Weddings

CROXALL-KING

Lorna Corinne King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert King, became the bride of Theodore Carl Croxall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Croxall, when Rev. D. Davis officiated at their marriage in Stouffville United Church.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white slipper satin, with a lace collar fashioned in the Queen Anne style and full skirt falling into a slight train. Her fingertip veil was caught by a headdress of matching lace and she carried a cascade of pink and white roses and white gladioli. Vera King, her sister's maid of honour, wore a gown of gold taffeta. The bridesmaids, Mildred Handley and Doris Bayliss were gowned similarly in pearl grey taffeta. Beverley Irwin was flower girl in gold taffeta. The bridal attendants wore matching headdresses and carried cascades of contrasting gladioli petals. Harvey Handley was best man and Eldred King and Morley Barton ushered.

Receiving at her home the bride's mother wore forest green crepe and a corsage of Johanna Hill roses. The groom's mother assisted in neutral brown crepe with a corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

For travelling the bride chose a grey gabardine suit with green accessories, and corsage of red roses. After a trip to the west coast the young couple will reside near Uxbridge.

JAMES-WAGG

Standards of pink gladioli and fern decorated Goodwood Baptist Church on Saturday, September 24th, for the marriage of Grace Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wagg, to Mr. Ronald Lloyd James of Toronto, son of Mrs. N. James of Stouffville. Rev. G. H. Gorman officiated. Mrs. Walter Bryan was at the organ, and Mrs. G. Bell sang "O Perfect Love" and "A Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of blush brocade, fashioned with fitted bodice, Victorian collar, and short train. Her fingertip veil was held by a headdress of matching brocade and orange blossoms. She carried Brercliff roses. Her cousin, Mrs. Alfred Hemmings of Whitty, was matron of honour, and her niece, Miss Linda Wagg of Port Credit, was junior bridesmaid. Both were gowned alike in aqua faille taffeta fashioned in quaint style with matching bonnets and mittens. They wore lockets on black velvet ribbon, and carried nosegays of mixed flowers. Mr. Wallace James of Stouffville was best man, and the ushers were Wesley James of Toronto and Lloyd Wagg of Port Credit.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Her mother received in a dress of grey crepe trimmed with black lace and black accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother chose navy crepe with a corsage of red roses.

For travelling to Montreal and the Eastern States the bride wore a navy blue serge suit with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses. On their return the young couple will live in Aurora.

The Bible Protected
To interpret the Bible to suit one's self without reference to a living, unerring authority lead to division of religions. Private interpretation is a principle of confusion and destruction. It leads to religious indifference, it leads to positive irreligion. This gives us continuous war. Wars have grown worldwide in scope. Truly the rejection of the recognized living Spiritual Authority in Christendom has proved disastrous. Catholics rely without doubt on the infallible certainty of Christ's Church. Christ's teaching must be protected by a rule of faith free from error. Questions answered by mail.
