mr. Gordon Crosier presented a gift to the youngest child present Betty Monroe, in memory of his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Crosier. Mr. and Mrs. J. Albright, the oldest members present were given gifts since they had celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Musical selections were given by Donna and Jean Samells, Patsy and Ilene Lane, and a poem read by Mrs. Samells.
Russel Crosier presented prizes to Mr. and Mrs. Mac Wilson Trenton, most recent married couple; and Mr. and Mrs. N. Prentice for the largest family present. Short speeches were given by Russel Crosier, Roy Ward and Mrs. W. Short. It was noted that Mr. and Mrs. Russel Crosier, Mr. and Mrs. David Crosier and Mrs. Walter Slack have attended every reunion to date. There were three in attendance for the first time, Mrs. Marshall Crosier, Mrs. Mac Wilson, Mr. C. Wagg. They voiced approval of a fine family reunion.
The 1949 reunion will be held in Memorial Park, Stouffville, Ont. the first Saturday in July.

KNEELING AT PRAYERS FIND WOMAN, 86, DEAD

Lights shining from inside attracted attention of neighbors to the home of Miss Ada Everett in the town of Uxbridge on Monday. When they entered, they found the 86-year-old woman dead, kneeling at her bed in an attitude of prayer.
Born in England, Miss Everett was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Everett. She moved with her family to Canada at an early age and her father farmed at Ashworth, in Scott township. Miss Everett and her mother retired to Uxbridge after her father's death 40 years ago. She was a member of St. Paul's Anglican church and was active in the W.A. She was a sister-in-law of Dr. E. A. Hardy and an aunt of Dr. Florence McConney, both of Toronto.

HARVEST OF MAGAZINE CANVASSERS DUE

This is the season of the year when you may expect a group of attractive-looking girls or a number of young men to swoop down on the town, representing themselves as order-takers for magazines. "Just give us the postage money, and we will send the magazine," they will tell you. In fact this line was being used on the streets of Oshawa last week when the police stepped in and put a stop to it.
The Oshawa Times reports: "Two young women were busily engaged on Simcoe Street North in the Bank of Montreal block stopping likely prospects and giving them a line of talk winding up with a request for an amount of money "to pay the postage" on a magazine for which they claimed to be working. The police officer on the beat checked up on them and told them they must get a permit from the Chief of Police before continuing their solicitation. He also required them to return $5 to a customer to which they had just given a receipt for this amount and who was not very happy about the transaction."

Leitchcroft Farms Provide Testing Ground For Wheat Varieties

In keeping with their loose smut eradication campaign the York County Crop Improvement Association last Friday, July 9, held their second twilight Field Meeting at Leitchcroft Farm, Markham Township, where over 125 interested farmers gathered to learn the latest information on this disease.

Keen interest was shown in the large barn hay drier where green bales of excellent quality hay were being dried in apparently comparative safety. This was fully explained by the farm manager, Mr. Joe Lanthier and followed by an inspection of the hay silage drying silo.

Informative comparisons were made with a number of varieties of winter wheat by wheat specialist W. H. Waddell of the O.A.C. when the tour extended to the variety test plots. While Dawson's and Cornell were favourably recalled the demerits and impurities of the so-called Egyptian Imperial Amber were well illustrated. Completing the plot tour the specialists were loud in their praise of the Cornell variety. Problems were later cleared when Dr. A. G. O. Whiteside of the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, discussed the wheat situation. The evening concluded with a reminder by secy. W. M. Cockburn for all members of the 50 Bushel Wheat Club to give ample warning to his office so that yield cuttings for the competitions would be completed at the most opportune time.

GORMLEY

The death of Hannah Burkholder Sherk at Queen Elizabeth Hospital on Saturday in her 91st year, removes a very dear friend in the Gormley district, and one of the oldest inhabitants of the locality. She was the widow of the late David Sherk, and is survived by two sons Herbert and Ernest. Interment on Tuesday was at Heise Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Sharbach, Nancy and Patsy of Midland, also Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cassel, Paul and Blanche of Preston spent last weekend in the Henderson home.

RINGWOOD

Mrs. Victor Brown and little daughter Ann of Barrie are holidaying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steckley.

Mrs. Jacob Grove is under the doctor's care, having suffered severe shaking up on Sunday evening, when knocked down by a cow at the gateway of their farmyard.

Misses Phyllis and Jean Paisley, June and Doris Steckley of the 6th concession and Shirley Steckley of Ringwood are visiting relatives in Ottawa.

Mrs. Ethel Hurst of Toronto is enjoying a two-week holiday with her sister, Mrs. Sam McKuen.

Misses Ruth and Lois McKuen with other Dickson Hill young people were at the closing day sessions of Stayner camp meeting on Sunday.

The lucky draw and winner of the 2 bushels of Cornell seed was Clarke Johnson, of R.R.2, Gormley.
