Formerly of Ashburn 62 Years Wed

Rev. A. McD. Haig of Agincourt, a former minister of Ashburn Presbyterian Church has made a remarkable recovery from severe head injuries received early this year when he was struck by a train. Last week he and Mrs. Haig were happily celebrating the 62nd anniversary of their marriage.

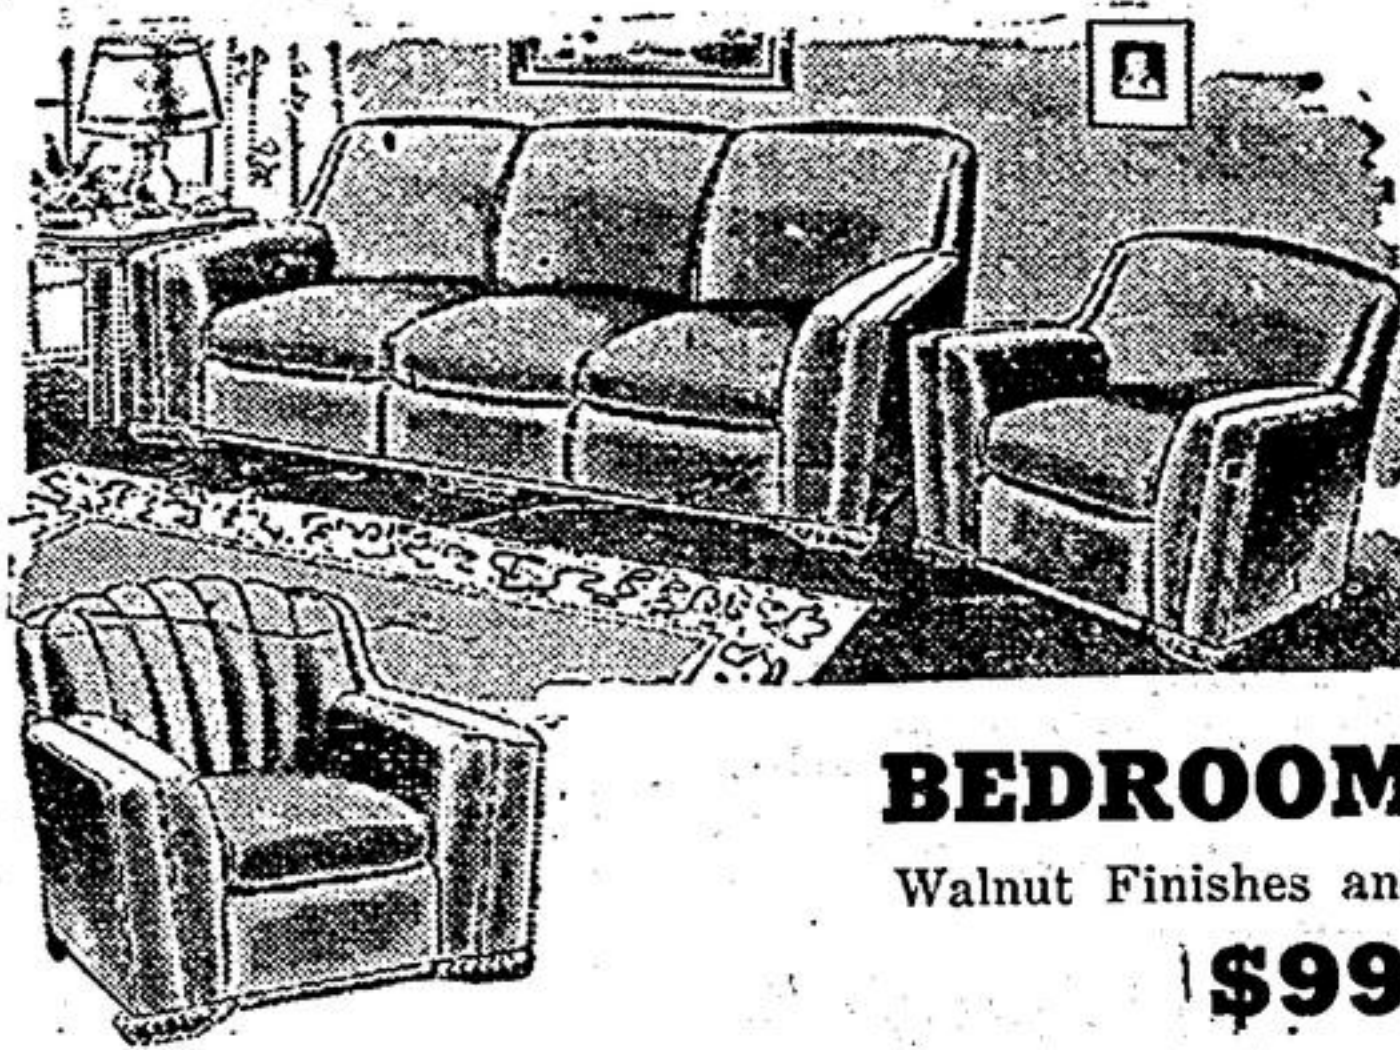

Rev. and Mrs. A. McD. Haig are well known in the Ashburn-Myrtle districts.

Although he is a grand old man of 94 and she is 89, both Mr. and Mrs. Haig are active in doing their own housework and gardening and both are members of the Knox United Church, Agincourt.

Mr. Haig had the distinction of being one of the first persons to talk over an invention of Alexander Graham Bell. His first conversation was a "long distance" call over three miles of fence wire. The call was made when Bell invited students of Brantford Collegiate to attend an exhibition of the first telephone. Since then the Bell Telephone Co. has twice honoured Mr. Haig as a contemporary of the pioneer in communications.

Mr. and Mrs. Haig were married in Agincourt, Oct. 6, 1887, by the Rev. Dr. R. P. MacKay. She was Jean Elliott, granddaughter of the first white couple to be married in Scarborough Township. Together, after their wedding, they left for Manitoba. Their "wedding picture" an old ferrotype photograph, was taken at Brandon, whither they had driven 50 miles from Cypress

Thanksgiving Meeting Of W.M.S.

An interesting and inspiring meeting marked the autumn Thanksgiving service of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church on Thursday, Oct. 6, held in the church auditorium.

The president, Mrs. K. Campbell presided and the devotional was taken by Mrs. J. McCreight with Mrs. Pipher, Mrs. Smales and Miss Bannerman assisting, while Mrs. R. Young dedicated the offering.

