VOICE OF PROPHECY BIBLE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question—Do you believe in the verbal inspiration of the Bible?

Answer—If the words of the original manuscripts were not inspired, what was? The Bible is composed of words. In Hebrews 12:27 the whole argument turns on three words, "yet once more," in Galatians 4:9, on the passive rather than the active voice of the verb; in John 8:58, on the present instead of the past tense; in Galatians 3:16 on the singular of a noun, rather than the plural. Taking these four texts together, we find that to change a phrase, the voice or tense of a verb, or the number of a noun would destroy the teaching of the Scriptures. Isn't this close to verbal inspiration?

Q.—Is there any hope for a real drunkard?

A.—There is hope for anybody who will really turn to God for help. Isaiah 59:1, 2: "Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither His ear heavy, that it cannot hear: but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you, that He will not hear." And I John 1:9 is still in the Bible.

Q.—Where is Christ now?

A.—"Loking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising to be despised, and to be despised at the right hand of the throne of God." Hebrews 12:2.

Q.—Does the Bible say anything about someone's trying to change the time?

A.—The prophecy is in Daniel 7:25. "And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time."

Q.—Does the prophecy in Daniel 2 have anything to do with us today?

A.—Yes. The great prophetic image had four main parts: head of gold, breast of silver, sides of brass, legs of iron, representing four succeeding world kingdoms. These were Babylon, Persia, Greece, and Rome, which have all passed away. The next, or fifth kingdom will be Christ's. (See Daniel 2:44.) Read the whole chapter, and it will be clear.

FARMER ROBBED OF $38, WATCH

Matthew Buell, a farmer on No. 7 Highway, west of Edgeley, was robbed of $38 and a gold watch on Sunday night.

Mr. Buell said he was working in his house when he looked up to see a man with a small revolver. The bandit took his money and watch and fled, but Mr. Buell was too frightened to notice whether he fled on foot or in a car.

The following is the final item of copy written for this newspaper by the late A. V. Nolan, publisher and Reeve, less than an hour before his death last Thursday evening. It is typical of the many items written by the late Mr. Nolan showing the multiplicity of calls received by a man in his position.

THE LIFE OF A REEVE HAS MANY ANGLES

Spring is here and the skunks are on the run. Two calls last week to the office of the village reeve clamoured for help to drive out the pesky little fellows. "You control the dogs, force 'em to be tied up, pay a license, but skunks have the run of the back porch and everybody else runs in the opposite direction."

A yowling cat persists in annoying a dear lady who says "I voted for you, can't you order Brown's (name fictitious) cat to be kept in at night?"

On a fashionable street, the neighbor's dog stole or is charged with stealing a roast of beef and that is serious in days when a bit of beef is costing as much as a gold brick.

Still another warning comes to the reeve because a couple of police dogs are said to be frightening children, but all these dog complaints will be effectually halted ere this week's issue goes out for dogs will not be permitted to run at large after May 1st.

Additional complaints pour in about the heaved sidewalks, and the defence is that every town has the same problem. The weather man takes a special delight in uprooting sidewalks, perhaps because they cost so much to repair. Councillor Henry Ogden has promised that when warm weather comes an effort will be made to smooth out the uneven blocks, or the worst of them.

AUDLEY

The whole neighborhood was shocked on Friday last to learn that Sydney Wonnacott had passed away in the Oshawa Hospital following an operation for appendicitis, at the early age of 41 years. As a young man of 16 he came into active co-operation with F. M. and Mrs. Chapman in the building up of Grasmere Orchards farm into one of the largest apple production and marketing concerns as well as developing the Pickering Jerseys up to its present herd of about 90 cattle that have made their mark in the show ring as well as in the production end. A cow that he was fitting to take honors had just completed a silver and gold medal standing.

For 25 years he has been like a son to the Chapmans who have no family of their own. He married a neighbor's daughter, Miss Jean Annan, 17 years ago and lived in the new cottage on the farm built for him. Here he raised six children, the oldest Frank being now 15 years.

He was singularly gifted in the possession of a pleasing personality, was well read on current and scientific topics and was called in frequently by the neighbors for advice along cattle and orchard lines. As a salesman he was hard to surpass. He was the soul of honor and his word was his bond. Nothing was too much trouble for him to assist another and his faithfulness to his employer was commented upon by all.

A constant stream of callers came to the farm home on Saturday and Sunday where the casket was surrounded by a great floral display, gifts from far and near. An unique honor was the presentation by the neighbors of a cheque of over $100 for Mrs. Wonnacott and the family to use in some helpful way in honoring his memory. He thought a great deal of his family and had provided well for them in case he were not in a position to earn.

He was a member of the United Church, Pickering. He took a good interest in the Audley Community Club.

A private service by the Rev. Mr. Young was held at his late residence on Monday at 2 p.m. followed by a service in the United Church, Pickering, where Rev. Mr. Jenkinson of King, and Rev. Mr. Ferguson of Birchcliff Heights officiated. Bryant, Henry Westney, Ernie Trimble, and Reg. Ide. The arrangements were handled by Wm. McEachnie and Son, while W. O. Bennett a long time friend of the deceased attended to the details.
