PEACHES

Miss Fern Hoover was a recent visitor with her sister at Beaver-ton.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Smith and family were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Wright at Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry, Michell and Gary of Markham were Sunday callers at the Brignall home.

Miss Pat Stalter, nurse-in-training at Toronto, was a Sunday visitor at the Warriner home.

Mrs. John Hosking and Albert were recent visitors at Port Hope attending the funeral of a relative.

Sorry to report Mrs. Robert Mead is confined to her bed. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Chris Hoover spent several days with her son, George Hoover, last week.

Peaches W.M.S. are holding a quilting at the Warriner home this Tuesday.

On Wednesday of last week funeral service was held in the church for the late Mrs. Hendershot of Brantford who was better known around this neighborhood as Mrs. Henry Walker. Many friends attended the service of one who was so well known and liked in our community. Sympathy is extended to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Blizzard recently celebrated their 43 wedding anniversary by entertaining a number of their friends for the evening.

DICKSON'S HILL

Good interest marked the opening of the revival services Sunday, conducted by pastor Rev. Berry. In the evening there was special singing by Rev. and Mrs. Carl Lehman who are under appointment to the mission field in India. Carl is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Flavuis Lehman, formerly of this locality.

GREEN RIVER

Mrs. Fred Sherrard of Oshawa visited on Sunday with Mrs. K. Dafoe.

The C. G. I. T. is holding an open Saint Patrick's party in the S.S. room on Friday evening.

On Friday evening last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carter a miscellaneous shower was given Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Calbert. The gifts they received were very beautiful as well as useful. The bride and groom responded in their own quiet manner. About sixty attended.

The Friendly Neighbor Club was entertained this week to a St. Patrick's night at the home of I. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Freshwater were Toronto visitors over the weekend.

Next week the Friendly Neighbor Euchre Club is invited to Victoria Square to the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dafoe.

GREENWOOD

Remember the oyster supper Thursday night, March 17th, in the church, starting at 6 o'clock. A program will follow. Come and enjoy a real treat.

The W.A. was held in the church basement last Thursday afternoon where a quilt was set up to work. Some came back on Friday afternoon and finished it. A short worship and business period was held during the quilting.

Miss E. Green and Mr. and Mrs. Morden and Joan visited with Toronto friends last Sunday.

Mr. Wesley Sadler is having his buildings wired for hydro.

Mr. Don Linton is sporting a new car.

The Farm Forum met last Monday night at the home of Mr. and Miss Wilkie. The discussion was on "Income Taxes." All the Forums are invited to meet at the Brougham hall next Monday night, Mar. 21st. They are expecting a speaker from Toronto to speak on Farmers' Income Taxes, followed with games and lunch.

Mr. E. Trimble is spending a couple of weeks at his home.

Master Gary Disney is still confined to his bed. We hope he will soon be up and around.

BALSAM

AND MOUNT ZION

Those who attended the drama "Henpecked Henry" given by the Greenwood-Kinsale young people last Friday night thoroughly enjoyed it. Much credit is given the actors and their director, Mr. Hugh McCrimmon for their good acting.

A number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harbon on Saturday night in honour of Mrs. Harbon's birthday Monday, Mar. 14.

Mrs. John Gregg of Toronto visited for a few days last week at the McAvoy home.

Miss Betty Story of Claremont visited Sunday at the Rodd Appleby home.

Miss Eileen Carson of Toronto spent the weekend with her mother and brother.

Quite a number from here attended the Claremont High School commencement last Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Mr. Jack Brown was home the first part of the week with the flu.

The Active Service Class will meet on Tuesday night, March 22, at the home of Mrs. Cecil Disney.

Mr. Frank Disney attended County Council at Whitby last week.

Mrs. G. Southwell and baby spent a few days this week with her parents in Toronto.

The snow the latter part of last week was welcomed by the skiers as they were out at the "Sky Loft" in hundreds on Sunday.

A number of relatives from here attended the birthday party for Mrs. A. Rogers at Brooklin on Tuesday night.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jones who celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary on Monday, March 14th.