Mrs. F. Button announced that Miss Bannerman had made Mrs. Cross a life member in memory of her deceased brother, Mr. Hugh Bannerman, and later told them a substantial thankoffering of over $100. had been received, which was most gratifying. Mrs. C. Nolan and Miss Anne Lehman favored the meeting with an instrumental.

Mrs. Norse, President of Toronto East Presbyterian was guest speaker using as her topic "The Kingdom of God." "Man sows the seed but God gives the increase," "as Jesus walked by the sea of Galilee, so God walks by the nations," "as God has sent me so send I you," "if I be lifted up I will draw all men unto me," "the Cross is a symbol of hope and only by sharing do we appreciate what we have," were some of the remarks used by the speaker to stress her interesting message.

Mrs. Claude Brillinger as usual delighted her audience with a solo, "I heard the voice of Jesus say." Miss Belle Mitchell moved a vote of thanks to the speaker and also to all who took part. All enjoyed refreshments and a social hour in the basement.

Guests were present from local churches, Markham, Cherrywood and Goodwood. All expressed their pleasure for a profitable afternoon.

CLAREMONT

Mr. and Mrs. H. Pugh and son Glenn of Dublin spent the holiday with his father, W. H. Pugh and friends of Claremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dowdell of Toronto accompanied by Richard George of Jersey City visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Palmer and other friends in Claremont on Sunday.

River, the mission field in which Mr. Haig first preached. They spent 10 years in Manitoba.

Mr. Haig filled pastorates at Smithville, Jarrat, West Lorne and Ashburn when they returned to Ontario. When they retired in 1925, they made their home in Agincourt. Until two years ago he was an active member of the bowling club, and both still take part in the services of Knox United Church.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Haig consists of Allister P. Haig, Mrs. R. O. Burrows of Agincourt, and seven grandchildren. A daughter, Mrs. J. A. Jowsey died some time ago.
