Local and Personal Happenings

Lions Club Tag Day on Saturday, June 3rd, for Manitoba Relief.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker are now in Haliburton where they spend the summer at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Porter and son Bobby of Newcastle were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Schell last weekend.

Visitors at the Christie Armstrong home this week were Mrs. F. Innis, Brooklin, Mrs. E. Handbidge, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. F. Woods, Miami, Florida.

Be generous when the ladies of the Stouffville Institute call at your home or business place this week on behalf of the Salvation Army Spring Red Shield Drive.

Mr. Thos. Birkett, local insurance salesman, was in Hamilton for several days last week on a business trip.

"Flood the Fund," that's the slogan for the giant Bingo party being staged in the Veterans' Hall, Stouffville, this Friday night in aid of the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund. The affair will commence at 8 o'clock, and is sponsored by the Independent Order of Oddfellows.

Read Murray McMullen's Sport column in this week's issue of The Tribune. Murray has done a number of interesting sports articles for this year's High School Annual and his snappy free style will please you.

Maurice Hastings, who was raised in Stouffville, and attended school here nearly half a century ago, visited his former home town last week, and renewed acquaintances with a number of old friends. Mr. Hastings is now the proprietor of Hastings & Sons Foundry, in Stratford, a thriving business in this western Ontario city.

Mr. Oscar Burkholder was in town last week making his annual delivery of strawberry plants to local customers. Mr. Burkholder brought 8,000 plants this year from his Breslau acreage. He uses the advertising columns of The Tribune regularly, and has been a reader of this newspaper for more than forty years.

Directly east of the Don Chadwick property, west end, Elmer Farthing has commenced building operations on his lots which have been known through the years as the David Rusnell garden. Elmer plans to build a storey and a half home for himself. We understand three lots have been sold farther north on William St. to J. K. Agnew, Claire Bell and a Mr. McKenzie, a brother-in-law of Elmer Sherk.

Art Wideman, Pickering Twp. farmer just east of town, drew one of the largest consignments of tomato plants through Main St. that we've ever seen on Monday morning. Mr. Wideman had 12,000 plants loaded on three farm wagons behind his tractor. The plants were going from the Brillinger green houses here to Mr. Wideman's farm at the corner of the 9th con. and the Markham-Pickering townline.

Dr. Fred Warriner of Winnipeg is in town visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. S. Warriner, Church St. Dr. Warriner, a former mayor of the stricken Manitoba capital, tells us that the story of the flood has been anything but exaggerated. His own home situated in a fine residential section is flooded, and a sandbag dyke crosses the back doorstep. Dr. Warriner addressed the congregation in the Stouffville United Church on Sunday morning, and brought a picture of the tragedy which has befallen our nation's fourth largest city.

The regular meeting of the Garret Evening Auxiliary was held Wednesday, May 17th, in the Sunday School room of the United Church, Stouffville. Miss Eva Hoover presided and conducted the business after which Miss Gladys Brooks gave the devotional, taking as her topic the thought contained in the 25th chapter of St. Matthew, verses 31-40. "In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Misses Marilyn and Roberta Bone provided the musical part of the program which was much appreciated. A very interesting and helpful talk was given by Mrs. Norman Baker on Dale Carnegie's book, "How to Stop Worrying and Start Living." She said that half the hospital beds were occupied by patients suffering from illness caused from worry. "Work is the best anaesthetic for sick nerves," is the belief of Mr. Carnegie. The meeting was closed with prayer by Rev. Davis after which ice cream and little cakes were served.

Women's and children's new and used clothing, quilts, etc., valued at over $600. were on display and were afterwards packed and prepared for shipment to the United Church distributing centre in Toronto.

Mr. Ralph Gregg of Guelph visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Acton, Mill Street.

Mrs. M. Toogood of Unionville has been elected as an executive member of the York County Home and School Council which boasts a membership of 17,000.

Mr. F. L. Button, accompanied by Mr. Reg. Button, son Eric, and Mr. Button's father-in-law, Mr. Pearson of Queensville motored to Haliburton during the weekend to open their summer cottage.

