9th Line, Markham

The Farm Forum met on Monday night of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wicks Sr. The theme of the evening was "I Hear on the Radio." The discussion dealt with the types of radio programs which are heard and various opinions were expressed as to the programs which are liked best and those which are the most unpopular also suggestions were made as to how radio programs on our local stations could be improved. Everybody then took part in a very interesting contest provided by Mrs. Wicks after which lunch was served by the hostess and a pleasant social hour enjoyed. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carman Lewis on Monday evening next, Dec. 13.

We regret to report that Master Neil Fincham who suffered a serious eye injury several days ago is again in hospital in Toronto having had to undergo an operation for appendicitis on Sunday of this week. The many friends of the Fincham family sincerely hope that Neil may have a speedy recovery.

Former Storekeeper Takes Local Bride

Against a setting of bronze, yellow, pink and white mums and ferns, Audrey Isobel Smith, daughter of Mrs. Smith and the late Albert Smith, became the bride of Alvin James McQuarrie on Saturday, Dec. 4, at 3 p.m., at her home in Stouffville. Rev. Douglas Davis performed the ceremony. Mr. A. McConkey played the wedding music and Mrs. McConkey sang, "I Love You Truly," during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Leslie Ferguson, wore a gown of gold dusk crepe with matching gold headdress and gloves. She wore pearls, the gift of the groom, and carried a cascade of deep red roses. She was attended by Mrs. Leonard Barrett wearing a pearl grey gown, a replica to the bride's, with fuchsia headdress and gloves. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride's mother received the guests in burgandy wine with satin trim, with black accessories, and a corsage of pink roses. Miss Florence McQuarrie assisted wearing mauve crepe with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The happy couple left for a trip to the States by T.C.A., the bride wearing a forest green gabardine suit with brown topcoat and accessories with a corsage of yellow roses. On their return they will make their home at Kew Beach, Toronto.
