Easter Auxiliary Meeting

The Easter Thank-offering meeting of the Garrett Evening Auxiliary was held in Stouffville United Church on Wednesday evening, April 12th. The president, Mrs. J. M. Storry, presided.

Beautiful organ and piano music played by Mrs. C. Nolan and Miss Anne Lehman before and during the meeting was much appreciated. The devotional was in charge of Mrs. Roy Grove who chose as her subject "Faith in the Risen Lord." Miss M. Bannerman offered prayer. Mrs. C. Brillinger rendered a solo in her usual delightful manner. The guest speaker, Miss Agnes Rampersad of Trinidad gave an interesting account of the work being done by the W.M.S. in that island. A vote of thanks to all participants in the program was offered by Miss Eva Hoover, and the meeting closed with the Hebrew Benediction. Delicious refreshments were served in the Sunday School room. The lovely spring flowers that decorated the

There will be no interruption in the delivery of The Tribune on Markham rural routes due to the post office in the neighboring village closing at six o'clock. Heretofore this paper went south on the evening train every Wednesday, and was delivered to the post office that evening, ready for the staff to distribute them first thing Thursday morning. Under the new arrangement, the Tribune will be shipped to Markham on the down train Thursday morning, and will be distributed before the rural couriers leave the post office so that there will be no interruption in service over the fact that the mail bags do not reach Markham until the morning train from the north comes in.

On Sunday afternoon we saw activity around a wren's nest in the yard, and when a head popped out of the small round hole in the bird house, one couldn't believe that our summer friends had returned. Well, they hadn't, because in a short time a sparrow came out, revealing the fact these common birds can get through a very small aperture, when they are looking for a ready-made house.

Three of the last issues of The Tribune, counting the current issue, have been sixteen page papers, and last week's twelve pages. That's very heavy going, and provides plenty of reading matter with well illustrated advertisements. It's a big change from ten years ago when an eight page all home print was first adopted. Prior to that four pages were printed in Toronto. Today the entire paper including the casting of pictures, and printing of the paper is all done in the plant of the newspaper.

W.A. April Meeting

Mrs. Clayton Baker conducted the devotional period on Monday evening when the W.A. held their regular meeting at the church, assisted by Mrs. H. Lee and Mrs. R. Winterstein. She stressed the practical application of faith to our everyday life. Mrs. Harold Lewis contributed two vocal numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Nolan, and Marie Schell and Joy Wood played a piano duet. Miss Margaret Hossie gave a humorous reading on Easter bonnets. The program was prepared by Mrs. Wes. Schell and Mrs. D. Davis. Mrs. Jas. McCreight was in the chair. Watch The Tribune for interesting news about the sale of perennials and White Elephant Sale sponsored by the W.A. to be held on Saturday afternoon, May 13th.

Mrs. Kirby Sibley and four children from Omeme were visitors in town on Wednesday. The former Mabel Neal, Mrs. Sibley will be remembered by many around Stouffville, having spent several years with the late Dr. Ira and Mrs. Frell some twenty-three years ago. Mrs. Sibley called to see her mother in Claremont. It will be recalled that Kirby Sibley was killed by accident about seven years ago while operating a gravel truck. He left a young wife and six children who have carried on successfully in the same place about a mile from Omeme. The two eldest sons are now married.

OBITUARY

JOHN M. KELLINGTON

At his home at Ravenshoe on Monday morning, April 3, after an illness of several months, borne with patience and Christian fortitude, there passed peacefully away in his 83rd year, John M. Kellington.

He was the son of Elizabeth Smith and Robert Kellington and was born in North Gwillimbury Township. He was the last surviving member of the family, two sisters, Belle (Mrs. Geo. Micks), and Mary having predeceased him. He married Emma Rye on June 29, 1896, and settled on their farm near Ravenshoe where he resided until the time of his death. His chief interests were his family, home and church.

In his home he loved to greet his friends with sincere hospitality. He was always interested in community welfare and attended the United Missionary Church.

He will be remembered by a host of friends for his cheerfulness and willingness to help. He enjoyed a full life.

