TOWN PROPERTY SOLD

AFTER 75 YEARS IN FAMILY
Joseph Howser has purchased the Richard Burton property on Stouffer street in the east end, which includes considerable land with frame dwelling. At present Mr. Howser is farming on the tenth a short way from town. The sale of the Burton property marks was the original owner, and the exchange of a property that has stood in the family name for more than 75 years, since the father of the late Richard Burton was the original owner, and Richard who died several months ago was born on the property now sold by his nieces to Mr. Howser.

WEDDINGS

DIXON — COUPERTHWAIT

Pink and white snapdragons were the setting in Stouffville United Church for the marriage of Nellie Margaret, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Couperthwaite, Mongolia, to Gorman Austin Dixon, son of Mr. Alfred Dixon, Toronto, and the late Mrs. Dixon. Rev. Douglas Davis officiated and Mrs. F. Byer was soloist accompanied by Mrs. C. Nolan at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a net yoke and trimmed with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil with embroidered scallops was held by roses. Miss Christina Cowan, a white halo and she carried red cousin of the bride, was maid of honour, gowned in rose taffeta and carried Johannahill roses. Miss Ileen Dixon, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, gowned in turquoise taffeta and carried pink roses. Both attendants wore a white headdress and matching mittens. Mr. Norman Couperthwaite, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Murray Couperthwaite and Eldon Dixon.

At the reception the bride's mother received in a dress of black figured crepe, grey accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Irwin, aunt of the groom, assisted in a grey silk-jersey dress and a corsage of pink roses.

Later the couple left on a wedding trip through Eastern Ontario. On their return they will live near Lemonville.

YOUNG COUPLE TAKE VOWS ON PARENTS' 36th WEDDING DAY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atkinson, O'Brien ave., Stouffville, was the setting for a quiet wedding on Saturday, March 19th, which was their thirty-sixth wedding anniversary, when their daughter, Delma Ruth, became the bride of Lloyd Bolender of Bethesda, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bolender. Rev. H. S. Hallman performed the ceremony, amid a setting of ferns, and the wedding music was played by Miss Ruth Atkinson, cousin of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin, her fingertip veil was caught in a halo of pink flowers. Her bouquet was of pink roses and white carnations. Miss Grace Bolender, bridesmaid, was gowned in blue sheer crepe with matching veil and carried red roses and carnations. Paul Bolender, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

After the reception the couple left on a motor trip. The bride chose for travelling a grey suit, wine coat with navy accessories, and corsage of white carnations. On their return they will reside on the Sixth of Whitchurch.

"We enjoy The Tribune so much, it is like a visit from home," writes Mrs. Mabel Hoover of 27 Bingham street, Kitchener, when renewing her subscription for another year. Naturally, the publishers appreciate such observations from our readers.

A critic writing in the Reader's Digest, wants to know why, when buying a new car, he should be forced to a piano box on the rear, no matter what model you choose, when you haven't got a piano to put in it.

The Easter week is now only three weeks away. Good Friday this year falls on April 15, with Easter Sunday on the 17th. After just experiencing the coldest spell of the winter, with continued warm springlike days, we can readily and quickly fall into the lap of spring with the best of graces. New Easter bonnets are already noticeable on the street of the nearby city.

Next Monday evening, March 28th, will be the occasion of the annual Stouffville Lions Club Farmers' night. This has become a "much looked forward to" evening, when Lion members bring in their farmer friends for supper and entertainment. There'll be special films on the agenda this year in addition to other entertainment.
