BLOOMINGTON

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. Ramer and the family in the sudden death of a very highly esteemed person in our district, Mrs. Malcolm Ramer. Mr. and Mrs. H. Shantz and Janet of Shrigley were with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Tranmer, last week and attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Ramer. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lewis and son who have moved into the former Mrs. J. Lemon home. Mr. and Mrs. W. Garlick and Karen of Toronto were weekend guests with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Topper. Miss Joan Gayman of Unionville spent Sunday with Miss Helen Lemon. Mr. C. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. W. Taylor and family motored to Niagara Falls on Monday.

6th Line Whitchurch

Friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rae last Friday night to tender Mr. and Mrs. Pagnello (nee Elaine Rae) a miscellaneous shower in honor of their recent marriage. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received and we all wish them much happiness as they journey down the road of life together. Mrs. Robt. Winterstein and Miss Norah Macklem visited Sunday with Mrs. Kennedy of Uxbridge. Mrs. S. H. Foote visited in Toronto last Wednesday and went to see the rug made by Queen Mary which was on display to the public. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bacon and Wayne visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bacon and boys of Greenbank.

Former Claremont Resident Succumbs With Broken Hip

The death occurred in Wellesley Hospital, Toronto, on Sunday, May 21st, of Obijah Forsyth, formerly of Claremont. Mr. Forsyth entered the hospital a short time ago after sustaining a broken hip in a fall. He was in his 87th year. The late Mr. Forsyth was born in Pickering Township, and spent his lifetime there until 1939 when he removed to Toronto. His wife, the former Mary Jewel predeceased him in 1937. Deceased followed the trade of a mason while in Claremont, and also a teamster. He was identified with the local Baptist Church. Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. Marie Moriarty of Detroit, and a son Roy of Port Credit. A brother, Philip Forsyth resides in Markham, and a sister Mrs. Rachel Sedore is in Stratford. The funeral on Wednesday, May 24th, was conducted in the Claremont Baptist Church with interment in the Claremont Cemetery.

Former Uxbridge Boy Speaks at Tractor Maintenance Club

The second meeting of the York County Tractor Maintenance Club was held Monday evening at Fred Byers, John Deere implement establishment at Stouffville. The guest speaker for the evening was Ralph Gregg from the Dept. of Agricultural Engineering at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gregg of Uxbridge. The subject for the evening was tractor fuels and fuel systems. The first meeting of the Tractor Club was held at Victoria Square in April, at which the club was organized and a lecture on good starting practices of the farm tractor was given. A movie on farm safety was also shown. The third meeting of the club will be in June at which time there will be a lecture on the ignition system of the farm tractor. The meeting in July will be on lubricants and lubrication systems of the farm tractor while in August, cooling systems, tires, clutches, etc. will be thoroughly discussed. An achievement day will be held sometime during the month of September at which each member will take part in a Safe Driving Contest with the farm tractor. All farmers in the local area are welcome to attend each meeting during the summer.

UNIONVILLE

Mr. Matt Rae, who has successfully finished his second year at University, has accepted a position as assistant educational officer at R.C.A.F. camp, Greenwood, Nova Scotia. His duties commence at once and continue for the full holiday season. Matt had the same work at R.C.A.F. camp at Aylmer, Ontario, for the summer of 1949.

ALMIRA

This seems to be the time for attending weddings for Mr. and Mrs. John Timbers. On Saturday they attended the Timbers-Ball wedding at Vandorf, and on Wednesday the Golden-Timbers at Armadale. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stickley accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Conner spent Sunday at Stayner.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nigh and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Winger of Gormley spent the weekend at Springvale. Miss Marjorie and Marion Conner had dinner Sunday with the Nigh sisters.

VANDORF

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson on the arrival of a baby daughter, a sister for Kathleen and Donna. Mr. and Mrs. Coutts, parents of Mrs. Robinson visited there on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grant and Phyllis, Miss Pat Addison, Orillia, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. Oliver on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewing and family, Holt, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Irwin and family on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Powell, Aurora, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Powell for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. R. Scott visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pollard, Belhaven, on Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Fraser, Mr. Oscar Cummings, Toronto, visited Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dibbs on Sunday. Susan and David Strothers are holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dibbs.

Neighbors gathered for a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Preston last Friday evening to honour them on their fifth wedding anniversary. They received many lovely gifts.

TIMBERS-BALL

Pink snapdragon and cala lilies were the setting for the marriage of Alma Ball, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ball, 2nd con. Whitchurch, and Mr. Carl Timbers, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Timbers, Aurora. The wedding took place in Wesley United Church, Vandorf, with Rev. E. C. Moddle officiating. Mr. George Richardson was organist and Mrs. Grant Morley sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a white satin gown with satin train and shoulder length veil. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Carley Grove, Markham, wore green taffeta and carried pink roses. The junior bridesmaid, Miss Darlene Timbers, wore yellow taffeta and carried mauve sweetpeas. The flower girl, little Miss Carol Ball, wore mauve taffeta and carried mauve sweet peas. Little Miss Irene Heacock, acting as a ring-bearer, wore white taffeta and accompanying her was Master Gordon Timbers, also ring bearer. All girls wore matching headresses. The best man was Howard Timbers and ushers were Merle and Paul Timbers, all brothers of the groom.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Ball received in a dress of navy crepe, hat to match, white accessories and wore a corsage of pink sweet peas. Mrs. Timbers also wore navy crepe, trimmed with lace and navy accessories, and a corsage of sweet peas.

9th Line Markham

The Farm Forum held a most enjoyable social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wicks Jr. on Monday evening, May 15. During the early part of the evening's program splendid films with sound effects, were shown such as the Leslie Bell Choir, the great Lumber Industry of Canada and a very entertaining film on Abbot and Costello. The next portion of the evening was taken in playing various games after which a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Wicks and Mrs. Robt. Simpson who were hostesses for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Simpson extended a very cordial invitation to the Forum to meet at their home for a social evening in June. We are glad to report that Mr. Murray Lewis who suffered a broken wrist is improving satisfactorily.
