White-Robed Choir from Indiana Thrills Packed Audience Here

The white-robed choir of thirtyfive voices, from Bethel College, Mishawaka, Indiana, under the capable leadership of Prof. W. Hallman, sang to a capacity audience in the Stouffville United Church on Monday evening. It was an inspirational service and many expressed deep appreciation of the fine talent displayed. One of the students spoke briefly on the work of the College which is an organ of the United Missionary Church, and provides a Liberal! Arts Degree.

The choir is touring Ontario in a chartered bus. They were entertained in the local United Missionary Church by the ladies of Gormley, Markham and Stouffville churches.
