The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a gown of ivory satin, with an embroidered net veil, and her flowers were red roses. Her sister, Miss Margaret Moyer, dressed in blue silk jersey and carried lily of the valley as the bridesmaid. The flower girl, Miss Marian McDowell, niece of both the bride and groom was very sweet in frosted pink organdy, with lilies of the valley. Mr. Clarence McDowell was groomsman for his brother.
Miss Marian Barkey, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music, and the soloist, Mr. Reginald Gibbins, sang, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" and "O Perfect Love."