Besides his sorrowing wife he is survived by three daughters and two sons, Arlie (Mrs. Stanley Shanks), Ravenshoe; Myrtle (Mrs. G. Coates), Mount Albert; Della (Mrs. M. Druery), Hamilton; Carl of Keswick and Vern at home.

A largely attended funeral service was held on Wednesday, April 5, at the Strasser Funeral Home and was conducted by Rev. John King with Rev. H. Hallman and Rev. G. Campbell assisting. Mrs. Geo. Allison and Guy Rutledge of Stouffville sang a duet, "Precious Lord, Hold My Hand."

Miss Betty Woodland spent the Easter holiday in Ottawa.

Mrs. Billy Brown, east end, is quite ill, and Billy and Mrs. Brown's friends are worried about her condition.

The two local restaurants were more than taxed on Saturday afternoon and evening, to cope with the crowd coming in for the Haliburton-Breslau hockey match in the local arena.

Trout season opens this year a week from next Saturday which is the 29th day of April. Two extra days allowed this year, says Hon. Harold Scott, minister of Game and Fisheries.

Rink Manager Percy Hutchinson announces that unless some unforeseen circumstances occur, the Newmarket rink (artificial ice) will close the middle of this week for the season.

Mrs. E. MacLeod has moved to Toronto, friends in town will be sorry to learn. Recently Mrs. MacLeod had an apartment with Mrs. Geo. Watson, O'Brien Avenue, and has been a resident here for probably 20 or 25 years.

David Golding of Willowdale held the lucky ticket and won the television set given away by Stouffville Veterans in their recent drive for funds. The draw was made on April 5th. Farr's Radio Electric store sold the equipment for the draw.

The Mothercraft Advice Room will be open in the United Church basement on Tuesday, April 25th, from 11.30 a.m. to 5 p.m. All mothers and babies welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hyndman of Regina, Sask., on their way home from a holiday in Bermuda, called on Mr. and Mrs. Clayt Baker for a short visit.

"We just had word from a relative who became a father at Easter," said a Ballantrae man the other day. "The names of the three new arrivals are Easter, Esther and Estelle, and my wife thinks it cute, but I think it's confusion," he concluded. Name of our interviewer is withheld, since there is a possibility of the names of the three "E's" being substituted for some others.

The members of the above reading group are Mrs. Fred Brown, Mrs. Sisson, Mrs. R. Young, Mrs. F. Riches, Mrs. G. Gunn, Mrs. G. Kellington, Mrs. D. Chadwick, Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. Logan and Mrs. S. S. Now for Outdoor Cleanup

Spring is just around the corner, judging by the enthusiastic outdoor workers about homes in Stouffville. One can see folks raking up the lawns, others are planting hothouse seeds, and uncovering the bushes that had been tenderly wrapped last fall as protection against the severe winter season that we expect in this country. Boulevards on Main street took a bad beating over winter, and are now a sorry sight covered with sand and calcium that had been tossed up by the snow plows. The calcium is hard on the grass at this season, and seems to kill it out. Another thing that is injurious to the boulevards is the thoughtless motorist who drives his car into the boulevard when it is soft. Numerous instances have come to light where motorists have damaged the sod. When householders are good enough to care for the boulevards, motorists who drive on them must surely fail to appreciate the work done to make Main Street the pleasant highway it is in summer. Try and avoid driving on, or walking over, boulevards until they are settled after the spring season, and so co-operate in caring for the "show window" section of our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lippingwell and son of Cannington, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Choyce of Weston visited Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Davis and attended the hockey game Saturday night.

The floods up around Walkerton were responsible for the Herald Times skipping an issue, since five tons of newspaper had to be elevated from the office floor to escape the rising waters, motors on printing machines were detached and moved, all of which contributed to forcing the management to suspend publication for the week. When one reads of such instances here and there over the province, we are more than thankful here in Stouffville and district that such conditions are almost unknown here. We haven't had a flood here that presented a threat in 25 years.

F. E. Rae's Sport Trousers, Top Coats, and Ready-to-Wear Suits are priced just right.

Miss Vivian Saddler of Toronto spent the weekend with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lee.
