Local dealers—Madill's Store and Overland's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Evans Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooper, Mrs. Fred Ward and Mrs. Judson Ward attended the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Tarr of Stouffville last Saturday from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Dr. and Mrs. Clark have gone to Iowa, U.S. to visit at the home of his aunt who is critically ill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Tausley, and Mr. Linton enjoyed a birthday supper, with special trimmings, with Mr. and Mrs. M. Middleton and family recently on the occasion of a birthday. Many happy returns "Joan." Mrs. G. Hammond also celebrated a birthday recently—Congratulations.

The W.M.S. will hold its monthly meeting on Thursday, Mar. 9th in the Sunday School room. We presume delegates to the Presbyterial will report on the days program. Every woman is cordially welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Montrait of Wexford were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Earle Cook.

At least one of our progressive farmers and poultrymen is not afraid of investing in chicks, having received the usual consignment recently. A world of people without faith in the future, would create a sorry picture.

Mrs. J. Beelby has been ill for the past three weeks with flu. Mrs. J. Morgan, Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. Beare, Miss Forgie, Mrs. M. Johnson, Lyle and Grace Jackson, and no doubt others in our community, have been confined to the house with severe colds, during the past weeks. We wish them all a complete and speedy recovery.

Mr. Levi Linton of the north end who had been confined to bed for three weeks is improved in health and able to be around again.

Mrs. Drue has also been very ill for the past few weeks and is recovering now, we are glad to hear.

Mrs. Frank Loyst, who has lived in Tweed for several months is visiting at present with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Taylor at north end.

The Woman's Association will hold its regular meeting on Thursday of this week, Mar. 2nd in the Sunday School room, at 3 o'clock. Supper will be served from 5.30 for the usual price by a special group. Everyone invited.

The 22nd annual Oshawa Presbyterial of the W.M.S. was held last Thursday at Bowmanville from 9 to 5 o'clock. Owing to the prevalence of colds among our members there were only four who were present. The outstanding addresses during the day were brought by Missionary on furlough, Miss Sybil Courtice, whose theme was, "Open Door of Japan towards Christian Teaching and Living Today." Miss Courtice spoke from first hand knowledge and her remarks were given rapt attention.

Mrs. A. A. Ontram, 2nd vice-president of the Dominion Board also spoke twice, and conducted the election and installation of officers. Mrs. T. Norton of Brougham W.M.S. who has been the first vice-president for a number of years, was nominated the president of the Presbyterial for the new term, and installed with the rest of the new officers.

The postponed monthly Good-fellowship Class meeting was held the following week, last Tuesday evening, Feb. 21st at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hill, with 16 present. Mrs. Carruthers was in charge of the topic—"Ways of knowing God" and gave an excellent paper in connection. Several small readings were given by various members also, and the usual social lunch hour closed with singing Auld Lang Syne.

Mrs. N. Sanderson who visited her daughter and family in Newmarket last week, is at present suffering with the flu, which has been afflicting a number of our community folk during the past weeks.

Next Sunday the United Sunday School are having a special session from 10 to 11 o'clock, when a visiting member of the S. Ontario Sunday School Association is expected to be present and speak on some special feature of the work. The various classes with teachers, are planning to be present at the regular morning church service in the centre front seats. Mr. Lewis is the newly appointed superintendent.

Miss Isobel Prouse who has been home-ill for the past three weeks with broncho-pneumonia, has returned to Toronto to resume her position.

Mrs. R. Pilkey of Toronto, was guest of Mrs. Townner last Sunday.

Five car-loads of adult skiers and a truck-load of school agers, enjoyed their favorite sport last Wednesday afternoon at Ski Loft. This is the kind of weather for which lovers of ice and snow have been waiting for.

The Goodfellowship Class wishes to announce that the chimes installed in the United Church here, are now fully paid for, and sincere thanks is extended to each and every one who assisted in any way to clear this debt. The lucky winner of the rug in aid of the fund, is Mrs. Irene Lippert, Claremont.

Mr. Ralph Norton has given up his position as mail carrier on Claremont R.R. 1 which he has held since Mr. Jas. Dickinson, veteran carrier, was forced to give up through ill health last fall. We understand that Mr. Jack Brignall has received the new contract.

Those euchre parties being staged each Monday evening in the Masonic Hall by the local Legion, are going over big.

Ontario County Seed Fair is slated for Brooklin on Saturday, March 11th.

Pickering Township Council will convene for their regular March meeting this Thursday, at the municipal building, Brougham.

There's another sale of goods at worthwhile bargain prices being staged by the Claremont Co-op Watch for dodger in the mail.

GREENWOOD

There are a number confined to their homes, with flu or very bad colds, many hoped that with the colder weather the epidemic would banish, but were disappointed.

The Evening Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Roy Hill.

Miss Dian McPhail of Toronto spent the weekend at the E. Pegg home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Morden have been confined to their homes through illness.

The Y.P.S. meet at the Glen East-wood home on Thursday night, when a debate on Sunday Sports will take place.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Clarke spent last Friday in the city.

