Where Your Wants are Met

One of the most interesting sections in The Tribune is the last page. Here among the classified you find offered this week, flocks of pullets ready to lay, pigs and other livestock for sale.

Yes, you will notice that O'Neill's furniture store has slashed radio prices. The same goes for Farr's in the Ratcliff block.

Perhaps you are needing a house, then note one on Main street central and modest in price is offered, another at Ringwood, under real estate. Turning to heaters several stoves, a space heater too is available.

The farmer is interested in implements, one new hay baler used only to cut 30 acres wants a new home away from Port Perry. It's promised to the first buyer who comes along with the right price.

Be sure and turn to page 12. There are so many offerings, and so many more seeking to buy this and that.

NOTICE—Classified ads. are inserted for cash. Telephone orders are accepted on understanding the adv. will be paid for in a couple of weeks. If not so paid an additional charge is made.
