WEDDINGS

KENNEDY — TINDALL

Goodwood United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, April 23rd, when Alice May, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berton Tindall, was united in marriage to William Goldwin Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliary Kennedy of Leaskdale. Ferns and pink snapdragons formed the setting for the service conducted by Rev. D. Davis of Stouffville. Miss Helen Tindall, sister of the bride, gowned in blue taffeta with matching crown and mitens, with corsage of Better Time roses, played the wedding music and accompanied Roy Dowsell, cousin of the bride, who sang "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee" and "I'll Walk Beside You." Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white satin with net yoke and circular train. A beaded crown held her floor length veil. She carried a cascade of red roses, white carnations and white forget-me-nots. Mrs. Chesley Oldham, sister of the bride, as matron of honour, and Mrs. Rae Kennedy, sister-in-law of the groom, as bridesmaid, wore gowns of American Beauty taffeta, made in off the shoulder style and padded hips. They wore crowns and mittens to match and carried Johanna Hill roses. Miss Margaret Tindall, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid, wore a white taffeta gown with crown and mittens to match. She carried a nosegay of sweet peas and roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Rae Kennedy of Leaskdale. The ushers were Mr. Chesley Oldham, brother-in-law of the bride and Mr. Morley Smalley, cousin of the bride.

After the ceremony the reception was held in the church parlors which were decorated in pink and white streamers and flowers. The bride's mother received wearing French blue crepe, navy accessories and corsage of Better Time roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing grey crepe, matching accessories and a corsage of Better Time roses. For travelling the bride chose a navy gabardine suit, navy accessories and a corsage of Better Time roses. The groom wore a brown fine worsted suit. On their return the happy couple will reside in Toronto.

 Peace of Soul
 Man will never find God until he admits personal guilt. Man has offended God. To be humble and admit means submission to God. No peace of soul can come without admission to guilt. Evil admitted brings hatred of evil. Then we fly to God to submit our lives. Can you face your soul alone before sleep and admit your evil life. Do this and God will not be hard to find. Frequent confession means frequent admission of guilt with submission to God wherein lies peace of soul.
