"Think I Got Her" Truant Juveniles Shoot at Woman

"I think I got her," a young boy is quoted as saying after he fired a .22 bullet Thursday which struck the ground inches from where Mrs. Nettie Mouseuck of Pickering was planting cabbages. The lad is now in detention to appear in juvenile court in Whitby Monday afternoon.

Constable Fred White of Pickering township said that three boys, aged 11, 12 and 13 who live at Pickering Beach, were playing truant from school last week. They obtained a rifle and ammunition and walked up Pickering Beach side-road to where Mrs. Mouseuck lives, the second house south of the C.N.R. crossing.

"I was outside setting out some cabbage plants," said Mrs. Mouseuck. "I saw the lads walking up the road but didn't pay much attention even when they were close to me. Suddenly there was a shot and a thud. I saw the dirt fly not more than a foot from my head. One said, 'I think I got her' and ran."

Mrs. Mouseuck called upon her neighbor, Will Lee, for assistance.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I found it necessary to cancel my last scheduled visit to my Stouffville Office owing to an attack of laryngitis and a heavy cold. To those who have been enquiring for me I regret to inform them that I am still unable to set a date for a visit to my Stouffville Office.

However I am endeavouring to establish a full-time optometrical office in Stouffville with larger quarters and equipped with the latest ophthalmic equipment. I would continue to have a directing interest so that I would not be deserving the many fine people whom I have served for the past 21 years. I may have an announcement on this subject shortly.

In the meantime any repairs sent to my office in Picton will be promptly taken care of.

The Best Catholics

Those who make the best citizens, employees, and neighbors, are those who go to Confession often, once a month or more. No Catholic can go to Confession, and receive absolution for his sins, unless he promises faithfully and effectively to amend his life. If your Catholic employee or neighbor is breaking God's law, send him to Confession. If he does not go, beware of him, for if he cheats God, he will cheat you.
