EIGHTY RICH VOICES IN GOLDEN CREST CHOIRS

The Golden Crest male choir of 40 voices will celebrate its 20th anniversary by a special appearance on Canadian Cavalcade Tuesday, December 27, over the Trans-Canada network of the C.B.C. The group, which has travelled 100,000 miles in singing to audiences of 150,000, will sing "Galway Bay" on the broadcast. Five original members are still with the choir. Three of these, Jack Nelson, Bill Ruthven, and Bert Reesor are members of Borden's Quarter Century Club.

The Golden Crest all-girl choir of 38 is a much newer musical group. Albert Farmer, conductor, says his main trouble is marriage. So far 15 girls have left the choir. The girls will feature "All The Things You Are" on Cavalcade's all-musical, year and program.
