

WOODEN BRIDGES LOSING OUT

The Township of Markham only has two wooden bridge structures remaining in the township, and one of these will be disposed of this year. A steel multiple culvert ten feet thirteen inches long by six feet twenty-one inches high will be placed on the 10th concession to replace the old bridge. This is near the Silverthorn farm just north of No. 7 highway. The culvert cost $2200 to which will be added installation charges not estimated.

WEDDINGS

WIDEMAN—GRAY

A background of ferns and white baskets of baltonia, beautiful fairy and ming dahlias formed the setting of an all white wedding in Stouffville United Missionary Church, on Saturday, September 17, at 3 p.m., when Earla Arlene Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray, became the bride of Carl Wideman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wideman, both of Stouffville. Rev. H. S. Hallman officiated. Mrs. Howard Ratcliff was organist and accompanied Mrs. James Oldham who sang "Because," "O Perfect Love," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with net yoke over lace, long train and a full length veil caught to a halo of sequins. She carried Better Time rose buds on a white Bible, gift of the groom. The brides attendants were her four sisters. Mrs. Leslie Leonard (Norma) was matron of honor, and Elda, Darlene and Meryl were bridesmaids. All wore white iridescent taffeta with matching coronets and mittens. They carried pink delight roses. Grant Wideman, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Delos Brown of Colborne, cousin of the bride, and Lloyd Wideman, brother of the groom.

The reception was held on the lawn of the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother received wearing navy blue crepe with matching accessories and corsage of briar cliff roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing grey-figured crepe with matching accessories and corsage of better time roses.

The happy couple left amid showers of confetti for points north. The bride wore a wine dress, with three strand pearls, gift of the groom and matching accessories, with grey coat and brown squirrel furs and corsage of better time roses. On their return they will reside in Stouffville.

HAINES—MAYNARD

A pretty wedding took place on Saturday, Sept. 10, in St. Phillips Anglican Church, Unionville, when Barbara Blanche, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maynard was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Leslie Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Haines, by the Rev. F. Herman, against a background of pink gladioli and sprays of fern. Mrs. Peggie Woods Clark sang two beautiful solos, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because," accompanied by Miss Ila Weighill at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of brocade satin fashioned with a nylon yoke, fitted bodice and long sleeves. A headdress of seed pearls and orange blossoms held her full-length scalloped veil of tulle illusion. She carried a cascade of American Beauty roses. Tressa Smith, maid of honour, wore a gown of apple green rayon net and carried a cascade of American Beauty roses. Sandra Maynard was flower girl in yellow satin and carried red roses. Mr. Donald Maynard, brother of the bride, was best man and Harry Maynard and Larry Maynard were ushers. The reception was held in St. Phillip's Church with the bride's mother receiving in brown and a corsage of yellow roses, assisted by the groom's mother in wine with a corsage of yellow roses.

The happy couple left on a honeymoon to Quebec and Vermont, the bride travelling in a dusty pink tailored suit with navy accessories. Upon their return they will reside in Markham.

The premises from which a fire-place was stolen the other day are being closely guarded lest the thief returns and steals the chimney.
