YOU CAN still find people who "don't believe in banks" ... who keep their cash in old coffee pots, or hide it in the woodpile, or carry it around.

But most folk nowadays keep their money in bank accounts. They can get it whenever they want it; and they can pay their bills by cheque. Canadians have more than seven million such deposit accounts. In terms of Canada's adult population, that makes it practically unanimous.

The banks, in turn, know they must earn this confidence by giving you the best service they know how.

Today you can take your account to any bank you choose. And what is in your bank book is strictly between you and your bank. It is your own private business.

Petty Larceny That Is Excusable

This little Greek was caught in the act of petty larceny by the camera when he raided a supply of sugar just arrived in Lambia from the economic co-operation administration. The E.C.A. rushed the sugar and other foodstuffs to Lambia shortly after the Communist guerrillas were driven out by Greek Nationalist forces. Before the Reds left, they looted all the food and clothing and livestock from the village. Our little hero above was fortunate in finding a sugar bag that leaked. He would have been less than human to have passed it by.

After Lake Superior, Lake Victoria in Africa is the largest lake in the world. Lake Aral in Siberia is third and Lake Huron fourth.

Swiss guides often insist on silence when crossing dangerous spots because noise can loosen masses of ice and snow.

China, "the country of tea", produces more wheat than Canada.

The Great Pyramid of Gizeh covers 13 acres and is 450 feet high.
