The British battleship, Royal Sovereign, known to many Canadian ex-servicemen, and on loan to Russia since 1944, has been returned and will be scrapped.

OUIMET—In loving memory of a daughter and sister, Velma Margaret Ouimet (White) who passed away March 23rd, 1946. Three years ago we had to part with one we loved with all our heart. The wound so deep it will not heal. Those who have lost know how we feel. We miss you darling and always will, but in our hearts you are with us still. Lovingly remembered by Dad, Mum, Bruce, Norrie, and Joyce.

YAKE—In loving memory of a dear father, Harmon Yake, who passed away March 1, 1946, and a dear mother, Mrs. Harmon Yake, who passed away March 30, 1942. One by one they go before us. They are fading like the new. But we know they're watching over us. They the good, the fair, the true. They are waiting for us only. Where no pain can ever mar. Dear ones who left us lonely. Watch us through the gates ajar; There a father, there a mother. Gone within those gates ajar. Too dearly loved to be forgotten by daughter Myrtle, son-in-law Loss, and Family.

MONKHOUSE—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Willis J. Monkhouse, who departed this life March 22, 1947. Down the lane of memory The light is never dim. Until the stars forget to shine We will remember him. Lovingly remembered by his wife and daughter.

TWEEIDIE—In loving memory of a dear husband and father who died March 27, 1940. Nine years ago we had to part with the father we loved with all our heart. The wound so deep it will not heal. Only those who have lost know how we feel. We miss you father and always will, but in our hearts you are with us still. Lovingly remembered by his wife, daughter Verna and Family and Bill.

SUTTON—In loving memory of my dear wife, Mrs. G. Sutton, Ballantree, who departed this life March 29, 1943. I dream of you dear loved one And see your smiling face, And know that you are happy In our Father's chosen place. Always remembered by Husband

KELLY—In loving memory of little Gilbert Kelly who passed away so suddenly March 24, 1945. God's garden had need of a little flower. It had grown for a time here below, But in tender love He took it above, In more favourable clime to grow. There with His smile for sunshine It will grow to perfection of bloom, No withering blight or destructive storm To crush out its sweet perfume. Perhaps sometimes, in the quiet hours, We shall notice its sweet perfume Steal softly down from the heavenly place, Till it seems to fill the room. Then the earthly spot will seem less bare, As we think of the time to come, When we shall enter the garden fair, And find our transplanted bloom. Lovingly remembered by Mother and Alvin
