MONGOLIA

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Paisley on the birth of a daughter last week.

The big event of the year will be the school concert on Dec. 21st. Don't miss it! Many prominent men, no doubt, look back to the country concert as their first public appearance. Let's encourage the young hopefuls. We may have a future prime minister in the section.

The death of the late Leslie Wambold came as a shock to the neighborhood, especially to those related to the family. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

Clarence McDowell is killing a 2-year-old heifer, and, we understand, will have extra beef or quarters to sell.

WEDDINGS

PAISLEY-SMALLEY

A house wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Smalley, Mount Albert, when their younger daughter Jean Ramona was united in marriage with William Bruce Paisley, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Paisley, Stouffville. Rev. C. P. Shapter officiated against a background of a green and pink arch with baskets of mums. Miss Helen Paisley, sister of the groom, played the wedding march. Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a street length dress of gold taffeta with a matching halo. She carried a white prayer book arranged with sweet peas and white streamers. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Garland Swaniick, Sunderland, as matron of honour, wearing green tissue faille and carrying yellow roses. Bert Paisley, Stouffville, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride's mother received in French blue crepe with a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother assisted in wine crepe and a corsage of yellow roses. For travelling to Montreal and Ottawa the bride chose a green wool dress with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

YORK-SIMCOE GUERNSEY BREEDERS MEET

Thirty-five Guernsey enthusiasts met at Maple on Wednesday for the annual meeting of the York-Simcoe Guernsey Club, and to inspect the newly installed Guernsey bulls at the Maple Cattle Breeders' Association. The bulls, located in the new barn, are from high producing lines and their get recently established quite a record at the Royal Winter Fair winning three championship ribbons, including the Grand Champion Male. Whole-hearted approval of