A bus load of members from Stouffville and Brougham Oddfellows Lodges motored to Hamilton on Saturday where they witnessed special degree work being performed by members of Unity Lodge, Rochester, N.Y.

The Young People of the Stouffville Christian Church are having a musical evening Friday, May 26, at 8 p.m. The guest speaker will be Rev. Norman Rowan. A missionary offering will be taken. Everyone welcome.

Mr. Walsh from Mt. Albert has turned sod for his new residence on the new Orchard Park subdivision at the west end. Mr. Walsh who is a plasterer by trade, purchased a lot some time ago from Claude Brillinger, and will add another home to the row of fine new residences already erected there.

Not all the races last Saturday were broadcast. When the 11.08 train pulled into Stouffville station, 8 crates of homing pigeons were aboard, consigned from London, Ontario, to the station agent. Mr. Mowat estimated there were 400 in the lot. At 11.30 he acted as official starter, releasing the birds for the race back to the home lofts.

At the regular meeting of the Stouffville Lions Club on Monday evening, Gar Lehman was installed into membership in this local service organization. Past President Andy Williams officiated in the induction ceremony. A. C. Hardy, public relations officer with the Ontario Hydro Commission was the guest speaker, and presented an interesting review of provincial hydro development in addition to showing sound movies on the Queenston plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson Adams of Grand Rapids, Mich., visited friends in Stouffville last week. Mr. Adams is interested in retiring in his old home town, having just recently left the teaching profession in which he has been engaged for many years. Mr. Adams will be recalled by some of our elder residents when the family resided at Lemonville on the well-known Dave Aitchison farm. They later moved into town where Mr. Adams was employed for a time with this newspaper.

GRANDPARENTS OF WESTERN BRIDE ONCE LOCAL FARMERS AND STOREKEEPER
Colonial white satin fashioned the wedding gown chosen by Anne Noreen Cuyler Reg. N., for her wedding to Donald Reese Fremont Hargrave. Her slipper length gown featured a snugly fitted lace bodice and long lily-point sleeves. The billowing skirt was styled with a lace panel down the front terminating in a slight train. Her chapel length veil of illusion net was held in place by a satin and lace halo and she carried a powder puff bouquet of white gardenias and gladioli.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson Cuyler, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carlton Hargrave of Redcliff. The bride's grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Abel T. Cuyler, once farmed at Dickson Hill. They also kept the Bethesda General Store from 1904 until 1911. The bride's mother was the former Miss Clara A. Pollock of Aurora.

Rev. Harry Kay officiated at the ceremony which took place Saturday May 13, in Westminster United Church at 3.30 in the afternoon. Baskets of pink carnations, white stocks and white gladioli decorated the church and the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and her only attendant was Miss Shirley Clay who chose a blue satin gown with matching halo headdress trimmed with a band of pink sweet peas and she carried a powder puff bouquet of Virginia carnations.

Mr. Richard Hargrave, brother of the groom was best man. Ushers were Mr. David Cuyler, the bride's brother, Mr. Cecil Sangster and Mr. Joseph Hutton. Miss Marjorie Collier of Missoula, Montana, presided at the organ console and accompanied the guest soloist, Miss Dorothy Williams as she sang "O Perfect Love."

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in Westminster Church Hall.

The bride is a graduate of the Royal Alexandra Hospital, Edmonton, and the groom is on the staff of the United Geophysical Survey. Mr. and Mrs. Hargrave will reside in Yorkton, Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Heise of Toronto were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Watts, Stouffville.

Mrs. G. R. Gordon, Hamilton, accompanied by Miss Mildred Forsyth, Parry Sound, was here visiting at the Harold Forsyth home for a few days last week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, former Stouffville resident who was reported recently to have suffered a broken hip in Toronto is now convalescing in Hillcrest Convalescent Hospital, 47 Austin Terrace.

Mr. Alger Maye, Goodwood, completed seeding operations on Saturday, and tells us he planted a little over sixty acres of his 140 acre farm, the former Robinson place, fronted by the village park. Mr. Maye works this large acreage alone.

