Duffield of Unionville on the occasion of their golden wedding. Mrs. Wiancko of Stouffville spent Wednesday with her cousin, Mrs. Chas. Hoover. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Sambrook and family in the loss of a husband and father. A good attendance marked the meeting of the W.M.S. at the home of Mrs. C. Hoover on Tuesday. This being the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wideman, and the birthday of Chas. Hoover and Floyd Doner, the ladies returned with their families to spend a happy evening together. 8th Line Markham

Messrs. Albert R. Wideman, Allan Bath and Fred Hamilton of Markham returned last week from a holiday in Florida. Friends and neighbors gathered recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Blizard on the occasion of their 44th anniversary. They were the recipients of some beautiful pieces of chinaware. It is reported that Mr. Fred Mason who recently purchased the 10 acres of land and brick dwelling in Mount Joy has sold it to a Toronto buyer. This fine property is known as the Dan Raymer home. Many of our residents are at present confined to their homes through illness. Mr. Silverthorne of Toronto has been visiting at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gambell, for a few days. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Harry Otter and family on the death of a devoted husband and father. Mr. Otter bought the farm of the late Fred Banks and moved here with his family a few years ago from the Agincourt district. He had been in failing health for the past few months. The funeral was held on Friday of last week with interment in Pine Hills cemetery. Hockey fans in the locality have had the opportunity of seeing some real contests at Stouffville, Collingwood and Oshawa.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Mr. and Mrs. S. Bannar, Mr. and Mrs. J. Donaldson of Toronto called on the Hoppers, Johnsons and Mr. L. Stoutenbergh on Sunday. Miss Mabel Sanderson is spending a few days with friends at Hamilton. The W.M.S. quilting will be held in the Sunday School room on Thursday, March 23rd. Mr. Percy Bennett with his son Ray and Master Freddie Walker took in the Marlboro and Kitchener hockey game at the Maple Leaf Gardens on Saturday. We wish a speedy recovery to Mr. Reid Brumwell who had the misfortune to fall and fracture one of his heels. He is in the East General Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. P. Bennett and Ray and Master Freddie Walker spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. F. Faithful of Toronto. The Senior Women's Institute is holding a social in the community hall on Tuesday evening, March 28 at 8 o'clock. The Borden's Golden Crest Choir of 35 ladies' voices are presenting a program in the Victoria Square United Church, April 3rd, at 8 p.m. Many happy returns say a host of friends to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burnham who quietly celebrated their 68th wedding anniversary on Wednesday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Burnham were married at Ardrea on March 22, 1882, by Rev. Robt. McKee, a brother-in-law of Mr. Burnham. They have lived most of their happy married life on the farm. Born to the union were two daughters, Pearl (Mrs. Ross Nichols), Victoria Square, Nellie (Mrs. John Duggan), Thistletown, and one son Clifford of Orillia. They have living six grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. The groom of 68 years ago is now in his 90th year, while his bride is in her 85th year. Mrs. Jacob Lunau, Richmond Hill, a sister of Mr. Burnham, is in her 85th year. The groom of 1882 has two brothers living, John of Orillia who lately celebrated his 64th wedding anniversary, and George of Mt. Albert who this winter celebrated his golden wedding. The bride has one sister living in Saskatoon. Showers of cards and good wishes from friends and relatives arrived during the day.

Zone Implement Dealers Observe Sixth Anniversary

Retail Implement Dealers for the local zone held an anniversary meeting in Uxbridge on Thursday evening which was touched off with a wonderful supper served at the Mansion House which is becoming famous for its culinary proclivity. The affair marked the sixth anniversary of the zone's activity, and reference was made to the first gathering held in the same hotel, when with A. V. Nolan, Reeve of Stouffville, acting as chairman for the inaugural occasion, officers were appointed and the dealers for the first time in history began to adopt and follow best business practices, much to their own advantage and to the farm customers whom they serve. Mr. Nolan was invited to take the chair on this occasion, but was unable to attend. Rightful credit was given to Chas. Cooper, Claremont, and James Dryden; who were referred to as the founders of the organization, for it was from their determined effort in arousing the dealers to their condition, and bringing together the present vast organization. The zones operate from coast to coast. Mr. Eric Jones, branch manager for I.H.C. was another man present at the inaugural six years ago, and he was able to attend this gathering when he gave a short address advising the dealers to stick together, in fair business practices. Arthur Wilkes of Calgary, federation secretary, brought greetings to the association from the West coast, then again the popular president Chas. Cooper, Claremont, was heard. He outlined the activities of the federation, and envisioned a real future for its members. Guest speaker F. McCoy gave many facts of interest, and led the meeting into open discussion. One felt the spirit of renewed allegiance, each member present facing the future with confidence that through the formation of this organization, dealers could render a service to the farming communities across Canada better than ever before while at the same time maintaining a better standard of living for themselves. As one member said, "all this has come about because of the foresight of a few individual dealers who envisioned what could be accomplished through unity and fellowship."

GREENWOOD

Misses Carol and Marion McVey and friend of Toronto spent the weekend in the village. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Clarke visited with relatives at Hampton last Sunday. Mrs. M. Minaker's sister of the city was with her over Sunday. A few from here attended the Disney-Hart wedding in Toronto last Saturday afternoon. Mr. A. Morden left last Friday for Dallas, Texas. He will spend a month or two there to see if his health will improve. The Evening Auxiliary will meet on Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. C. Closson. Mr. and Mrs. J. Middleton and Mr. and Mrs. Beelby visited last Thursday afternoon at the latter's sisters', Mrs. Wm. Cowie and Miss Graham of Claremont. The Y.P.S. will meet at the home of Miss Jean Pascoe on Thursday night.

The oyster supper of last Wednesday night proved a success in spite of the stormy weather and filled roads. It was with regret that the community learned of the tragic death of Mr. George Jackson. He was found outside his cabin home on the rear of the fourth concession, south of the gravel pit. He had been a resident of this part all his life time. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ham of Claremont who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, March 21. The ladies are quilting another quilt this week. This is the fourth one this winter. The work is done at the home of Mrs. E. Disney's. We are pleased to report that Mrs. Cole is able to be about again after an attack of the flu.
