Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Winterstein have now moved into their new home on Second street opposite the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Sanders. Since they moved from the old home on the 10th of Whitechurch the Wintersteins have been living on the Spang farm east of town.

Stole Car at Gormley
When the Free Methodist preacher at Newmarket was making a visit at the home of Mr. Ernest Harvey, Gormley on Wednesday night last week, somebody stole his car from the yard, and took it to Toronto where it was abandoned and picked up by the city police. A new Chevrolet, the preacher had only driven it about 800 miles. He had removed the key when he went in for tea but this didn't deter the thief or thieves from getting the car started. York County police are investigating.

One of Mr. Fred Chessman's ducks are missing from the pen north of the United Missionary Church. It could be that while the service was going on inside the edifice, the devil was more than busy not very far away, but the person who stole the duck had better beware, for the mail courier knows how to salt such a duck fancier. Then again, the duck may have taken to wing, feeling it was a good time to be off in order to escape making itself too desirable for some Christmas dinner.

United W.M.S. Birthday
On Thursday, December 2nd, the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church met in the church auditorium. This was the annual mite box and birthday tea meeting and there was a splendid attendance. Mrs. Kenneth Campbell opened the meeting with a hymn and prayer and a brief silence was observed in memory of Mrs. William Burkholder. Special sympathy was expressed for Mrs. Stover whose husband had just passed away.

Mrs. Riches conducted the devotional period during which Christmas carols were sung. Miss Bannerman read the scripture and Mrs. Smales led in prayer. A solo "The Lord's Prayer" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Claude Brillinger. Mrs. Pape, a member of the Chinese Inland Mission and now on furlough, was introduced by Mrs. Riches. She spoke on Christmas in China where very few celebrate the festival as we know it. She told of experiences in China during the war years and of tremendous loss of life during that period. Also of hardships endured and the happy occasions when parcels arrived from home especially at the Christmas season. Two musical numbers given by Mrs. Nolan at the organ and Mrs. Bramham at the piano were much enjoyed. Mrs. Ball conducted the birthday service during which Mrs. Claude Brillinger sang appropriate numbers for each month of the year as the members presented their gifts. Mrs. Riches moved a vote of thanks to all who had helped make this meeting a success especially to Mrs. Pape for her interesting message. The ladies were invited to the Sun-School room where a lovely birthday tea had been prepared by the group in charge, assisted by Miss N. Rae and Miss J. Lemon. Mrs. Murison, one of the oldest members of the organization was given the honor of cutting the birthday cake and a social hour was enjoyed.

Overheard: "Last night I had a terrible dream about civilization. I was at the crossroads without signboards, with no road map, no gas, and four flat tires."

The Mothercraft Advice room will be open in the United Church basement on Tuesday, Dec. 14, from 10.30 a.m. to 5 o'clock. All mothers and babies welcome.

Over 700 entries were made at the furniture store L.E. O'Neill to a recent invitation to drop your name in the box there, with the promise that the lucky one whose name would be drawn would be given a gift. The scheme was a very simple one and involved nothing on the part of the public, but was negotiated by the Ontario Retail Furniture Dealers Association who are paying all the expenses. The draw will be made in Toronto before Christmas, we understand, when the names left with all the dealers in the association are brought together.

The Stouffville Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. G. Kellington on Thursday, Dec. 16, at 2.30 o'clock. Motto will be given by Mrs. Shuttleworth; Roll Call—A Christmas Thought; Mrs. F. Brown will give an address on Christmas; carol singing - and exchange of Christmas presents closing with social half hour. Come and enjoy the afternoon with us. Those wishing transportation meet at the post office at 2 o'clock. President, Mrs. J. Ridout; sec'y, Sadie Stewart.