Work commenced this week on the new hydro sub-station to be located just opposite Les Wilson Motors at the west end of town. The new station will be similar to that located at Ringwood, and will be part of the new 60 cycle feeding Stouffville.

The Stouffville Institute are seeking the whereabouts of one of two wheelchairs which they generously obtained some time ago, and have been loaning free of charge to any needy person in town. If you have been the recipient of one of these chairs in your home, or are aware of where it is located now would you kindly communicate with Mrs. Jas. Ridout, Stouffville.

Tag Day Here for Manitoba Relief
A Tag Day for Manitoba Relief will be sponsored by the Stouffville Lions Club on Saturday, June 3rd. Lions Vern Davies and Ken Wagg are in charge of the undertaking, and girls of the C.G.I.T. and boys of the local Cubs' organization will do the tagging.

Rae Fleury has left town for Lakeview House, Jackson's Pt. where he has taken a managerial position for the summer season.

Miss Eileen Cooper of Toronto was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Birkett over the weekend. Mr. R. W. Wilson of Brooklin spent a couple of days at the Birkett home last week.

Dr. J. S. Bell of East York, who will be recalled as the son of Mr. J. S. Bell, former Markham school principal, has been appointed a district superintendent of the St. John Ambulance Brigade. He will command the Toronto sub-district.

Mrs. (Dr.) Neil Smith suffered the loss of an uncle last week in the passing of Mr. Justice McFarland. Justice McFarland who was senior judge in service in the trial division of the Supreme Court of Ontario had been ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Stover, Mr. Ambrose Stover, Miss Mae Mowder, all of Stouffville, Mr. and Mrs. Don Brown of Hamilton were in London on Saturday attending the wedding of Miss Ruth Stover, daughter of Archie Stover of Milverton, to Mr. Melvin Davidson. The couple will make their home in Sarnia.

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Municipal Hall on May 18. The president, Mrs. J. Ridout, was in the chair. Mrs. O. Tranter gave a very inspiring talk on "Spring-time." Mrs. Arnold gave the Current Events and Mrs. Sanderson a reading. The District Annual is being held in Highland Creek on June 7th. Delegates appointed to attend are Mrs. Mortson and Mrs. Shuttleworth. The meeting was saddened by the sudden passing of a very faithful worker for many years, Miss Sadie Stewart. A minute of silence was observed for the late Mrs. Byam. The meeting closed with the National Anthem and a social half hour followed.

Mrs. Harman Guest Speaker

At the special evening service in Stouffville United Church on Sunday last, conducted by the Woman's Association, the speaker was the capable and gracious president of the Woman's Association of Toronto East Presbytery, Mrs. S. L. Harman of Toronto. She was introduced by Rev. Douglas Davis. Mrs. Harman stressed the importance of being yourself, of doing well that task for which you are best fitted. She pointed out that in God's hands what we regard as little things become of major importance. She told of Lincoln's inferiority complex, until he lost himself in a great cause, and ultimately he became numbered with the great of all time.

Mrs. Charles Nolan was at the organ, and was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Joseph Gayman. The ushers were Mrs. L. Topham, Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. F. Fairles and Miss J. Hosie. The choir contributed two well-rendered numbers. Miss Brodie read the Scripture and led in prayer, and Mrs. Delbert

Booth pronounced the Offertory Prayer. The president of the W.A., Mrs. James McCreight, presided over the service.

A new furnace service has been inaugurated here, known as Stouffville Furnace Service. This is a branch of the Queen City Furnace Co. Ltd. handling cleaning, repairing, re-building of all types of furnaces. Telephone Stouffville 2671 for information.

Mrs. Arthur Lewis, who recently had the misfortune to lose her husband when the tractor he was driving overturned, has been fortunate in obtaining rooms in the home of Mrs. George Watson of O'Brien Avenue.

The magnolia tree planted by the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller many years ago is now a picture, covered with mauve and white blooms, on the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chadwick's home at the corner of William and Rupert Sts.