The Evening W.A. presented their drama at Brougham last Friday night, and last Wednesday night at Audley.

Discuss Plans For Fire Area

Between thirty and forty rate-payers attended the public meeting in the hall on Wednesday night in connection with the proposed fire area, and new fire equipment for the village. The turnout was not large, but exceedingly good considering the stormy night. It was agreed that another meeting would be called in a few weeks' time to be addressed by a representative from the Fire Marshall's office. In the meantime it is planned to obtain more information concerning the extent of the area to be served, including a portion of Uxbridge Township.

Overland Grocery To Change Hands

After nineteen years, the familiar name Overland is to leave Claremont main street. The business including the general store and house has been sold to J. W. Padgett of Toronto, who will take possession in May.

Mrs. Overland has been carrying on since the sudden death of her husband, the late C. A. Overland, but finds the task too arduous to continue.

Mr. and Mrs. Padgett, the newcomers will occupy the dwelling immediately to the rear of the store.

It is with regret that the name Overland of such long standing relinquishes business, but friends trust that Mrs. Overland will decide to remain in the community.

Son of Former Minister Honored

John MacLellan, son of the late Rev. A. MacLellan, a Hydro Safety Engineer, has received signal honour by being elected General Chairman of the Public Utilities Section of the National Safety Council with headquarters in Chicago. The late Rev. MacLellan was a popular minister in Claremont some fifteen years ago, and many friends are known to the family.

John MacLellan is only the second Canadian to receive the honour, in thirty-four years. He graduated in Engineering from the University of Toronto, and joined the Hydro Commission in 1929 where he supervises the output of monthly bulletins and statistics which summarize accidents and their causes.

John is a married man with a son and daughter.

BROUGHAM

Mrs. T. Norton, Mrs. W.A. Knox and Mrs. W. H. Ellicott were at Bowmanville on Thursday attending the Presbyterial W.M.S. meeting, being held there in Trinity Church. Mrs. Norton was honored at this meeting by being appointed President of the Oshawa Presbyterial, W.M.S.

A very enjoyable evening was held in the Hall on Tuesday last when a number of friends and neighbors met to tender a miscellaneous shower to Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Wannopp, who were married a few weeks ago and have now taken up housekeeping here. The large number of valuable and useful presents received, showed the esteem in which the young couple are held. A very tasty and bountiful lunch brought the evening to a close.

Mr. W. J. Brown of Toronto, visited his mother, Mrs. T. C. Brown on Saturday.

Brougham Lodge 155 I.O.O.F. are putting on the initiatory degree on March 2. This will be the official visit of the D.D.G.M. of district 39. The lodge are celebrating its 75th anniversary.

The Friendly Bible Class will hold its March meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter on Monday evening, March 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ritchie spent a couple of days last week with his parents, Bruce and Mrs. Ritchie. Sorry to hear that Miss Barbara Mairs is laid up this week suffering an attack of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Maden and son, Riekey of Agincourt, visited her grandmother, Mrs. Harvey, sr. also Mr. and Mrs. Al Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Prince, also Mrs. Timmons of Oshawa, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Woodward and Evelyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Knox, Ennis-killen, visited his parents, W. A. and Mrs. Knox on Sunday.

Mrs. Carswell of Oshawa, visited with her brother, Mr. John Hamilton on Sunday.

Miss Ann Barclay who has spent the past three weeks in the Western Hospital, Toronto, after suffering a broken leg, is now recuperating at her home here and getting around with the aid of crutches.

The W. I. of Brougham held their February meeting on the 21st postponed from St. Valentine's Day, on account of inclement weather with Mrs. Cassie, president, in the chair. The programme Historical Research was under the convenship of Mrs. Norton, she and her group out-did themselves with their old time dresses, with pantaloons and bustles.

Mrs. Matthews in a quaint bonnet and dress carried a double lided basket and showed a toasting fork, both over 100 years old. Mrs. Ellicott gowned in taffata and lace dress, old fashioned bonnet, and bustle. Mrs. Glen in a long blue silk gown, with a corn colored flowered bonnet, gave a reading telling of a gathering 128 years ago, when the tree trunks served as seats for a church congregation, and the sky their ceiling, in the bush of Rev. Buchanan, who came from Edinburgh to Quebec to preach the gospel in Canada.

Mrs. Norton was the gay young lady in the pantaloons and straw hat.

A quiz by Mrs. Hetu on Brougham, past and present, was very enlightening, Mrs. Wm. Gray, winning the prize.

Some interesting antiques were shown also. A donation is being sent to the March of Dimes.

Mrs. L. J. Johnston reports she will be receiving the slips for the Blue Cross before the March meeting. The Women's Institute are planning a bazaar for a future date, and hope to have a variety of articles for sale at the booths when the date is decided upon.

The Roll Call brought out some grand suggestions as to what the W. I. could do for the community, which will be taken again at the March meeting. Tea was served, daintily by the hostesses Mrs. C. Burrows and Mrs. R. Miller, it being a stormy day, some of the hostesses and members could not attend.