Adieu to Bible College Students
Tremendous crowds followed the week of meetings held in town churches by students from Toronto Bible College. The big windup on Sunday night saw some 900 people present at the final service held by the visitors in the United Church after the regular church services. The meetings were somewhat lengthy due to so much talent, but despite this fact the crowds always hung on to the very last, and even then some were regretful when the evening's gathering came to a close. In addition to the meetings the visitors made a visit to almost every home and tabulated their findings, to ascertain how many people were identified with a church, and how many had no church affiliations. When this report is available it could tell an interesting set of facts. The ministers who worked hard to bring about the successful week of meetings certainly feel justified in their effort. In addition to all the ministers in town, Rev. Gibson Brown of the Bloomington circuit took an active and leading part in the arrangements. An outstanding thing was the ease with which homes were found for the 50 or more visitors who remained here all week. In fact there were more invitations from folks in town and country willing to open their homes than there were visitors to fill them. Hospitality at its best.

FIFTY CENT ADV. SELLS FARM LESS THAN A WEEK

The Willoughby Farm Agency acknowledge the power of Tribune classified advertisements this week. On December two issue Mr. H. W. Moyer, local agent, inserted a small classified adv. offering for sale a 25 acre place on the Brock Road north of Claremont in Uxbridge Township, and a quick response from Mr. Geo. Constable of Claremont soon closed a sale to that individual at $3,000.

The property is half cleared and the remainder is grown over with pine and mixed hardwood. There is a bank barn and frame dwelling on the place.

Stouffville horse show Tuesday, Dec. 21.

Wood sales are selling well this fall. Mrs. Wm. Ratcliff held one last week at her Whitechurch bush when lots sold high. Merlyn Baker is to have a sale at his bush on Dec. 18.

Drop in and have a cup of tea with Pilgrim Workers of the Christian Church, in the municipal hall on Saturday this week at 2.30. Other articles on display are quilts, children's clothing, knitted goods and aprons.

MISS ELIZABETH PERCY SERIOUSLY ILL
Everybody in Stouffville should have good reason to remember Miss Elizabeth Percy who is now very ill in Montreal where she had gone recently to be with her sister, Mrs. J. D. Johnston. Member of one of the pioneer families here Miss Percy's father will be recalled by older residents as Elder Percy, and his daughter perpetuated the name of her parents for all time by donating our town clock to the village. Miss Percy's condition will be learned with great regrets by all who know her.

Messrs. Harry Paisley, Lloyd Turner, Garnet and Bert Tindall attended the Chicago Live Stock Exposition, and thoroughly enjoyed the holiday. The visitors had a bit of a thrill when they witnessed on one of the big team competitions, a former Stouffville gelding sold by Mr. Vinc. Baker to Mr. H. W. Petrie some time ago, and now owned in the States.

Six Wedding Guests At Golden Jubilee

Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Kennedy, Lascelles Blvd., Toronto, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a reception at their home during the afternoon and evening. On the eve of their anniversary they were the host and hostess at a dinner party at the Granite club for over 60 relatives. Among the guests were six relatives who attended the wedding 50 years ago in Stouffville. Following the dinner friends offered their congratulations to the happy couple, among them a niece, Mrs. Fred Ross, who was flower girl at the wedding; another niece, Dr. Jessie Brodie of the University of Toronto staff; a nephew, Prof. John C. Steckley of the experimental farm at Ridgetown; Rev. Robert Hamilton, pastor of College Street Baptist church, and Ross Kennedy Jr., who voiced greeting from the six grandchildren present.

Married at Stouffville in 1898, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy lived in Stouffville, Lindsay and Collingwood, moving to Toronto in 1905. Mr. Kennedy was for many years active in the building business, and was a member of the council of Forest Hill Village for several years. ### The Editor's Mail

Potato Action Scored To the Editor:
The Conservatives and Liberals are always raving about helping the taxpayer. Different organizations advertise to send food to Britain, China and certain other favored countries. The Conservatives and Liberals especially condemn the Russian version of communism and champion free enterprise. But, that same Liberal and Conservative majority in government dictates that potatoes to the value of $5,000,000 must be dumped to keep up the potato price. Our tax money is being spent, why can't those potatoes be given to us for the needy elsewhere? What has our elected district representative got to say, is he for or against the move? It appears that the capitalist can't continue successfully without destruction of staple goods or property of some sort. I believe that such actions force many people to look optimistically toward other types of government. I am sure technology in North America is the only safe, humane system for real, honest security. VERY INTERESTED.
