More D.P.'s Come to Stouffville District

Eleven single male farm workers from displaced persons' camps in Europe arrived in Newmarket on the 11.20 train Tuesday morning. The Era reports. The D.P.'s were met by district farmers who had made applications to employ them and after a quick check with J. D. Downward at the National Employment Service, Main St., each took his baggage and piled into a car or farm truck with his employer, bound for his first Canadian job.

BLOOMINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Storry entertained for their daughter on Wednesday evening, the occasion being Diane's second birthday.

Miss Johnston of Toronto was student teacher here last week and stayed at Mr. A. Topper's.

Mrs. Chadwick of Markham was the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ferguson. A number from here attended the graduation services at Toronto Bible College on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leask and family of Greenbank visited with Mr. W. A. Fockler over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Hummel and family of Toronto have moved out to their newly acquired farm which was known formerly as the Forsythe place. We welcome them to our neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Brisley and son of Toronto were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Tranmer on Sunday.

Mrs. Noel Storry was hostess to a group of ladies on Tuesday at a wear ever brush demonstration.

There were hints that these new Canadians had been well conditioned to regimentation, red tape, line-ups and bureaucratic officialdom in the old world. As they arrived at the employment office from the station in a fine drizzle rain, they stood in the open truck and waited before John Gall, an interpreter, told them to "come in out of the rain." If there were confusions caused by the language barrier during the brief procedure, each was quick to flash identification cards with name, photo and fingerprints. Only one knew a few words of English but they were not slow to understand. Their actions were quick but their manner, polite.

No questions were asked by employees as each one chose a man by sight. Three were Polish and eight were Ukrainian. There were no interviews. Within half an hour the group had left for farms in the Newmarket, Mount Albert, Stouffville, Zephyr and Cedar Valley districts.

One of the 11 indicated that they were somewhat tired after a rough Atlantic crossing. It took two weeks to get from Europe to America. On the train trip from the coast, he said, the men had no sleep except for dozing in their seats.

Farmers who are not able to get labor locally can make out an application for D.P. labor. The local employment office also questions farmers in the district to see if they are interested in getting a D.P. Each D.P. signs a form to work on a farm for 12 months. When the 12-month period is up, he is free to work where he wishes.

Before they leave Europe the displaced persons are interviewed in the camps and the conditions of employment in Canada are stated. The conditions are no less favorable than for other Canadian workers with comparable qualifications and experience in the same type of employment. They are told that the National Employment Service will help them in employment matters from time to time. Wages will carry according to skill and experience and the minimum is set at $45 per month with board, lodging and laundry. Working hours are to be worked out by the employer and the Employment Service and they are given to understand that their employers will help them to learn either English or French.

Farmers who had D.P. workers previously made favorable comments about them on Tuesday morning. "Farmers generally have been satisfied with D.P.'s who have come out," said Mr. Downward.

Potatoes for Seed Should Be Treated Here's How It's Done

The old adage "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" is very applicable in the matter of treating seed potatoes. Careful attention before planting prevents introduction of organisms into the soil for such diseases as scab, black-leg and black scurf or rhizoctonia. Fieldmen of the Crops, Seeds and Weeds Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, are stressing need for care in this matter at the moment.

If the soil is already infested with scab organisms, they point out, then attention should be given to other factors such as crop rotation, organic matter content and cultural practices.

Seed potatoes should be treated before they are cut and if possible before they have started to sprout. Treatment destroys the sprouts and thus retards growth.

A convenient method for treatment is to place one or more barrels on a sloping elevated platform. Solution used for treatment can be drained off from the bottom of one barrel and placed in another before the potatoes are removed.

There are several solutions for treatment of potatoes for seed, but in all cases it is important that all bags and crates to be used for treated potatoes should be soaked in formalin, one pint to 30 gallons
