Green River Man Died Helping Others

Because he chose to act for the safety of others, when he might easily have driven on, Michael Januszewski, 25, of Green River, seen at left with daughter, Linda, two, died by electrocution. With his wife, he was travelling along Don Mills Rd., near Toronto, when he spotted the fallen wire. He went to move it, slipped, and was killed.

Husband Released From Soviet Jail

Jan. 6, the Ukrainian Christmas brought good news to Mrs. Lydia Shulha and her son, of Oshawa, Ont. Her husband, whom she thought dead, is alive and well after four years in a Siberian prison camp. She hopes he will be able to come to Canada as a minister of the Presbyterian church.
