PAMPERING PETS

Nearly drowned in a wading pool, Chirpy, the robin, was saved by Tommy O'Dell, 14, who gave it artificial respiration at Glastonbury, Conn.
Here Tommy feeds the young bird with a medicine dropper.
Now children at a day camp with Tommy are taking their nature studies very earnestly.

In New York a pet shop owner, Billy Rose, celebrated his 61st birthday by giving away 50 puppies to children who wrote the best letter telling why they wanted a dog.
Lawrence Levy, eight, won the first pup with his letter.

Introduction of high-button shoes in New York will revive the lost art of using an old-fashioned button hook. The shoes are of black satin held snugly to the ankle by eight jet buttons. Lining of the high-heeled boot is of red satin.

BREAKFAST IN ICELAND DINNER IN MONTREAL

Miss Virginia Davis, daughter of Mr. E. J. Davis and the late Mrs.
Davis, Newmarket, flew home from her breakfast in Iceland, where she had been visiting her sister, Barbara, who is studying dramatics in London. Miss Davis had her breakfast in Iceland, where her plane had been diverted by a storm-afternoon tea at Gander, Nfld., and dinner at Montreal. She had been in England since before Christmas.

THE MIXING BOWL

By ANNE ALLAN
Hydro Home Economist

Hello Homemakers! "Seeing is believing!" is the motto of the exhibitors at the Canadian National Exhibition this year. These manufacturers tell their story with movies—twelve to twenty-five minutes running time. It is worthwhile to do the Exhibition in easy stages so that you have time to see the various pictures and it's one way of resting aching feet.
The women will want to spend some time in the Coliseum section where there are practical interior decorating schemes and demonstrations pertaining to home and community program projects.

New Equipment

1. More glassware is now being made in Canada. There will be ample supply of table glassware as well as cooking and baking utensils of this type.
 2. The aluminum jelly moulds of different shapes and sizes are being displayed for the first time in years.
 3. Notice the food chopper attachment designed to hold the chopper firm and at the same time protect your table top or working surface.
It can be fastened so that it is out of your way when not in use.
 4. Again, a new grater and easy to clean because the grooves are more curved.
 5. There are many new apartment washing machines this year. These are time savers and require only small storage space.
 6. An electric drier for clothes is another machine which many women are considering.
 7. The thermometers are also interesting. These are the most inexpensive ones ever marketed.
There are special purpose ones for deep frying, for syrups, or for meats, as well as dual purpose recording gadgets.
 8. Electric ranges are again the envy of the bride-to-be. Special features are: the pressure cooker as one element; a broiling pan that fits right on the shelf-grooves; time signals that ring like an alarm clock; light fixtures for the oven; easy-to-clean drip trays and streamlined handles.
 9. New ironers and hand irons are displayed in the manufacturers' building where many pieces of laundry are being done for your benefit if you wish to review your technique.
- Community planning is the concern of the family, yet women have a keen interest in the pattern of life surrounding them. The model homes are in detail and an attendant will be glad to tell you all about them.

Requested Recipes

- Piquant Tongue Mold
1 package lemon jelly powder 2 cups hot water 2½ tbsps. vinegar
¼ tsp. salt
1 tsp. scraped onion 3½ cups boiled tongue ½ cup chopped dill pickles ½ cup mayonnaise Dissolve lemon jelly powder in hot water. Add vinegar and salt.
Chill. When slightly thickened, place in bowl of ice and water and whip with rotary egg beater until fluffy and thick like whipped cream. Fold in onion, tongue, pickles, and mayonnaise. Turn into loaf pan. Chill until firm in electric refrigerator. Unmold. Garnish with crisp lettuce and radishes. Makes 10 servings.
- Plantation Milk Shake ¼ cup peanut butter 1 tbsp. honey
½ tsp. salt
2 cups milk ½ tsp. vanilla nutmeg.
Put peanut butter, honey and salt in bowl. Add ¼ cup milk and beat until smooth. Add the remaining milk, continuing to beat. Add vanilla. Pour into jar, cover and store in refrigerator until needed.
Top each glassful with a dash of nutmeg.
- Blueberry Pie
Line a pie plate with a rich pie pastry ¼ inch thick. Mix 2½ to 3 cups of blueberries with 1 tablespoon of flour, two-thirds cupful brown sugar and ½ teaspoon ground cloves. Fill the pie plate.
Add the top crust, crimp edges and bake in a hot oven 425 deg. F. for 10 minutes; reduce heat to moderate 350 deg. F. and bake another 2 minutes or until done.
Cloves and brown sugar give a new and different flavor, but if you prefer a dash of lemon juice.....it's good, to.
- Iced Tea
Allow 2 teaspoons of tea for every standard measuring cup (8-ounce) of briskly boiling water.
Brew in warmed teapot 4 to 5 minutes.
Fill tall glasses with cracked or cubed ice, then pour in the hot tea.
Serve with sugar and lemon slices.
- Old Time Tarts
2 cups diced rhubarb
½ cup water 1½ cups sugar

½ teaspoon salt 3 tbsps. quick-cooking tapioca 2 cups crushed berries 8 baked tart shells ¼ cup cream, whipped Combine rhubarb, water, sugar and salt in saucepan. Bring to a boil and simmer 5 minutes. Add quick-cooking tapioca and berries and bring to a full boil, stirring constantly. Remove from heat.

Cool, stirring occasionally. Turn into tart shells. Chill. Just before serving garnish with the whipped cream. Makes 8 servings.
